

TIGERS TROUNCE WEED, 19 TO 5 IN ROUGH CONTEST

The Medford high school basketball team defeated Weed, Calif., before a small crowd at the senior high school gym last night, 19 to 5, in a slow and rough game. Friday night Medford defeated Grants Pass 31 to 19. This slowed up the contest, and made the play erratic at times.

The score at the end of the first half was six to two in favor of Medford.

School opened the second half with a basket, and from then on Medford made steady gains. Brown, Harris, and White, showed flashes of speed. Coach Burgher ran in his second string men, and they held down the visitors, in the final quarter.

The Medford girls lost to Phoenix 16 to 5, in the curtain raiser.

OREGON TROUNCES SONS, 38 TO 17

Coming strong in their second game with the Southern Oregon Normal team at McArthur court here tonight, the Oregon basketball team defeated the SONS 38 to 17 in a game which helped secure the three previous defeats at the hands of the Ashland team.

Howard Hobbs' men were able to crack the Oregon defense for but 10 points in the first half and 7 in the second. The Webfoots took the offensive with the opening gun and scored eight points before the SONS got under way.

county finances, also attended the meeting, as did County Treasurer A. C. Walker.

Action on a resolution requesting the legislature to authorize the withdrawal of the $50,000 for relief needs was postponed until next Monday morning. The 1933 budget appropriated $34,600 for relief purposes, with the proviso that it be expended for road work. One of the questions to be decided later is whether the money is to be used through the Red Cross, the Community Chest or a relief manager.

Relief is Important

All agreed that the most important question before the county court was to provide immediate work and aid, for many worthy and needy people in the city and county, and the county court will act so the available funds will provide the most food. The county court Friday night voted $150 for the purchase of food for the commissary.

HOW THE BANK CONTRIBUTES TO COMMUNITY WELFARE

Of Course The Bank Is Interested in Local Development

Development, whether in individual enterprise or in a community project, affects the local bank quite as much as the public at large. Such development might promise enlarged payrolls, an increase in population or added prosperity. So, of course, the bank is both interested and concerned, but as custodian of the public's money it cannot be expected to lend other than moral encouragement until the project is certain of success.

SINO-JAPANESE BREACH WIDENS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—An impression in official circles here that hopes for settling the Shanhaiwan incident were brighter, was clouded tonight by a statement of Marshal Chang Hsiao-Liang, made public by the Chinese legation, accusing the Japanese of treachery.

The marshal's message, released by the ministry of foreign affairs at Nanking, through the legation, promised resistance to "any further aggression by the Japanese," and attributed to the Tokyo government a pre-conceived plan of "territorial aggrandizement."

LAMKIN, BURSSELL FINED $1 BY FEHL; TO APPEAL CASE

ceedings against County Judge Fehl. Following the meeting Friday morning, when men gathered in the courtroom and the hallway, made threats against county officials, state police in plain clothes were stationed in the through Friday afternoon. State police heads said the action was taken to secure a complete report of the meeting.

A crowd somewhat smaller than at the two previous sessions was in attendance to hear the sentencing. Quite a few were on hand from the Rogue River district. Friday afternoon scores of Medford and valley people, who ordinarily take no interest in such affairs, visited the courthouse, to see for themselves the nature of the proceedings, and sound the temper of the crowd. This course resulted in a crystallization of sentiment against the trial, which was frequently characterized by onlookers as a "kangaroo court."

Fehl Poorly Advised The entire affair was attributed in most circles to "politics, and Judge Fehl being poorly advised." A number of staunch supporters of Judge Fehl condemned his course.

Two court reporters took down the testimony. Both obtained a complete record with the objections filed by the defense, and the ruling of Judge Fehl. Great care was exercised in making every ruling clear and emphatic.

Defense counsel filed an objection to the appearance of Attorney M. O. Wilkins as legal representative of the county in an overruled motion, as follows:

"That though the state is a party plaintiff, the state is not represented by the District Attorney or by any other attorney who is authorized to act on behalf of the state. In this connection, M. O. Wilkins has never been employed by the County Court sitting with the commissioners, which body is the only authority that can employ special counsel, and consequently any proceedings by the state by M. O. Wilkins as special counsel for the state, are invalid, as he has no standing as a representative of the state; that the District Attorney of Jackson county is still the counsel for the state in this county."

Fehl Overrules Motion Other motions intercepted, and overruled by Judge Fehl, were: "That said Earl H. Fehl, County Judge, has no jurisdiction of the person of the defendant, or the subject of the action."

"That the said affidavit does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, or a cause for any proceeding, and does not state facts sufficient to constitute any offense."

Intimates of the Roosevelts tell of unusually close family relationships. Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt has an unbreakable custom of going to greet her mother-in-law, whenever both are in occupancy of the twin houses in Sixty-fifth street. Each morning before going out she visits Mrs. James Roosevelt. No crowded schedule is ever allowed to interfere.

under the laws of the State of Oregon.

"That no facts constituting the crime of contempt of Court are presented in the affidavit of Howard Hill, which form a part of said proceedings."

"That if a contempt in this matter were conceded to be committed, the contempt would be against the County Court sitting as a Board of Commissioners, and not against Earl H. Fehl, sitting in his individual judicial capacity."

"That if a contempt in this were conceded to be committed, no order could be issued except by a majority of the County Court sitting with the Commissioners."

"That the order directing the issuance of the warrant of arrest is invalid for that the signature of only one member of the County Court is affixed; the signatures of the other two commissioners are not affixed."

"That even if said order were signed by said Earl H. Fehl, county judge, and the Commissioners, it would still be invalid, for the reason that the County Court sitting as a Commission-stioners' Court has no power over contempt proceedings."

See No Law Status "Wm. M. Briggs and Harry C. Skryman, the former attorney for Judge C. B. Lamkin and the latter attorney for Victor Bursell, stated that their interpretation of the whole proceedings is that they have no status in law whatever, and that whatever cognizance of the proceedings they took were all taken under objection, and that in their opinion there is no question of the entire regularity of each and every act of Former Judge Lamkin and Former Commissioner Bursell."

"They stated that both officials merely signed the proceedings of matters which actually came before them, and that there was no changing, mutilation or alteration of any records whatsoever. They merely affixed their signatures as soon as the physical work of transacting the actual proceedings was completed by the county clerk."

"That the appeal has been filed in order that the matter can be settled and the whole facts may be known to the people. That such further proceedings will show that all acts of Judge Lamkin and Commissioner Bursell were straight-forward, square in every respect, and performed in the regular manner."

Tension Relaxed There has been a highly noticeable relaxing of public tension over the case, in the last 35 hours, due to a large number of people gathering information on the controversy themselves. Many wild rumors were in circulation Friday morning, and they caused some apprehension. As soon as the true facts became generally known, the sentiment changed.

The general opinion Saturday was that politics should be adjourned, that the county judge work with the county commissioners, and vice versa, pending the opinion of the attorney-general upon the legality and validity of the appointment of R. E. Nealon as county commissioner, to succeed John Barneburg who resigned a week ago.
