

BOB LAGENBACHER GETS LENIENCY ON PLEA OF FRIENDS

Four residents of Jacksonville—including former County Judge F. L. Tou Velle and Mrs. Amy Dow—came to circuit court this morning, and made successful pleas for Robert Lagenbacher, 27, indicted by the grand jury for receiving stolen property, months, and Lagenbacher was given freedom, his appearance as a witness being guaranteed by Judge Tou Velle.

Jacksonville friends testified that Lagenbacher was "honest and hard-working, and paid his debts as best he could." All said they were surprised to hear that he was in trouble.

"Just couldn't believe it."

The district attorney recommended leniency, and the state police, testified that there was no evidence, that Lagenbacher has stolen the goods, but showed willingness to aid them in their recovery.

The indictment charged Lagenbacher with receiving goods, allegedly stolen from the Clitwood drug store in Jacksonville, on the night of December 17. The testimony showed that Martin Wilkinson of Jacksonville, indicted for burglary, had brought the goods to the Lagenbacher cabin in the morning in a threatening mood from drink, and left them. As soon as Lagenbacher discovered he was holding stolen goods, he demanded they be removed, and later they were buried in a dry creek bed. The youth testified "he was afraid of Wilkinson in a way."

Wilkinson entered a plea of not guilty to the burglary charge this morning.

Attorney H. E. Kelly spoke in behalf of Lagenbacher, and declared that his client "was a victim of circumstances, through inexperience."

Mrs. Amy Dow told the court that she had befriended the young man, and that "he squared up as fast as he could get the money, and would work, whenever he got a chance."

Judge Tou Velle told the court, that Lagenbacher "was well-liked in Jacksonville, and his trouble is due to being imposed upon." He told the court he would be responsible for his appearance as a witness.

After the ruling of the court, Lagenbacher thanked the judge, and there was general rejoicing by Jacksonville people, in the courthouse corridor.

OREGON WARMER AS WINTER HITS CALIFORNIA ANEW

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Showers and much higher temperatures prevailed over the Oregon coast section today, and storm warnings which were posted Sunday, were ordered down.

The strong northerly winds which swept the coast line yesterday died today and gave way to moderate breezes from the west and southwest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Winter whipped the far west with new fury today as the toll of last week's blizzards mounted to three dead and three missing.

While a new storm whirled down from the north, rescuers last night recovered the body of Charles E. Smith, 62-year-old prospector from the ruins of his snow-crowded cabin in the Sierra Madre mountains of southern California.

The rescuers were led to the cabin by Henry Mercer, 26, Smith's partner, who died as he heard an avalanche coming down the mountain. Clad only in his underwear, Mercer wrapped burlap sacks about his body, and fought his way through snows to a forest ranger station.

On the bleak Nevada desert, James M. Sorella, 28, and Kent Wood, 22, Texans who left Fort Worth a year ago to try their luck mining, perished after their automobile stalled in deep drifts. Their frozen bodies were found five miles south of Goldfield.

The new storm brought drenching rains to the valleys and coast lands last night and heavy snows to the Sierra Nevada and other mountains. The United States weather bureau predicted continued rain and snow for today and tomorrow.

Storm warnings for mariners were ordered along the entire coast.

Snow Sports Enjoyed—Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hamilton and Bert Peck of Central Point were among valley folks who spent Sunday in the snow. They went to Butte Falls, where they enjoyed not only the skiing but a heavy storm.

CULINARY CRAFT

By Estella Dorgan, Director of Home Service, California Oregon Power Co.

(Director of Home Service.) In and Out of Your Refrigerator. If you are one so fortunate as to have found a new electric refrigerator in your home Christmas morning, you are certainly interested in ways and means to make the most of such a great convenience now at your service. There are two ways to consider this most efficient electrical servant. What can you make in it and what can you make out of it? In the first group are the delightful desserts, salads, molded dishes, chilled cocktails, etc. In the second group we consider the materials stored in the cabinet either in their fresh condition or as leftovers. Of course, as pleasant as is the service of the first type, the second consideration is the more important, since by this advantage you need never be without the possibility of a wholesome meal, quickly prepared at a minute's notice and at nominal cost. And, by the way, don't forget to defrost your refrigerator when it needs it. A heavy coat of frost is an enemy to economy as well as to efficient and quick freezing.

Green Layer—

1 package lime Jell-o
1 c boiling water
1/2 c ice water
1 t salt
3 T vinegar
1 cucumber
1/2 c green pepper
1/2 c celery

Dissolve the Jell-o and salt in boiling water, add cold water and vinegar than chill until it begins to set. Add the vegetables and pour into pan about 9 1/2 x 15 1/2 in. Place in refrigerator to set quickly.

Head Layer—

1 c canned tomato soup
1/2 c water
1/2 t salt
1 t onion juice
2 c ground meat (veal, pork or lamb)

Soak the gelatin in cold water for

55 minutes, then add the hot soup. Chill, then add the ground meat. Do not stir enough to make a paste of the meat. Pour over the lime jelly and return to refrigerator to chill and set. Turn onto platter and garnish with pimiento and green pepper flower with lettuce and paprika.

Frozen Chocolate Pie.

3 sq. unsweetened chocolate
1 can sweetened, condensed milk
1 c hot water
1-3 c evaporated milk
2 eggs
1/2 t salt
1 c vanilla
1-3 c crushed vanilla wafers

Melt the chocolate over water, then add the condensed milk and stir until it thickens. Add the boiling water, salt and evaporated milk. Cook for 10 minutes, then pour over the beaten yolks and cool. Finally fold in the stiffly beaten whites.

Butter a freezing pan heavily, add the water crumbs, then shake so as to cover the surface with crumbs. Add the chocolate mixture and freeze. To serve, turn the cream from the tray and cut in pie-shaped pieces.

Graham Prune Pie.

21 graham crackers, crushed fine
1/2 c powdered sugar
1-3 c butter

Mix the ingredients well and pat mixture firmly into 9 or 10-in. pie plate; chill while preparing filling:

1 T gelatin
1/2 c cold water
1/2 c prune pulp
1/2 c prune juice
2 T sugar
3 T lemon juice
1/2 grated lemon rind
1/2 t salt
1 c whipping cream

Soak gelatin in cold water. Cook remaining ingredients, excepting cream, for two minutes then add softened gelatin. Allow to cool and when it begins to thicken, fold in cream, stiffly beaten. Fill chilled pie shell and place in refrigerator for two or three hours. Serve eight.

Pineapple Chicken Chop Suey.

1 c chicken
1 c celery
1 c pineapple
1 c bamboo shoots
1/2 c water chestnuts
1/2 c stock

Prey the chicken in heated fat until lightly brown, add celery and stir then add remaining ingredients, pineapple on top. Cover and cook about three minutes. Serve with boiled rice, pouring gravy over it.

Blizzard Reported—Clara Younger and Birdie Coggins were among the Medford folks who enjoyed skiing on the Greensprings mountain Sunday. They reported about three and one-half feet of snow here. A near blizzard raged most of the day, they said.

PLEAS MADE BY CAR THEFT PAIR

Ohio Rutzler, indicted for grand larceny and Arthur Rod, indicted for stealing an auto, entered pleas in circuit court this morning, through their attorney, Newton W. Chaney.

Rod entered a plea of not guilty, and asked an early trial. Rutzler entered a plea of guilty, and asked that sentence be deferred until after the Rod trial.

The pair are alleged to have stolen a car belonging to Sanford Richardson of Central Point, while parked in this city, before their arrest. The youths are said to have given the state police a wild chase over the county lanes near Central Point, before they were forced to stop in a barnyard. Two girls accompanied them at the time State police alleged that the pair refused to stop, when they drew alongside, but instead tried to force the state police car into the ditch.

Rutzler and Rod are alleged to have stolen service cars, in this city and vicinity over a period of two weeks.

Rutzler is on parole at the present time for a garage theft three years ago. Rod is said to be a recent arrival in this section from Minnesota.

The pair have been living in the Sema Valley district.

SNOW AT CRATER HITS 1932 MARK

Snowfall in Crater Lake park has reached the same depth that it was at this time last year, according to word from the park service headquarters here. The measurement at government camp is now 110 inches.

Nearly three feet of snow fell during the past two nights and one day, park officials said, but it was a light and fluffy snow and is expected to settle. Today's snowfall was not recorded, but is expected to put the total over three feet for the two days.

The greatest snow depth last year was reached on April 20, when there was 166 inches of snow on the ground. With normal snowfall from now on, this year's snowfall will equal that of last year, officials said.

MILL CITY, Ore., Jan. 23.—(AP)—Anton Farnell, 27, was instantly killed and six other persons injured, two seriously, when Farnell's automobile smashed into a truck, said to have been parked without lights, on a mill city road early Sunday.

Hospital attendants said little hope was held for the recovery of Billy, the year old son of Mrs. Louis York, who was a passenger in the car with her husband. Mrs. York received a fractured hip. Esther Mason, 16, was believed to have suffered a fractured skull and is in a serious condition while two other passengers and Mrs. York's husband sustained minor injuries.

Harry Morrow still ill—Harry Morrow, Medford, mail carrier, who has been confined to his home for several days with flu and chickenpox, expects to be back on the job in the near future, according to word from the postoffice. His place is being filled by Walt Wilson. Carrier Morrow went home first with a touch of flu, and later took the chickenpox.

STANDARD Winter Freeze-Tested GASOLINE

Read the "AAA" Freeze-Test Report:

November 22, 1932

This is to certify that a Freeze Starting Test on Standard Gasoline, purchased by us in the open market, resulted as follows:

The test was conducted in a stock Model A Ford Engine at the following temperatures:

- Combustion Chamber 10° F Below Zero
- Atmospheric Temperature 10° F " "
- Zerolene Motor Oil in Crankcase 6° F " "
- Zerolene Gear Grease, Winter 7° F " "
- Standard Gasoline 7.5° F " "

The engine started and continued to run in 2.11 seconds after first pressure on starting button.

This test is officially sanctioned by the AAA and conforms in all respects to the regulations of that body; the engine and all products being of the grade and consistency regularly purchasable. Temperatures given are Fahrenheit.
