ACCEPT SCHISSLER RESIGNATION WITH FRIENDLY FEELING

O. S. C. Chairman of Central Board High in Praise of Retiring Football Mentor — Economy Need Seen

CORVALLIS, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Coach Paul J. Schissler today confirmed the announcement that he had submitted his resignation and that it had been accepted. He said he had no statement to make.

Dean Harry Rogers, chairman of the board of control, however, issued the following statement:

Effective June 30.

"Coach Paul J. Schissler has presented his resignation to the board of higher education, to the chancellor, to the board of control and to the chairman to take effect at the end of the current year, June 30.

"The resignation has been accepted by the board of higher education and the board of control with the privilege of a leave of absence from this current date to July 1, 1938.

"Paul J. Schissler has given to Oregon State College nine years of service and continuous, hard, constructive and faithful effort. During his leadership here he organized many constructive policies in athletics. He brought Oregon State College into a position of national recognition by the performance of his team in inter-sectional contests and he promoted the Shrine game in Portland.

He has been highly regarded in Pacific coast intercollegiate conference and has to his credit the longest period of service of any conference coach.

"Conditions in athletics at Oregon State College, accompanied by a general decline in all athletic revenues received both through general attendance and student body fees, make reorganization of the coaching staff necessary as a measure of economy.

"Coach Schissler has evidently made his future plans with this in view.

"The administrative and personal relationship between Coach Schissler and the board of control have always been cordial, friendly and co-operative. He leaves us with our best wishes for his continued success."
