

COOLIDGE TO REST IN AUSTERE HILLS OF NATIVE STATE

(Continued from Page One)

than 100 miles away, to lay the "Silent President" beside his father and his son, Calvin. The burial, simpler even than the services, will take place in late afternoon.

Mr. Coolidge died much as he lived—alone.

At "The Beeches," the home in which he sought seclusion, that tree-famed dwelling to which he repaired when the car of a nation fell from his shoulders, the former president succumbed to a fatal heart attack.

He had whipped ailer fringed Vermont streams—alone, and quickened to the plunge of a speckled trout.

He had heard, alone, the whirr of the partridge as it left its tangled covert, when frosted autumn leaves called him to the hunting grounds of his ancestors.

Alone at End. So Calvin Coolidge was found, alone in his dressing room. No one saw the spirit depart, yesterday, after he had returned from his law office. His secretary waited below, until he should be dismissed for lunch. Grace, his wife, who had taught the blind the printed word, found him, as she returned home from marketing.

Earlier in the day Harry Ross, the secretary, had been called upon by the former president to consider a jig-saw puzzle, a New Year's gift.

Mrs. Coolidge had been away, to town, shopping, when the former president died. He had asked her if she cared to use the car, relic of the days spent in Washington.

"It is too nice a day, I'd rather walk," she told him.

Home to Rugged Land. And so, home to that rugged land of his ancestors, all that was mortal of Calvin Coolidge will thread the hills and valleys that separate Massachusetts, a state that honored him before the nation, to Plymouth, Vermont, in a motor cortege Saturday.

There to lie with his father, John, who swore him in by the light of an oil lamp as the nation's chief executive many years ago, and his son, Calvin, Jr., cut off in young manhood.

Back to the thin surface of soil from which his ancestors fought a livelihood, after simple services in Edwards Congregational church here, will go the body of Calvin Coolidge.

Each Sunday Calvin and Grace Coolidge attended services at the Edwards Congregational church. They left promptly, at the end of the services, before curious or others, could intrude.

Simple Music. There will be an organ and a choir, Saturday morning. Grace Coolidge had been accustomed to add her voice to that choir, and found in the recent Christmas musical program an enchantment obvious to the congregation.

The widespread desire of people in official life to honor the former president will make the funeral a most impressive ceremony, despite the desire to keep the services simple and brief.

The presidential special, carrying President Hoover from Washington, will arrive Saturday morning and another special train, carrying congressional representatives and other high officials, is expected.

Heartfelt tributes came from throughout the world.

The homefolk, back in Coolidge's native Vermont hills, were shocked by the suddenness of his death.

PROBATE WILLS PROVOST, WEEKS

Petitions for the probating of the estates of Jackson county citizens were filed today in circuit court.

One was that of Pierre Provost of Ashland, who died in that city December 27. The last will decrees that his property and estate be divided among his nine children, share and share alike.

The other was for the estate of Fred W. Weeks, well known local resident, who passed away a month ago. Weeks left no will and there is no heir but his widow. The estate is valued at $35,000.

A Row Of Rowers

Members of the Cleavelly Ladies' Rowing club of Clifton, England, stacked up for their picture before they left for a spin in their outrigger boat. They row on the River Lea all the year around. (Assoc.ated Press Photo)

EGGS AND BUTTER QUOTATIONS HOLD STEADY FOR DAY

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The egg trade appeared steady here today. The sudden death yesterday of E. J. Dixon, general manager of the Pacific Egg Cooperative, who had fought vigorously to uphold egg prices, caused a lull in the fight and practically all interests openly quoted unchanged values.

An occasional outside interest was reported underselling but the trade assumes values will hold steady at least until next week. Receipts are gaining daily.

Market for butter appears fully steady in the local territory with no change for 10 days in either print or cube prices, also butterfat. The south continues to absorb whatever surplus is offered here.

Live chicken market is a trifle quiet here with receipts limited and leading buyers still inclined to hold down buying prices. All sorts however are selling within the price spread.

There is a fair movement of dressed turkeys into consuming channels both locally and for shipping. Prices are generally unchanged with No. 1 toms 14c top and hens 15c generally for the best.

Prices in the country killed meat market are holding well at the late advances for lamb and veal while hogs are cleaning up each day at the prices quoted.

Artichokes are scarce and selling quickly 85c dozen for 5c and 91c for 4c. Increased sales of onions to the Orient reported with 50c and sacks still being paid to Oregon growers.

Potatoes are held firmer at the source, especially Deschutes, but local prices are unchanged.

Another lot of househubs is being offered with price down around $2.50 for 15c.

Wheat closed strong 1 1/2-1% above yesterday's finish, corn 3/4-1% up, oats 1/2-1/2 advanced, and provisions showing 3 to 7 cents gain.

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Further climb in wheat prices was shown in all domestic markets although Liverpool was disappointing and clover fractions lower for futures. On the Portland futures market there were all buyers and no sellers within the price range. May closed with a gain of 1c and July 3/4c bushel.

On the Merchants Exchange local cash wheat advanced 1c bushel with Montana up 2c bushel.

Portland, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Further climb in wheat prices was shown in all domestic markets although Liverpool was disappointing and clover fractions lower for futures. On the Portland futures market there were all buyers and no sellers within the price range. May closed with a gain of 1c and July 3/4c bushel.

On the Merchants Exchange local cash wheat advanced 1c bushel with Montana up 2c bushel.

Markets

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 6.—(AP)—CATTLE, 100; calves, 25; steady. HOGS, 400; steady. SHEEP AND LAMBS, 75; steady.

Portland Wheat

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 6.—(AP)—Wheat futures: Open High Low Close May 44 1/2 45 1/2 44 3/4 45 1/4 June 45 1/2 46 1/2 44 3/4 45 1/4 Cash wheat: No. 1 Big Bend Museum .52 Dark hard winter (12 pct.) .50 1/2

after SMOKING VICKS MEDICATED COUGH DROP Soothes the throat, Freshens the mouth OVERCOMES BAD BREATH

Portland Produce

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 6.—(AP)—Butter, eggs, country meats, mohair, nuts, cascara bark, hops, butterfat, live poultry, onions, potatoes, wool and hay—steady and unchanged.

Wall St. Report

Stock Sale Averages (Copyright, 1933, Standard Statistics Co.)

Table with columns: January 6, Today, Prev. day, Week ago, Year ago, 3 Yrs. ago. Rows: Indi's, Rr's, Ut's, Total.

Bond Sale Averages (Copyright, 1933, Standard Statistics Co.)

Table with columns: January 6, Today, Prev. day, Week ago, Year ago, 3 Yrs. ago. Rows: Indi's, Rr's, Ut's, Total.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The advance in the stock market was resumed today with somewhat less vigor than on Wednesday. But prices worked higher most of the day, rails taking the lead, and there were numerous gains of 1 to 2 points, although final prices were off from the best. The closing tone was firm. Transfers aggregated 1,100,000 shares. Today's closing prices for 30 selected stocks follow:

Table listing stock prices for various companies like Am. Chem. & Dye, Am. Can, Am. & Pgn. Power, etc.

Tax On Gasoline Evaded Is Claim

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(AP)—A general legislative attack in the northwestern states on evasion of gasoline taxes was urged at a meeting here Thursday of the Pacific Northwest branch of Associated General Contractors. Uniform laws to eliminate such tax evasion were recommended.

Wash. Dresses and Pajamas reduced to 50c and $1.00. ETHELWYN B. HOFFMANN.

Metecorological Report

January 6, 1933

Medford: Cloudy with light rain late tonight and Saturday. Not much change in temperature.

Oregon: Cloudy west and fair east portions tonight. Light rain west portion late tonight and Saturday. Local snows northeast portion Saturday. Slightly colder southeast portion tonight.

Lowest temperature this morning, 38 degrees.

Temperature a year ago today: Highest, 43; lowest, 33.

Total precipitation since September 1, 1932, 6.34 inches.

Relative humidity at 5 p. m. yesterday, 78 per cent; 5 a. m. today, 94 per cent.

Sunrise today, 4:55 p. m. Sunrise tomorrow, 7:20 a. m. Sunset tomorrow, 4:56 p. m.

Observations Taken at 5 A. M., 190th Meridian Time

Table with columns: City, Wind, Precipitation, Part 24 Hrs., Part 3 Hrs., Last Night, Last 24 Hrs.

Oregon Weather: Cloudy west and fair east portion tonight; light rain west late tonight and Saturday and local snow northeast portion Saturday; slightly colder southeast portion tonight; moderate northwest winds offshore, becoming southerly tonight and increasing.

LA GRANDE, Ore., Jan. 6.—(AP)—Eggs in Oregon Normal school defeated the Pendleton independent basketball five here last night, 52 to 26.

GOOD NEWS For Those Who Missed Out Last Time...! More of Ward's Famous Washable Percales

39c Choice of 10 New Styles

The last time we offered these frocks they were gone before we could turn around... now we've succeeded in getting another shipment... every one of fine quality washable fabric and made with the fineness for which Ward's apparel is famous.

MONTGOMERY WARD & Co. 117 So. Central. Phone 286. Medford, Ore.

Look! No Post in this tub to tangle clothes

Even filmy lingerie is safe. It can't tangle. It can't catch. It can't tear. Your sheerest things wash gently, swifter and WHITER!

WARDWAY Special $45.50

Only $45.50—only $4 Down—and your laundry problems are ended. This oversize 6 sheet tub has no post to harm delicate fabrics. No piece is too frail, or even too bulky, or too soiled. The famous Wardway Agitator cleans the huskiest wash in a jiffy—6 minutes for a tubful. Then think of this!... Tested against each one of 4 other noted makes of washers, the Wardway washed WHITEST of them all!

Only $4 a Month Small Carrying Charge on Deferred Payments NO CENTER POST TO TANGLE CLOTHES

The UP-TO-DATE home enjoys Ward's

Advertisement for TruKold Electric Refrigerator. Price $114.50. Features: As necessary in Winter as in Summer. No uneven temperatures. No risk in extreme colds which cause food spoilage. Foods keep safe in your kitchen—always handy. You can make frosty salads—new desserts. 63 ice cubes for drinks. Food storage for 4 persons.

Advertisement for East Side Milk Depot. The Home Grocery. Gilman's Dairy "Grade A" Raw Milk. 20c. Phone 743. The very latest in Refrigeration. Super-Cold Zero Case. OPEN SUNDAYS AND EVENINGS.

Advertisement for Technocracy. That Technocracy Question? Starting Sunday. J. R. Brackett, Associated Press staff writer, interviewed Technocracy's chief... MAIL TRIBUNE

Advertisement for Ward's Majestic Vacuum Cleaner. $34.85. Approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Here is the most complete cleaning action known. A motor-driven brush. Gentle beating that loosens imbedded dirt. Suction that carries it all dustlessly into a bag. Easy Payments if desired. 30 DAYS' TRIAL. MONTGOMERY WARD & Co. 117 South Central. Phone 286. Medford, Oregon.