

BANKS AND FEHL HARANGUE SMALL CROWD ON STEPS

down of law and order. At the close of the meet, Banks called for a hearing and indictment of District Attorney Coddling. Between 200 and 250 people held up their hands. Wise-cracking enlivened the voting by shouting, "hold up both your hands." No report on the vote was announced.

Commissioner R. E. Nealon, called upon to speak, was frequently interrupted by the crowd and Judge Fehel and after five minutes gave it up when Judge Fehel insisted on talking. Commissioner Nealon endeavored to explain that the county court had taken steps to vote $50,000 for relief, and had approved an audit, "with school districts queried." He was bombarded with queries from those in front. "These facts were known to the two speakers before me, but for some reason they forgot to mention it." This brought out hoots from all over the audience.

Billings Sidetracked. Commissioner Billings was not present. He was waiting at Ashland for the balance of the court to appear and hold a hearing on the Talent-Ashland road changes, to furnish employment.

At the close Banks called upon the crowd to disperse, subject to call for a future meeting to organize "to attain our objects." County Judge Fehel invited all who desired to come into his office and shake hands. A large number did so. Judge Fehel shook hands with the visitors at his desk. Banks stationed himself at the exit door, and also shook hands with the people as they departed.

Business Hindered. During the meeting all business was practically suspended in the court house. Special agents in plain clothes were sprinkled throughout the crowd. The sheriff and deputies stood behind the speaker. Those in sympathy with the demonstration occupied the space near the steps. The balance of the crowd stood in the back and some across the street in the library park. Movie picture cameras clicked and photographers were busy, and many excellent photos of the "demonstration" were snapped. A delegation from Josephine county was on hand "to see the fun." The general opinion was that the "demonstration had given the people a chance to blow off steam." The same viewpoint doubted if anything constructive had been accomplished.

Recourt Hearing Postponed. The crowd started gathering about 9:30 o'clock. The meeting was scheduled for 10 o'clock. When that hour arrived County Judge Fehel announced he would receive the petitions at 10:30 o'clock. Under the impression that Judge Skipworth would hear a motion to quash the recourt petition, 100 citizens gathered in the circuit court. They joined the "demonstration" when it was announced the hearing had been postponed.

The full text of the petitions demanding the resignations is as follows: "To R. E. Nealon and "To Ralph Billings, County Commissioner.

"We, the bearers hereof, being a committee representing the citizens and taxpayers of Jackson county, respectfully demand that you gentlemen forthwith adjourn your usurpation of the powers and duties of the county court and that R. E. Nealon forthwith resign the position now attempted to be occupied by him and that he leave the Jackson county court room and cease further interference in said room.

"We further demand that you, Ralph Billings, take your place as county commissioner acting in harmony with the duly elected and qualified county court and if you fail to do so, we respectfully demand that you, too, hand in your resignation to the county clerk to become effective immediately.

"We further demand the immediate resignation of George Coddling.

"This committee, representing the citizens and taxpayers of Jackson county, express herein our full confidence in the honesty and integrity of Earl H. Fehel as county judge.

"We are confident in his ability to faithfully perform the duties the people of Jackson county have imposed upon him.

"And that he will bring to speedy realization, if aided, the policies and pledges made by him, which policies and pledges we most heartily subscribe to.

"Realizing that the deadlock now apparent in the reorganization of the county court is due to the attitude of you two gentlemen, we feel, in fact, we know that the best interests of Jackson county as a whole can only be served by an immediate compliance of the demands herein made.

"This committee, and the people whom we represent, await your immediate action."

COURT AUTHORIZES TRANSFERS FUNDS FOR RELIEF WORK

At the recommendation of B. E. Harder, W. H. Gore, F. E. Wahl, Mayor Wilson, Bert Thieroff, Gene Thorn-dike, A. C. Walker and Hamilton Pat-ton, backed by suggestion of the grand jury, now in session, County Judge Earl H. Fehel late yesterday moved in open meeting of the county court the following transfer of funds from the sinking fund to a relief fund.

J. W. McCoy from the First National bank of Ashland, in discussing the matter relative to the creation of an emergency fund of $50,000 to take care of the unemployed and relief situation of Jackson county, said fund to be taken from what is known as the sinking fund, said:

"From information which has been supplied by the county treasurer, it is plainly apparent that the amount sought to be set aside for relief purposes did not properly belong in the Pacific highway redemption fund, but had been thrown into that fund by the county court a number of years ago. That removal of $50,000 from the fund would still leave sufficient in the sinking fund to provide for bond maturities. The funds referred to were O. & C. land grant funds, while sinking funds proper should be and were provided by regular levies in the yearly budget up to 1927. We recommend that a levy be made each year from now on to conform to the terms of the bonds."

The motion adopted reads as follows: Whereas, a condition now exists in Jackson county, Oregon, whereby a large number of the citizens of said county have been for some time past, and are now, absolutely unable to secure employment and on that account to provide the necessities of life for their families; and

Whereas, there is a considerable amount of relief work that could be provided for these citizens of this county, by Jackson county, which would be of a beneficial and permanent character, and which would greatly tend to relieve the economic distress which exists at this time; and

Whereas, there are no funds now available for carrying on this relief work, in the general fund of the county, but there is on hand in the Pacific highway and Crater Lake highway bond redemption funds, the sum of $231,053.75, the greater portion of which sum will not be required for the retirement of said bonds for a number of years;

Therefore, I, Earl H. Fehel, the duly elected, qualified and acting county judge of Jackson county, Oregon, on

WOMAN LOST 20 POUNDS IN 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 29 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Pat folks should take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at Jarmin & Woods Drug Store, Brown's Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy, or any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

JACKSONVILLE TO SEND FAST QUINT AGAINST MEDFORD

One former Medford high school player, two former St. Marys academy players and two Southern Oregon normal players will face the Medford high school Tigers in the game between the Jacksonville town team and the Tigers at the Medford high school floor tomorrow night, according to Dr. Harold Gillis, coach and manager of the Jacksonville outfit. The main game will start at 8 o'clock, with a preliminary between the junior high school and the Tiger cubs to start at 7 o'clock.

Nathan Smith, another of the Jacksonville players, and who will start at guard in the game, is the only former Jacksonville high school player on the first string. Smith has had several years' experience on the multiple court and spent two years in the aviation service, which has convinced him that speed is the essence of superiority.

Wilton White will start at center, Dr. Gillis said, and is one of the best centers Medford has ever turned out. White has been working out with the Tigers regularly and said
