Society Discards Drab Calendar As 1933 Makes Debut

Today a New Year is born and Medford society greets its arrival following an evening of great festivity, which saw 1932 with all its worries, end in the usual ringing of bells, blowing of horns and hilarity, characteristic of the midnight hour of each old year. Times have been hard, but in anticipation of a new and a more prosperous year, Medford folk dined and danced and invited friends to gather with them in a spirit of rejoicing. The two major parties of the evening were at the Hotel Medford and the Elks' temple.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rosenberg and Mr. Harry Rosenberg were joint hosts at open house, inviting about 65 guests to their home during the early hours of the evening. Many continued to the dancing party in the banquet room of the Hotel Medford and others to private homes for cards and dancing.

Tomorrow, which is another holi-

Mrs. Ralph U. Boutelle and Mrs. J. C. S. Wells will be hostesses at dinner, having invited 20 guests to the Boutelle home.

Mrs. Boutelle also entertained at luncheon Friday. Guests for the occasion were Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mrs. J. C. S. Wells, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Alice Holloway, Mrs. Paul Scheirr and Miss Helen Bullis.

Members of the younger set, too, have renewed entertaining during the Yuletide, with students home from finishing schools and colleges the inspiration for many events. Miss Gloria Getchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, who returns Monday evening to California, where she is a student at Castilleja school, was feted Wednesday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Bayard Getchell, and was hostess, herself, at tea Friday afternoon, inviting in a number of her friends. She will stop in San Mateo to be guest of a friend for a short time before continuing to school.

The Misses Mary Lee and Dorothy Roberts, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts, guests here from Mills college and the University of Oregon, left several days ago for a short stay with friends in Portland.

Miss Betty Bardwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bardwell, was hostess at luncheon Tuesday and is holding open house today, inviting friends to call between four and seven o'clock. Guests at her home Tuesday for luncheon and bridge were Misses Mary Hayes, Dorothy and Mary Lee Roberts, Clara Mary Fuson, Mary Parsons, Louise Conner, Dorothy Orth and Edna Mohr.

Friends of Miss Clara Mary Fuson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Fuson, gathered at her home Friday afternoon for dessert bridge. Present were Misses Dorothy Orth, Edna Mohr, Oma GeBauer, Mary Parsons, Betty Bardwell, Mary Hayes and Louise Conner and Mrs. George Robertson.

Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes, was also a hostess of the past week, entertaining with luncheon at the Hotel Medford, followed by bridge at her home.

Younger Misses Entertain With New Year Event

Among members of the younger set entertaining last evening were Misses Betty Vilm, Virginia Lindley and Amy Elliott, who were hostesses at the Elliott home on Corning Court at dancing and bridge, honoring the passage of the old year.

Guests invited for the evening were Misses Margaret and Janet Mann, Barbara Holt, Helene Salade, Bannie Hunt, Betty Paske, Patricia Young, LaVerne Stephenson, Carol Scheffel, Roberta Ivanhoe, Georgia Webb, Carlin Hill, Charlotte Wolvers, Shirley Chadwick, Coralie Breitmayer, Patricia Thompson, and Messrs. John Dickenson, Leonard Hicks, John Koppen, Dolph Janes, Russell Ulrich, Gordon Benson, Cyril Sanders, Jimmy Henry, Donald Field, Lawrence Bragg, Bob Hayes, Ed Vallaier, Harvey Fields, Robert Littrell, Don Barrett, Jimmy Bayliss, Phillip Lowry, Donald Hagg, Lee Bullis, Loyal Kuehnle, and Boyd Prince.

Study Club Plans To Observe Silver Anniversary Jan. 4

On the afternoon of January 4th the Good Times committee of the Wednesday Study club will entertain the club members and their guests, at the home of Mrs. Louis B. Humphrys on Capitol hill. At this time the silver anniversary of the club will be honored, in connection with the annual Guest Day entertainment. The usual program will be omitted, and a feature of the afternoon will be "Reminiscences of the Wednesday Study club" given by Mrs. F. K. Deuel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bebb Entertain Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Bebb were were hosts Friday evening at one of the jolliest parties of the holiday season, when they invited 18 friends to their home for an evening of music and games. Guests of the James Stevens' for dinner the same evening continued to the Bebb home and much gaiety was enjoyed.

Garden Club to Elect Officers for 1933

The Medford Garden club will meet Thursday, January 5, at the county court house at 7:30 o'clock for election of officers for 1933. Plans for the coming year will also be discussed, the two comprising the program for the evening.

W. R. C. to Meet Thursday at Armory

Women's Relief Corps will meet Thursday, Jan. 5, at the armory for installation of officers. Covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. Members are asked to bring own table service.

Roosevelts Enjoy Yuletide

Dancers To Aid School Kitchen At Legion Party

A major event of the New Year, socially speaking, will be the benefit dance tomorrow evening at Oriental Gardens, at which members of Medford post of the American Legion will be hosts.

Dancing will continue until 1 o'clock with music played by one of the valley's outstanding orchestras. Proceeds from the dance will go to the Medford city schools' kitchen fund to provide milk and hot soup to needy school children.

Since funds will be directed to such a worthy cause, an exceptionally large crowd is anticipated for the dance.

Church Women Meet Tuesday To Dine and Sew

The Women's Association of the Presbyterian church will meet on Tuesday, January 3, for one o'clock covered dish luncheon and a general get-together of the church circles.

Members of each circle are asked to get in touch with the circle chairman regarding what to bring to the luncheon. Sewing for the Red Cross will occupy the afternoon hours following luncheon. Mrs. Frederick Johnson, president of the association, urges all members to attend the Tuesday affair.

Greater Medford Club Will Listen To Relief Plans

Mrs. G. R. Satchwell, president of the Greater Medford club, has announced that the January meeting of the organization will be held Tuesday, January 3, at 2 p. m., in the club rooms of the city hall.

The appointment of additional committees to complete her official group will be announced at that time. In addition to musical numbers, the program will include short talks by representatives from service and welfare clubs who will describe their particular lines of work.

A report from County Judge-elect Earl Fehl on the county's plan of relief work will also be submitted.

Loyal Workers Elect Officers

The Loyal Workers class of the First Christian church Bible school held a most enjoyable party in the recreation hall on Tuesday evening. The president, Mrs. Mabel Sims, was in charge of the business session. Reports were given and the following officers elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman; vice president, Mrs. Floyd Watkins; class secretary, Miss Jean Woodford; recording secretary, Mrs. M. E. Olson; treasurer, Charles Smith; teacher, Mrs. E. R. Cobb; assistant teacher, John Preese.

An interesting program of games was enjoyed during the evening. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee in charge, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Scovell, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Cays, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert.

Party at Parish Hall Lovely Event

One of the enjoyable events of the past week in local society was the party at Parish hall Wednesday, at which there were seven tables of cards in play and festive decorations used throughout the hall.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. J. C. Murray, Mrs. T. B. Morris, Mrs. Corum and Mrs. Bigalow.

The committee was assisted by Mrs. R. A. Baker and Mrs. N. Thompson, hostesses, in serving.

Lindleys Hosts At Dancing Party

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lindley were host and hostess at a dancing party at their home on East Jackson street. The Oregon Pioneers entertained during the evening. The rooms were delightfully decorated in Christmas colors, and refreshments were served.

Invited for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young, Mr. and Mrs. Thordston of Oakland, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Geer of Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Bi Binns, Mr. and Mrs. Gus H. Samuels and Al Rogers.

Home Economics Club Meets, E. Point

The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith on Wednesday afternoon with twelve ladies present.

This meeting was the first for the year under the newly appointed committee, so the election of officers was the main item of the day.

Mrs. Rosa Smith is president of the club, Mrs. Anna Davies was elected vice-president, and Mrs. Grace Cowden secretary-treasurer.

After paying all bills for the past year a substantial surplus was reported in the treasury.

A new fancy work committee was appointed by the president, consisting of three members, Mrs. Billie Vestal, Mrs. Lena Stowell and Mrs. Chas. Humphreys. The club has the promise of at least four quilts to begin working on, and it is expected that pillow cases and other pieces of fancy work will be started soon.

After the business meeting, the hostess served refreshments which were very much enjoyed.

An invitation was accepted to meet with Mrs. Humphreys in January.

In Recital Here

Miss Beulah Gore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore, who spent the Christmas holidays with her parents here, and appeared in recital with Miss Betty Evanson Friday evening. Both young musicians are students at the University of Oregon, where they are prominently known in all musical events.

Miss Richardson Feted at Shower J. E. Vincent Home

Miss Doris Lucile Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson of Beall Lane, whose wedding to Robert E. Nealon of Table Rock will be an event of this week, was the inspiration Thursday of a charming party at the home of Mrs. J. E. Vincent at Central Point, when the women of the Christian church Sunday school entertained with a shower in her honor.

A clever feature of the afternoon was a mock wedding in which Mrs. Edward Jones acted as minister, using a ceremony, composed by herself. Miss Eula Benson was the bride, Mrs. Otto Bohnert, bridesmaid; Mrs. Bruce Powell, the groom; Mrs. Morse Haley, the groom's attendant; Mrs. Vincent, father of the bride, and little Miss Patricia Powell and Master Bobby Vincent, ring and train bearers. Mrs. Lois Young, well known soloist, sang "I Love You Truly." Following the mock wedding, Bobby Vincent and Patricia Powell, dressed as bride and groom, wheeled a wagon, laden with gifts for the honor guest, into the room.

Refreshments were later served to 25 guests.

Choral Program Brings News of Miss C. Andrews

In the fall concert programs of the Crestwood Community Choral of Crestwood, N. J., Miss Caroline Andrews, formerly of this city, a beautiful coloratura soprano, is featured, copies of the program received here show. Miss Andrews is assisting Russell A. Walker, director. Other familiar names appear in the list of choral officers and associate members, among them being Mrs. George Andrews' sister, Mrs. Guy Palmer, who has frequently visited here, and Mr. Palmer.

The program opens with a foreword, which is cheering to all music lovers and promising. It reads:

"It has been generally evident for some time that interest in the best in music is more and more manifest. Music lovers everywhere—and their name is legion—are demonstrating an increasing discrimination against the current idiom, along more worth while and truly cultural musical lines. Dr. Frank Crane said, 'To know what is good music, to understand it, and to take part in it widens the mind and deepens the heart.'

"To meet this growing need—and opportunity—in this community, the Crestwood Community Choral was organized in September of this year, for cooperative effort. It serves as an outlet for self-expression, and a commendable agency for mutual enjoyment."

Another interesting note of Miss Caroline Andrews was divulged yesterday to several who did not know before, that she is singing each Sunday with the Roxy's Gang program, broadcast from NBC at 10 o'clock.

Miss Holt Gives Christmas Party For Local C.A.R.

Miss Barbara Holt was hostess to members of General Joseph Lane society, Children of the American Revolution at their annual Christmas party last week.

Each received a gift from the tree and in a contest of "Interesting Facts About Presidents," the award went to Jean Platt.

Prizes in naming of noted men and in another contest of noted women were won jointly by Miss Betty Vilm, and Ruth and Corinne D'Albini.

Plans were completed for the program to be given for Crater Lake Chapter, D. A. R., on January 21.

Miss Holt, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Wm. W. P. Holt, and sister, Mrs. Wilson, served refreshments.

Theater Party in Ashland Enjoyed By Younger Set

Miss Jean Leverette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leverette, entertained a group of young people of this city with a theater party at the Lithia in Ashland Wednesday evening. Following the theater program, refreshments were served by Mrs. Taylor at the Plaza. Dancing was enjoyed later.

Guests for the affair were Misses Margaret Mann, Pauline Rogers, Wauneta Wilson, Roberta Ivanhoe, Mildred Drury, Pat Young, Carol Scheffel and Barbara Holt.

Mrs. West Gives Charming Party

Mrs. Laura M. West entertained Wednesday at 1 o'clock luncheon at a beautifully appointed table for a number of friends in observance of the holiday season.
