BUTTER PRICES UNDERGO SLASH IN COAST AREA

PORTLAND, Jan. 12.—(AP)—General slashing of butter prices along the Pacific slope during the last few days appears more the result of former manipulation than any great increase in the supply.

Late cuts in the California markets were severe, but not nearly as much as at Portland, which during recent weeks has become one of the most erratic markets along the coast instead of the steadier one as shown for many years past.

On the produce exchange there was a cut of 1c in cube extras and 1 1/2 lb. in others.

The price of butterfat was openly cut 2c lb., but secretly was cut but 1c lb. in spots.

Market for eggs continues to show unchanged open prices here but there was more or less shading reflected in this and other markets along the coast.

Extreme prices were seldom confirmed. Receipts were not meeting with buyers' favor.

Chicken market continues to reflect more than passing strength here with recently advanced buying prices of killers continued.

With receipts heavy and much of the stock, especially southern Oregon, rejects from carload shipments, the local trade in turkeys was inclined to show a very dull demand.

Prices in general were about 1 to 2c lower and especially for toms.

Receipts were not meeting with buyers' favor.

STRANGLER PINS KAPLAN EASILY

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 12.—(AP)—In less than an hour or real old-fashioned straight-away wrestling here last night, Ed (Strangler) Lewis defeated Ike Kaplan in two straight falls.

The largest crowd of the season demonstrated their displeasure at the absence of the usual rough tactics to which they have become accustomed.

Lewis, weighing 240 pounds, used his extra poundage to good advantage. It required 40 minutes, 21 seconds, for the first fall, with a body press. Lewis took the second fall in 9 minutes, 11 seconds, with his famous headlock, after a succession of rabbit punches. Kaplan weighed 218 pounds.

Sergeant Chet Wiles of the Portland police department took the only fall to win over Herman Olson, Portland, in the fourth round, with a crab hold. It was a very rough affair.

Jack Mitchell, Chicago, won from Bulldog Mallory, Birmingham, on a foul in the preliminary.

DEPRESSION MAY PREVENT REGATTA

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(AP)—A trickle of selling in sympathy with wheat's weakness, fell on the stock market near the close today, and earlier gains were replaced by net losses of fractions to more than a point. Rails held fairly steady. Transfers approximated 800,000 shares.

NORMAL CAGERS SEEKING CLASH WITH TEXACO 5

Howard Hobson, coach of the normal school basketball quintet, wants another game with the Texaco team here, according to Sam Colton, manager of the Texaco. The game will be probably be played sometime next week, Colton said. Hobson wanted the game tonight, but as the Texaco play the Grants Pass all-stars tomorrow night, Colton didn't feel he could put his players through two such stiff games.

The Texaco outfit may play the Willamette team here some time in February. Colton announced, as the Beacrats will be in this vicinity on a barnstorming trip. As Willamette all-stars turns out a bang-up basketball team, the game should be one of the best on the calendar.

Jacksonville's town team, under the direction of Dr. Harold Gillis, has also been dickered with the Texaco for a game, but the game is still in the offing. Each manager voices scorn at the heralded merits of the other, but neither has been willing to come to any decision on a date for the game.

With the Texaco-Normal game next week, the Jacksonville-Texaco game will, in all probabilities, be played the week following.

The Texaco faces some hard competition in the Grants Pass all-stars tomorrow night, as the Cave City outfit is made up of the stars from each of the industrial teams there and has been having things all its own way for some time. Colton, however, is not worried about the outcome, he said this morning, and feels he will have another scalp under his belt when he returns.

COMPLETE COAST SQUAD FOR GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—(AP)—With the enlistment of Bob Kleckner, former university of San Francisco halfback, and Toby Hunt, 1931 captain and tackle of St. Mary's, the Packers of the Pacific coast team which will oppose the Green Bay Packers here January 22, was completed today.

The Coast All-Stars, coached and captained by Ernie Nevers, all-American fullback at Stanford in 1925, are practicing at Stanford university, players from San Francisco, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, California, Stanford, Washington State, Oregon, Southern California, Loyola, U. C. L. A., and Oregon State, are included on the squad.

The Packers' team will arrive here January 17. The game, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, will be played for charity.

YANKEES FAVORED BY AL SIMMONS

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Al Simmons is getting ready to apply hits for the White Sox, but he can't see anyone but the Yankees in the 1933 American league race.

"Those Yankees should be 25 games in front of the field by the last of July," Al said. "Who's going to stop them? Certainly not the Red Sox, nor the Browns, nor Detroit, nor the White Sox. I don't think the Indians can muster enough strength to keep a steady pace, and Connie Mack is depending on youngsters to stay up there. Washington won't do it, either. So it looks like the Yanks."

"Ruth will be back—yes, I know he's getting old and all that, but what helps the Babe is the fact that he can conserve his energy with a club like the Yankees. He doesn't have to run himself all out all the time; hence, when he has to step in, he can do it."

CORNELL CANCELS SPORTS SCHEDULE

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 12.—(AP)—For reasons of economy, Cornell University has cancelled its entire winter and spring intercollegiate sports program with the single exception of basketball.

This drastic action, taken by the athletic council last night, carries with it abandonment of all schedules, varsity and freshman, in crew, wrestling, ice hockey, fencing, indoor and outdoor track, baseball and Lacrosse, and means that Cornell will not be represented in the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie nor in championships in any other sport for the rest of the school term.

Funds Lacking For California's Crew

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Donations from supporters at large was the only hope here today of 1933 national competition by the University of California boat crew, 1932 Poughkeepsie regatta and Olympic games winner, as a result of a heavy blow from the economy axe at the university.

Artificial Snow For Ski Champion

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Johanna Kolstad, Norway's champion woman ski jumper, will be forced to compete on an artificial slide and on transplanted snow for the first time Sunday.

Paul Muni Coming In Craterian Hit

Three unusual romances lend a glamor to the picture, "I Am a Fugitive From a Chain Gang" which opens at the Fox Craterian Friday and Saturday. It is claimed that they are actual love affairs of Robert E. Burns, author of the autobiographical novel from which the screen play was adapted by Sheridan Gibney and Brown Holmes.

Besides the romance, there is a grim, realistic story of life in a chain gang, with its racking tortures and unutterable cruelties; spectacular and thrilling episodes of a man's flight from bloodhounds and armed guards in which he narrowly escapes death in several unusual, famous stage and screen star, heads the cast with Glenda Farrell, Helen Vinson, Preston Foster.

Leo Carrillo Star New Rialto Picture

"Deception" is the story of a slick promoter who is finally thrown for a loss by a slicker "dame," and is the Rialto theater today and Friday. Leo Carrillo has the leading role and is supported by such well known actors as Nat Pendleton, Thelma Todd, Barbara Weeks and Dickie Moore.

Also on the Rialto program is a comedy, a travelogue and the Fox newswreel.
