

To Observe National Thrift Week Here; Tuesday Opening Day

SENSIBLE MONEY PROGRAM KEY TO OPPORTUNITIES

Advocating the practice of thrift throughout 1933, this week, beginning January 17, has been set aside as National Thrift week. Medford banks and other financial organizations joining in its observance. Competent economists are saying that the present time has unusual significance for the individual who has a sensible money program. The country has been for some time in the throes of a serious economic depression the end of which seems to be in sight. We seem to have started on the upward grade again. Most authorities agree that even if the upward movement is not rapid we are certain to come upon better days.

The important matter for the individual to consider at such a time as this is that whatever resources he has are of unique value. Vast fortunes have always been made at the tail-end of economic depressions. While fortunes are not guaranteed by those in charge of National Thrift week, it can be stated that dollars just now have extraordinary value.

True, many are out of work and unable to buy anything. But there are still millions who are employed and are in a position to profit handsomely by adopting the financial program suggested by the National Thrift committee. And certainly those who are out of work have a very definite need of using the greatest possible intelligence in handling their dwindling resources.

For instance, prices on the necessities and comforts of life are lower than they have been since the National Thrift movement started. Intelligent buying now will yield exceptional results. Furthermore, the prices of numerous investment securities are down to a place where they are especially attractive.

GRANGE COUNCIL FOR SALES TAX WITH EXEMPTION

At a meeting of fifty prominent Grange members held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, the Jackson County Grange council went strongly on record as favoring a Shelter Tax Exemption bill, which has been presented to the present session of the legislature under the sponsorship of the Jackson county delegation, Messrs. Dunn, Day and Kelly, according to a statement made last night by Chester Wendt, Jacksonville, president of the Wendt county Grange council.

The action taken by the council was transmitted last night to Ray Gill, state grange master, in Salem, recommending that he give this bill earnest and prompt consideration, and requesting that he confer with the sponsors of the measure, the action of the Jackson county council, those who presented the matter at the meeting yesterday indicated, may have a material effect upon the action which will be taken by state grange authorities.

Yesterday's meeting was called by the tax committee of the Medford chamber of commerce, in order that the provisions of the bill might be presented to local grange leaders, and presentation of the facts concerning the proposed law was made by Dr. Hamilton Patton, vice-president of the tax committee, presiding at the general meeting, before turning the gavel over to Chester Wendt, council president.

Full discussion of the provisions of the proposed law was held, with nearly all of those present expressing opinions with regard to various phases of the measure. The final vote taken on the recommendation was unanimous.
