Levy Pupils to Present

Recital on Monday
Another interesting violin recital will be given by the pupils of the Institute of Musical Education of Medford, at the First Christian church, Ninth and Oakdale, Monday, December 26, at 8:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Levy will present two orchestras in this recital, pupils in their first year of instruction and pupils in their second year. A number of interesting solos will be offered and well known compositions, such as "Blue Danube Waltz," "Bacchante," "Elegiac Chorus" and "Silent Night" will be played by the orchestras.

Presbyterian Sunday School Program Tonight

The Presbyterian Sunday school program will be held this evening at 7 o'clock and Santa Claus is scheduled to arrive for the occasion. A candy treat and short program will be features of the evening. "The Manger" will be presented by Mrs. W. J. Howell's group, and the primary department will give a number of songs and recitations.

The Junior class will present "Why the Chimney Rang." The intermediate department will entertain with a surprise number, and the program will be followed by observance of "White Christmas" and each person is asked to bring something in "unperishable food for the needy."

St. Mark's Christmas Party Will Be Friday

A very inviting atmosphere is promised for Friday evening at St. Mark's Guild hall, when the Sunday school of St. Mark's church, Episcopal, will entertain with Christmas tree and entertainment. A program of carols and tableaux will be presented before a background of Christmas tree and garlands.

Parents of the Sunday School Pupils are Invited

Parents of the Sunday school pupils are invited, and as always at Christmas time, each pupil is asked to bring a gift for the Christmas tree to be distributed to the needy during the holidays.

Catholic Church Invites Public to Christmas Mass

The Sacred Heart Catholic church at Tenth and Oakdale again invites the people of Medford and the Rogue River valley to high mass Christmas morning at 8 o'clock, at which time there will be a beautiful and masterful rendition of J. Alfred Schell's mass in honor of St. Lawrence, one of the most difficult masses ever written. The blending harmonies of this great composition, the highest state, require artistry of the musicians.

Sebastian Apollo, organist at the church and well known as director and composer in local circles, skillfully interprets the beauty and intricacies of this masterpiece of liturgical music, and is ably assisted by a splendid choir of mixed voices.

Sopranoes are Mrs. Josephine Prevost, Mrs. John J. Wilkinson, Mrs. Frank M. Giltch, Mrs. Zita Singler Maddox, alto, Mrs. Rose Singler, Mrs. Barbara Horvack, tenor, L. N. Foy, I. E. Foy, basses, R. A. Mikache, W. Stuart, Dr. Victor C. Apollo and Harold Corliss. Victor C. Apollo and Harold Corliss, tenors, S. A. Mikache and I. E. Foy, tenors.

Christmas Ball Looms on Calendar

Much interest is being shown throughout southern Oregon in the annual Christmas ball to be staged by the American Legion next Monday evening, December 26. The affair will take place in the large ballroom of the Oriental Gardens, where an excellent floor of ample size is available to take care of the hundreds of dancers who plan to attend this annual Legion event. Music of the modern type will be provided by Dom Provest and his popular dance band. Earl Foy, vice-commander of the local Legion post is in charge of the committee and a good time is assured all who attend.

Miss Gatchell To Spend Holidays Here

Degree of Honor Will Meet Thursday

The Degree of Honor will meet for a Christmas party tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Labor hall. A large attendance and a pleasing program are promised.

Deer Falls in Ashland Water

A deer that attempted to drink from the ice-covered Ashland city reservoir yesterday afternoon, and fell in, was rescued by Earl Hoeler, city reservoir tender, and is recuperating in the Ashland city park. The deer slid down the steep bank and crashed onto the ice and through it. In its struggles to get out it became exhausted. It was found by Hoeler and saved.

A week ago a deer was found frozen to death in the reservoir. The deer at this time of the year, with springs and creeks frozen in the mountains, come to the reservoir to drink.

Clara A. Seyler passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Northcraft, in the Berrydale district, early Tuesday morning of pneumonia. She was born at Damascus, Ore., April 1, 1859, and had been a resident of Roseburg, Ore., since 1905, coming to Medford in October, 1931.

She leaves three sons and four daughters: G. W. Croucher, Roseburg, Ore.; F. E. Croucher and Henry M. Croucher, Medford; Mrs. J. L. Fisher, Wendling, Ore.; Mrs. W. H. Northcraft, Medford; Mrs. E. A. Lawrence, Roseburg, Ore.; Mrs. J. Buzby, Fairbanks, Alaska.

She also leaves her mother, Mrs. Zilpha Hink, who is now 91 years of age, and three sisters: Mrs. Hattie Stine, Mrs. Corrie Dunham and Mrs. Annie Penney, all of Los Angeles, Cal.

Remains will be forwarded to Dilard, Ore., for services and interment. Peril Funeral Home in charge.

Holiday Party For Wurts Staff Will Be Enjoyed Tonight

One of the most festive parties of the week to announce the arrival of old St. Nick is planned for this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wurts for the pleasure of the staff at Wurts' Gift Shop.

All members of the store staff are invited and the party will open with dinner at Naudie's restaurant. Following dinner, the guests will continue to the Wurts home, where an immense Christmas tree has been dressed in the gayest of holiday attire. The tree, 14 feet in height, will also wear gifts for each and everyone.

The remainder of the evening will be spent playing cards.

SISKIYOU HIGHWAY IS CLEAR OF SNOW

State police reported today that the snow has been cleared from the Pacific highway over the Siskiyou by snow plows operated by the state highway maintenance station. Traffic was somewhat slowed, but could proceed without delay. All curves were sanded.

FLEETA S. DYER CALLED BEYOND

Fleeta Smith Dyer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Garrison, west of Phoenix, Ore., early Wednesday morning of pneumonia. She was born at Independence, Ore., November 24, 1858, and had been a resident of Phoenix for five years. She was a member of the Christian church.

Mrs. Dyer leaves six children, two sons and four daughters: Fred Bartle, Glendale, Ore.; Ilo Dyer, Myrtle Creek, Ore.; Mrs. May Colvin, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Bertha Garrison, Phoenix, Ore.; Mrs. Jessie Bell, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Ruth Terry, Portland, Ore.; and 14 grandchildren.
