ARSON SUSPECT IN ARRAIGNMENT THIS AFTERNOON

Nick Kayl, 65, arrested Saturday at Crescent City, charged with attempted arson, in an alleged plot to burn the house he owns in Jacksonville, and occupied by the Earl Bryant family, will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace H. D. Reed at Gold Hill this afternoon. Kayl is held in the county jail.

Kayl is alleged to have bored a hole in the walls of the house, while the Bryants slept last Thursday night, then stuffed in pitch chips, oil-soaked yarn and other inflammable material, and lighted it.

Mrs. Bryant discovered the fire, when she went to the crib of her son, Raymond, age four, convalescing from pneumonia. She aroused her husband, who put out the flames before they had progressed beyond the danger point.

Fast investigation work by the state police followed the discovery of the fire, and suspicion was first directed to Kayl when a copy of the "Humboldt Times" published at Eureka, Calif., was found.

Check of the auto movements of Kayl, state police claim, revealed that he arrived in this city Thursday evening about five o'clock, and departed the next day, shortly after noon. He also purchased an auto battery from the Pacific Highway service station.

Kayl, known to a number of people here, holds $1500 insurance on the house, which is assessed on the tax rolls at $200. The policies expire next April.

Two dozen exhibits, consisting of oil cans, candles, pitch shavings, pitch and oil soaked yarn, and other evidence has been collected by the state police. All the exhibits have been subjected to microscopic photography.

State police say feeling is bitter in Jacksonville against Kayl. The Bryants are well known. The father has been unemployed for some time.

SALES TAX DEBATE FOR KIWANIS CLUB

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Kiwanis club was held today noon at the Hotel Medford with the leading feature of entertainment a debate on the sales tax. Hugh Shurtliff represented the negative and David Moore the affirmative. Speakers were introduced by Ralph Bailey.
