Keats-Bradshaw Wedding of Interest
 Many local folk read with interest Sunday the report of the wedding at the First Presbyterian church in Portland of Miss Mildred Louise Keats and Ernest Albert Bradshaw, which was solemnized Tuesday evening. For Mrs. Thomas H. Mills of Portland, formerly of this city, was matron of honor for the bride.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Harry Leslie Keats, was lovely in a gown of white suede satin and Mrs. Mills wore a becoming gown of French blue chiffon with blue and pink satin ribbon girdle, blue slippers and small blue veils.

A Harold McConnell of Seattle acted as best man.
 The wedding was an important event of the social season in the Rose city and one of the most charmingly arranged ever held in the First Presbyterian church, according to the Portland Spectator.

Miss Riddell Guest of Parents Here
 Miss Dorothea Riddell of Klamath Falls is a guest here for the holidays of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Riddell at their home on the Old Stage road.

Miss Burkhart Visits At Outman Home
 Miss Mary Burkhart of Grants Pass formerly of this city, was a guest over the holiday week-end of Mrs. S. Outman.

Alexanders Leave For Few Days in South
 Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Alexander of Portland, who were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reichstein here, left to spend Christmas in San Francisco, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patterson at Millbrae Highlands. They will return to Medford for New Year's eve.

While here Mrs. Reichstein entertained with a small party in their honor, at which there were two tables of bridge in play. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gebauer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perl, the Alexanders and the Reichsteins.

Dixie Club to See Old Year Out at Party
 The home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Canode will be the scene of the annual Dixie club watch party this week, when members gather there Saturday night to see the old year out and the new one in.

The southerners entertain each year with this party, arranged in compliment to their husbands. Assisting Mrs. Canode as hostess will be Mrs. Max Gebauer, Mrs. C. C. Murray and Mrs. John Peter.

P. E. O.'s to Meet Wednesday Afternoon
 Chapter AA, P. E. O., will meet with Mrs. Wilson Wait at her home, 220 Vancouver avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Wait will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Kathleen Smith and Mrs. Gertrude Parker.

Many Holiday Parties Scheduled for Week
 Christmas occurring on Sunday this year, many Medford people waited until Monday, also a holiday, for their more festive parties, and the larders of most homes were filled with Christmas goodies as guests were coming and going for informal "at homes" and large dinner parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Reed of Gold Hill entertained with a very clever party last night for a large number of Medford friends. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perl were hosts at open house preceding the annual Christmas ball of the Medford post, American Legion, which drew many guests from all sections of the valley to the Oriental Gardens. About 30 guests called at the Perl home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Payne were hosts at an informal open house yesterday afternoon, guests calling being Mr. and Mrs. John Peter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perl, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reichstein, Miss Ruby Hanney and Al Perry.

Mrs. Payne is also inviting guests to dinner Thursday evening, honoring the birthday anniversary of her husband. Covers will be arranged for eight guests.

Plans are also being made in numerous groups for celebration of the arrival of the New Year and much festivity will center around the dinner dance at the Hotel Medford and the Elks' annual New Year's eve ball, both announced for Saturday evening.

Preceding the Elks' ball a number of friends will gather at the Ted Gebauer and Frank Perl homes. In the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reichstein, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Alexander, guests from Portland, Miss Dorothy Nyswander, Harry Gill and Mr. and Mrs. Gebauer and Mr. and Mrs. Perl.

Catholic Women Plan Wednesday Card Event
 Holding a major place on this week's social calendar is the benefit card party, announced for Wednesday afternoon by the women of Sacred Heart Catholic church. Playing will begin at 2 o'clock with games of pivot, contract and auction bridge and 500 will be enjoyed.

Holiday decorations will be much in evidence in parish hall, and all women, who favor a few friendly hours at cards in the rush of holiday events, are especially invited to this party.

Miss Holt Will Be Hostess to C. A. R.

Miss Barbara Holt will entertain members of General Joseph Lane society, Children of the American Revolution, at her home on Corning Court tomorrow, and guests are asked to arrive at 2 o'clock. Miss Holt has prepared an interesting program for the afternoon and asks each member to come provided with pencil and paper. Each member is also asked to bring a gift limited in price to 10 cents. Final plans will be perfected for the program to be presented before the D. A. R. in January.

Miss Bryan to Enter University of Oregon
 Miss Mary Virginia Bryan, who recently arrived here from southern California with her parents, will enter the University of Oregon with the opening of the winter term for a special course, after the completion of which she plans to continue to the University of Washington to work for her master's degree.

Local Misses to Appear in Musicals Friday
 Announcements have been issued of a musicale to be held at the Baldwin Piano studio Friday evening, in which Misses Betty Evanson and Beulah Gore, students of the University of Oregon, will be heard in program, which will open at 8 o'clock. Both are majoring in music at the university and have been allied with much of the outstanding musical work on the northern campus. They are inviting their friends and all interested persons to the musicale.

Chrysanthemum Circle To Meet Wednesday
 All officers are especially urged to attend the meeting Wednesday of Chrysanthemum circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft. The social entertainment will be in charge of the captain and guards.

Miss Demmer Here for Holidays
 Miss Babe Demmer of Portland is among folk spending the holidays in Medford. While here she is guest of her mother and sisters and brothers. Miss Demmer is now employed by the Eagle Drug company. She formerly attended school at Jacksonville and has many friends in the valley.
