THREE INCHES SNOW ADDED OVER NIGHT

Snow fell upon the city of Medford again last night, three inches of it, bringing the total for the month of January to nine inches, which is still January to nine inches, which is still considerably under the total for the same month in 1936. Local citizens, who are of the opinion that this is the most consistent streak of snowing Medford has known in a long, long time, are asked by the weather bureau to think back to that year, when anowing began on January 5th to continue with short intervals of thawing, until the 15th. The heaviest fall began January 12th and the snow was on the ground for a long period.

The present white carpet, covering the Rogue River valley, had its origination January 18th, one week ago doday. Since then a little more show has been added to the total each the continue of the conti
