

Tigers and All-Star Alumni Cagers Clash Tonight and Saturday

TILTS TO POLISH BURGER'S SQUAD FOR CONFERENCE

Wilton White to Lead Graduates Against Present Team—Good Preliminary Games Slated Both Nights

(By Adrian Fraley.) In what is expected to be two of their hardest tilts of the season, the Medford Tigers will meet former basketball stars of Medford high school in a week-end series tonight and Saturday night. The main game this evening will begin at 8 o'clock, and Saturday's main tilt is scheduled for 9 o'clock. There will be preliminaries for both games.

The Alumni team will be composed mostly of last year's players, with one or two others who have helped write Medford's basketball history. Wilton White is probably the outstanding player of the Stars. Od Hughes will see action at one of the forward positions, and it is believed that Joe Patton will shine in the other. George Harrington will also work for the graduates.

Tigers in Trim. The locals are in good shape, having practiced most of the week on shooting and polishing up for the hard schedule.

Red Scheel will be at his position at guard, although he injured his knee in the Roseburg game. Bill Luman, fast little forward, is in great shape for the coming tilt. Others of the squad are in good condition.

Fans are in the dark as to the outcome of these games, as the Alumni team is an unknown quantity. The coaches will not prophesy the outcome, but say both quintets are in condition and the games will be worth seeing. A large turnout is expected.

The Cubs will play the South Methodist tonight in the preliminary, and a secondary school for the preliminary tilt Saturday, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The lineups:

|          |            |
|----------|------------|
| Medford— | Stars—     |
| F. White | F. Hughes  |
| Luman    | Patton     |
| Harris   | W. White   |
| Scheel   | Harrington |
| Brown    | Dietrich   |

ELKS BOWLING TEAM AT TOP FORM; SCORE HEAVY OVER BAKERS

Rolling in the City Bowling league last night, the Elks club team turned in two games well over 900 and climaxed the match with Fluhrer's Bakery by toppling 1025 in the final stanza. Rankin of the Elks was "on," carding 171, 239 and 213 for an evening's total of 623. Rankin was closely pressed by Jack Oll of the same team. Oll smashing 195, 214 and 201 for a total of 610.

Copoo and Mall Tribune roll tonight.

|              |     |     |      |      |
|--------------|-----|-----|------|------|
| Elks         | 932 | 968 | 1055 | 2922 |
| Baker's      | 825 | 108 | 117  | 950  |
| Harrison     | 90  | 102 | 73   | 265  |
| A. Caldwell  | 134 | 103 | 156  | 393  |
| J. Hittler   | 141 | 187 | 135  | 463  |
| F. Dunn      | 133 | 109 | 147  | 489  |

| Handicap     | 762 | 806 | 765  | 2333 |

ASHLAND QUINTET BOASTS 1000 LBS. OF CAGE TALENT

When Larry Wolfe's Monmouth Normal basketball quintet clashes with Howard Hobson's gigantic Sons tonight and Saturday nights, it will be a battle of height and weight versus experience and speed. The Sons have the former; the invaders the latter.

NORMAL SCHOOLS TO PIT BEHEMOTH BASKETBALLERS

ASHLAND QUINTET BOASTS 1000 LBS. OF CAGE TALENT

With Benjamin, Allen and Abby, all former or all-northwest conference men from Willamette as mainstays, Wolfe's squad will present a solid front of basketball experience that cannot be matched by the Sons.

Howard Hobson's Sons. Also with the northern teachers will be Kichen, the tiny all-state man from Salem high, and Harry Scroggins, the either-hand shooter from Commerce high in Portland. But probably the big shot of the Monmouth team will prove to be Polen, six foot seven center.

But against that decided edge in speed and experience, Coach Hobson will throw a team that averages six foot two and a fraction in height and near 1000 lbs. in weight. The Sons are without a doubt the tallest team on the Pacific coast and will have a clear advantage over Monmouth in that respect.

Though the Sons are taller than Monmouth, Wolfe's team will have the highest-reaching man on the floor in Polen. In last week's games he held Howell to three points, and one of the highlights of the games at Ashland will probably be the battle of the two centers.

Yandle vs. Benjamin. Another individual struggle that looms as interesting will be that of Yandle, the Sons sharpshooter, versus Benjamin, Monmouth's scoring ace. Both are dead shots from any position and are rated near the best in the state.

The encounter tonight starts at eight o'clock and the one Saturday, at nine. A preliminary will be played both nights.

ASHLAND HIGH TO BATTLE KLAMATH

(By Billy Hulen.) Coach Don Fisher's Ashland high school Grizzlies will get their first real test of the 1933 season Friday and Saturday nights of this week when they journey to Klamath Falls to battle Klamath high in a two-game series.

The games will be non-conference affairs and will furnish a comparison as to the relative strength of Medford and Ashland high schools, who seem destined to fight it out between themselves for the district championship. Medford defeated the Pelicans, 20-19.

The men making the trip are: Hoxie and Durma, forwards; Hardy, center; Keanato and Baughman, guards. The three reserves are: Sneed, Gearhart and Hess.

MONMOUTH NORMAL BOWS TO ALL-STARS

ROSEBURG, Ore., Jan. 25.—(AP)—With the score 24 to 18 against them at the end of the third period, a picked Douglas county basketball team staged an exciting rally in the fourth period of a game against Monmouth Normal here last night, tied the score at 27-all and then, with four minutes left to play, won out, 34 to 31.

In Action Tonight and Saturday

Golf in Shorts Shocks; Officials Insist on Ban

CANBERRA, Australia.—(AP)—A golf "war" over women playing in shorts is over—but controversy lingers on. It was provoked by the appearance on golf links here of Mrs. W. Garnett, wife of the assistant to the representative in Australia of the British government, in silk shorts.

Officials have asked Mrs. Garnett not to appear again in her alluring garb and she has given a written guarantee to be conventional. Advocates of her costume, however, have risen and contend that the matter should be threshed out by the Women's Golf Union.

In the meantime, the wearing of shorts is the question of the hour on the tennis courts. So far, a ban has been placed on them for the important matches to be played at Kooyong, Victoria.

Harley Malcolm, who will be referee, has decreed that regulation costumes must be worn and that the wearing of shorts "was quite unnecessary and lowered the dignity of the game."

Shorts have also drawn disfavor in New Zealand. A pretty girl tennis player so shocked the committee of a tennis club at Stanley Bay by appearing in an outfit that included blue shorts, that an emergency committee was hurriedly summoned.

The girl promptly retired when informed that the wearing of shorts was "just not done."

ED LEWIS OF OREGON STATE LEADING CAGE SCORER IN NORTHWEST

SEATTLE, Jan. 27.—(AP)—While Ed Lewis, big Oregon State college center, maintained a comfortable lead for individual basketball scoring honors with 84 points scored in Pacific coast conference northern division games, Johnny Fuller, Washington captain, this week moved into second place with a total of 66 points.

Of the 15 high scorers in the northern division to date, University of Washington hoopers hold five places, Washington State and Idaho three each; Oregon State and Oregon two each.

The high scorers of the division are:

|                 |    |    |    |    |    |
|-----------------|----|----|----|----|----|
| Lewis, O. S. C. | 84 | 60 | 12 | 17 | 94 |
| Fuller, Wash.   | 66 | 25 | 18 | 10 | 66 |
| Barrett, Ida.   | 7  | 26 | 3  | 4  | 55 |

CASH-AND-CARRY ATHLETIC SYSTEM PLEASES CORNELL

Undergraduates Get As Much Competition As Before and Wax Enthusiastic Over Economy Program

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Cornell university's athletics, despite the publicly proclaimed policy of retrenchment in everything except football and basketball for 1933, have been put upon a "cash-and-carry" basis calculated to give the undergraduates as much or more competition than usual, plus a bigger part in the selection of their own opponents.

The rapidity and enthusiasm with which the students themselves have reacted to the economy program has assured the continuation of the athletics in eastern intercollegiate competition, including track and field, baseball and rowing, at least to the extent of a regatta with Syracuse.

Keep Out of Red. Meanwhile, the Cornell University Athletic association, with $35,000 in bank, occupies a position of solvency somewhat unique in these days and proposes to keep out of the red. This reserve is enough to finance the program through the end of the academic year, closing June 30. By cleaning the slate and making commitments on the "cash-and-carry" basis, it will not be necessary to borrow from the banks in anticipation of football revenues next fall.

The Cornell athletic plant now is valued at a half million dollars, on which there is an outstanding mortgage for only $105,000, with all interest paid up to date.

Team Travels Cheap. From the competitive angle, here's the way the new economy system is working out to the advantage of the athletes. The Cornell-Syracuse freshman basketball game, scheduled in Syracuse, was cancelled along with other intercollegiate competition for the yearlings. On short notice Graduate Manager "Cy" Thurston of Syracuse called a little Graduate Manager "Rym" Berry of Cornell, offering to pay the expenses of the "fresh" team if it would make the trip.

The players agreed, made the trip to Syracuse in autos, were fed by their hosts, won the game and turned in an expense account of $12. Two years ago, when college athletics still were enjoying relative prosperity, it cost $98 to send the "fresh" quintet to Syracuse to take a beating.

Joe Judge Signs Dodger Contract. NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Joe Judge, veteran first baseman, who recently was given his release by the Washington Senators, today signed a contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the National baseball league.

Signing of the veteran Judge, for years one of the leading players of the American league, plugs a gap at first on the Dodgers, which they tried to fill unsuccessfully all last year after Del Bissanette was injured in spring training.

Pop's Assistants To Be Named Soon

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Selection of Glenn S. (Pop) Warner's assistants may be announced when the famous football mentor comes here next Tuesday for his first visit to Philadelphia since he was named head football coach of Temple university.

He has submitted the names of Chuck Winterburn, his freshman coach at Stanford and Fred Swan, now freshman mentor at Wisconsin as likely coaching timber.
