SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 5.—Discovered!—a man who hasn't lost his nerve or his optimism. None other than Vernon Vawter, Medford native son, now Santa Barbara representative of a large California building and loan association.

Mrs. Etta Vawter, Vern's mother, is here as his guest for the winter. She motored down with Babe Purdin who went on to visit her brother at Bakersfield and then flew back to Medford.

The news of Calvin Coolidge's death has just come out—little Mexican boys are scampering all over the place selling Santa Barbara extras. What a SURPRISING thing!

Editorial Comment

Reports From The Southern Front. While the Klamath Falls mayoralty contest was being smoothed out his week to the seeming satisfaction of all parties, Jackson county was entering on a new sequence of troubles that may be expected to furnish much entertainment for outside observers.

The Worthy Poor are still at the hot end of the stick, due to their lack of brazen gait, and ability to look sad, and wax radical. Many fear that the fight will last longer than Ed Binns' Fight Against the Beef Trust.

HUNGER HIKERS NOT MEMBERS

Emphatic contradiction of the announcement in the Medford Daily News that O. H. Goss, V. S. Mare and M. W. Randall of this city had joined the hunger marchers en route to Salem, as representatives of the Medford Association of the Unemployed, was made yesterday by Harry Moore, manager of the association.

ASSOCIATION OF MIGRAINE WITH LEUKODERMA.

A lady who is just beginning the calcium lactate treatment for migraine, promises to report in 10 weeks what her experience was. She offers an interesting observation. She developed migraine at the age of 10 years and at the same time her skin began to bleach out in spots.

Our correspondent goes on to say that in the apartment building next to her residence there is a man who has the same story of migraine and leukoderma patches developing at the same time.

Leukoderma is "presumably a trophoneurosis, and is frequently associated with neurotic disturbances." Dr. Pusey mentions migraine as one of the conditions with which leukoderma is frequently associated.

EAGLE POINT GRANGE STARTS NEW YEAR IN ENTHUSIASTIC MEET

Many members attended Eagle Point Grange January 3, making a fine beginning for the New Year. Committee reports filled the business hour.

Agriculture committee has placed two magazine racks in the hall filled with bulletins from the department of agriculture, for the use of members, which the committee will replenish as needed.

Legislative committee reported on two measures to be studied, and will keep in touch with the work of the legislature.

Relief committee gave a detailed report on sick members. H. E. C. reported the New Year party a success, they having also prepared a surprise birthday cake for Mrs. Howlett and daughter, Hattie Howlett, both birthdays coming the same day.

M. Haley of Central Point Grange was a visitor, extending an invitation to exchange programs at a later date.

Worthy Lecturer Mrs. Julia Davies carried out the New Year spirit in her entertaining program, asking each member to write a resolution, which was later read.

Master W. E. Davies talked on Grange work and present day problems. Two assembly songs were sung, after which a roll call, "What I Like Best at Grange Meetings," was given.

Silk, Woolen and Knitted Dresses and Suits reduced to $3.95-9.95-10.95 and up. ETHEL WYN B. HOFFMANN.

LEGION LEADERS URGED TO FIGHT FOR MEMBERSHIP

We must tear apart the organized attacks being made on disabled veterans, expose misleading propaganda, and present the Legion's program of usefulness.

"To do this requires real Legion enthusiasm. Enthusiasm is nothing more or less than faith in action. Single handed the enthusiast convinces and dominates; he tramples over prejudice and opposition, spurs imagination and like an avalanche overwhelms and engulfs all obstacles.

American Legion in the department of Oregon has received a letter from Louis A. Johnson, national commander of the Legion, which carries a defiance to Legion enemies and calls upon these Legion post leaders of Oregon to show the faith of world war veterans in the organization with membership," says L. C. Garlock, commander of Medford post.

"Pull up the old belt another notch, set your face to the front, fight the old fight and let the membership roll in," the letter reads in part.

Oregon is 44th in the standing of the states or departments of the Legion in the percentage membership attained as of Dec. 23.

"This is a fighting year for fighting men," National Commander Johnson says. "You and I, as commanders, must lead that fight. I have just completed the first one hundred days of this year's work. In that time, I have spent thirty-two days directing the activities at National headquarters and sixty-eight days battling through more than twenty-five thousands miles of travel in twenty states and the District of Columbia, bringing to Legionnaires and the public the American Legion's program.

"This is your fight and my fight. Every new color, and best of all only $2.99 and $3.99. THE BAND BOX & SHOE BOX, 226 E. 6th street. "The store that saves you money."

REV. HOWELL WILL SPEAK AT W. C. T. U. MEETING MONDAY

Rev. W. J. Howell of the Medford Presbyterian Church, will appear as principle speaker Monday, January 16, on the Annual Victory day program of the W. C. T. U. at the city when prominent dry leaders of both Ashland and Medford will assemble in all-day meeting.

One of our national leaders has said that thirteen may seem unlucky for prohibition, with a storm of repeal raging in Congress, but the W. C. T. U. merely takes the occasion as an opportunity to undertake a new drive for the prohibition goal for 1933's Advance—Not Retreat.

We recognize that the 18th amendment was a great step in advance of liquor control. Those who have obeyed the laws have contributed to its success and constitute a great army of the best citizenry of the nation.

These programs give speakers opportunity to discuss the moral and economic gains of prohibition, as well as plans of the wetts and the best means of opposing them.

The wren and tired looking women and the children and the pitiful and hungry children who appeared at mill offices every Monday morning with the same old story, that the husband had not meant to waste all of his pay, but had come home drunk and without a cent and that there was no food in the house.

The 25 or more men we have seen sprawling dead drunk in the gutter within one block of the center of the city of Charlotte, and of the fact that ladies did not dare to come up town on Saturday afternoons because of the multitude of intoxicated men.

Drunk and shouting farmers slacking horns on Saturday afternoons with horns on the dead run, and we are also wondering what would have happened had they been driving automobiles.

Times we heard pistol crack and seen bloody men plunge thru the swinging doors of barrooms and fall upon sidewalks.

Jobbing' Comment

The real test of an executive lies in his ability to find the best man to do the job.

"WHY NOT," you may ask, "do the job himself?" Really big men have more to do than any one man can accomplish.

It is the executive's job to see that things DON'T go undone.

UP IN Washington, the Longview News points out interestingly, eight presidential electors, who had been duly chosen by the sovereign voters, came together this week to cast the formal vote of the state of Washington for Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner.

But that isn't all. Until 1928, the vote of the electors of each of the different states was delivered to Washington by a special messenger whose expense were paid by the federal government. This custom traced back to the days when the stage coach or the saddle horse provided the only means of communication.
