The course will be carried on through the winter and spring seasons and all persons interested in a thorough and undenominational study of the Bible are invited to attend.

Pomona Meeting Goes on Record to Save Farms (Continued from Page One) gave compact arguments as to why the tax would not be beneficial to the farmer.

Favor Extension Work. Continuation of extension work from Oregon Stat. college was requested in one resolution, and a resolution was also passed endorsing a tax on oleomargarine.

A resolution opposing the expenditure of money on an audit of the books of Jackson county was laid on the table, as the hour grew late, but most of the grangers were of the opinion that if it had come to a vote the audit would have been opposed by the Pomona. The motion to lay the matter on the table was made by the Rogue River delegation and caught the supporters of the resolution napping.

Audit Discussed. Many of the grangers talked on the audit of the books, and one of the chief supporters of having the audit was former Commissioner Victor Bursell. Bursell contended that he believed it was the wish of the people that the audit be held, and that so long as he was no longer responsible for unnecessary expenditure of money, that he urged the audit. Bursell has contended for some time that the audit will show up the falsity of the political propaganda used in the last election, and if the people wanted to spend the money to have the audit, it would be a good thing for the county.

Before the business meeting started an interesting program was presented by members of the Pomona. Mrs. George Wendt and Mrs. Chester Wendt of the Jacksonville grange sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Simms.

Irma Heidermeyer played a violin solo, accompanied by Lena Conroy, at the piano. The men's chorus of the Central Point grange also sang two numbers.

DRAW JURY LIST FOR NEXT YEAR AFTER REVISIONS

Selection of the 250 residents of Jackson county to serve on the jury for the coming year, is now in the course of compilation by the county clerk's office, following a revision of the tentative list.

A number of names were stricken from the list in the revision process for various reasons. Some were in the hospital, some were dead, and some have moved away.

Two of those stricken from the tentative list were A. J. Bischoff, a bookkeeper of this city and Ted Heimroth of the Griffin creek district. Bischoff is employed by L. A. Banka and Heimroth is a recent purchaser on judgment sale of the Pacific Record-Herald building on Sixth street, on which County Judge Fehl is joint owner.

The names were selected at random, at first by the county court from the poll books. Later they made the selections a name at a time, and with the majority of the county court assenting.

The jury list will be used throughout the year, and the petit jury and the grand jury for the term commencing February 27 next, will be drawn from it.

The present grand jury is scheduled to resume its sessions, Monday February 6, and conclude its business. It has been in almost continuous session since last October.

WM. H. PRINGLE DROPS DEAD OF HEART FAILURE

William Henry Pringle, 66, prominent resident of this city and father of Henry H. Pringle, dropped dead from heart failure yesterday at his home, his death coming as a great shock to his relatives and many friends.

Born January 7th, 1864 in Hastings, Minn., Mr. Pringle spent his early life there, coming to the Pacific Northwest, where he engaged in banking for many years. He had resided in Medford for the past six years. He was a graduate of Hobart college at Geneva, New York, where he was affiliated with Kappa Alpha fraternity.

He was married to Lois Griggs in 1887, and was preceded by her in death several years ago.

Mr. Pringle was a member of the Masonic lodge and of the Shrine. He was also a member of the Elks lodge and a life member of the Episcopal church.

He is survived by three sons: Alexander Griggs Pringle of Seattle, Henry H. Pringle, this city and William Harry Pringle, Oakland, Cal.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Per funeral parlors, where services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

NEW ZION LEAGUE OFFICERS NAMED

The Zion Luther League met last Monday evening at the Pichtner home, for their regular business and social meeting.

The newly elected officers were installed by Dr. G. P. Kabele. The following committee chairmen were appointed by the executive committee:

Educational, Mrs. Esther Clark. Missionary, Edna Brewold. Life Service, Carla Nerlsen. Membership, Elsie Anderson. Social, Ruby Hall.

Immediately following the business session the Leaguers celebrated their league's first anniversary, at which time the host, Warren Pichtner also celebrated his birthday.

Many interesting games and a spelling match were enjoyed by the young folks. Those receiving prizes during the evening's entertainment were Dr. Kabele and Miss Ruby Hall.

Four interesting sessions on the subject of "The Ideal Young Woman and the Ideal Young Man" are to be given by Dr. Kabele, following the devotional meetings of the League held each Sunday evening, beginning February 5. All young people are heartily welcome to attend these services.

BIBLE STUDY IS LIQUOR SENTENCE

Chas. Jessiman, one of Medford's habituals, got a different kind of sentence yesterday when he appeared in City Judge Allen D. Curry's court.

And it's Bible study for Jessiman every Sunday morning for a long, long time, for Judge Curry is going to see that he is there, when the class convenes in the court house auditorium.

Jessiman was picked up Friday night and arrested for drunkenness. It wasn't the first time by many counts. He had also appeared in court many times and been fined many times for the same offense.

So Judge Curry decided to try something different. He offered the Bible class sentence. "I think it will do him a lot more good," he said yesterday afternoon. "Fines never helped him. He has just gone on getting drunk, besides he's out of a job and broke."

ACTRESS QUIZZED ON VISIT PERMIT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Murray W. Garson, special assistant to the secretary of labor announced today he had begun questioning of Maureen O'Sullivan, Irish lass of motion pictures, in connection with the arrest of John Farrow, film writer, on charges of overstaying a leave to enter the United States.

Besides examination of the actress in conjunction with deportation proceedings which agents said might involve Farrow, Garson stated that Miss O'Sullivan also was questioned about the status of her permit to reside in this country.

The actress was introduced to films by the singer, John McCormack, who discovered her in an Irish village.

CITY AND COUNTRY COOPERATION HELD NEED IN PROGRESS

A plea for closer co-operation between the city and the country was the theme of the presentation made by the Medford Chamber of Commerce to the citizens of Jacksonville and surrounding country, at a well-attended meeting of the Jacksonville Grange held at the Jacksonville court house Friday evening.

A fine musical program presented by the Medford Gleemen, and short addresses by prominent Medford business men featured the program.

Two groups of chorus numbers rendered by the Gleemen, under the direction of James Stevens, were especially well received by the two hundred or more grangers attending the meeting.

Outstanding hits of the musical program included a solo rendered by Fletcher Fish, entitled "This is a Great Country," written especially for the occasion by H. M. Butler and piano effects by Sebastian Apollo, assistant director of the Gleemen in the presentation of the final number by the chorus, "Bells of St. Mary's."

Thirty-seven members of the chorus attended the meeting.

"The prime necessity for Oregon agriculture is a well-defined and comprehensive marketing program," was the statement made by W. A. Gates, director of the Chamber of Commerce, in introducing his subject covering an agricultural program for southern Oregon.

Mr. Gates, in his address, emphasized the need for the formation of a state-wide marketing research bureau under the state department of agriculture for the purpose of assisting the farmers of the state in preparing and marketing their products.

A cordial invitation for people of Jacksonville to assist in the preparation of plans for the proposed District Anniversary celebration, outlined by the publicity committee of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, was presented by C. L. MacDonald, chairman of the committee, "Jacksonville, as the second oldest town in the state of Oregon, has much to offer in historical lore, and should be considered an integral part of the celebration program," said Mr. MacDonald; and in the formation of the final committee for the event, Jacksonville will be asked to provide one or two of its leading citizens to assist us.

The secret behind that agreement to talk world economic affairs over with Britain is that we want her back on the gold standard. Certain New York bankers are very much exercised about the effect of depreciated British currency on our trade. They have interested Treasury Secretary Mills in the matter and he is prompting Mr. Hoover.

The idea is that she might be persuaded to get back on gold in return for some war debt cancellation. That is what the boys at the top hope to arrange.

The recent Cabinet-guessing field day was inspired by a close political ally of the President-elect. He talked freely when Mr. Roosevelt was there. He did not pretend to speak with authority but was merely thinking out loud. His purpose was probably to float a few trial balloons for the president-elect to get the public reaction.

His suggestions were varied. There will be one progressive Republican in the cabinet if any can be persuaded to serve. It will not be Senator Norris or Senator Johnson but it might be Senator Cutting of New Mexico. Frank Polk might be a fair bet for Secretary of State. An effort might be made to get Owen Young back into the picture. Some certainly will be named for key positions whose names have not even been mentioned in public discussion.

'MOON' DELIVERY HALTED BY COPS

Lee York, 45, and Thomas Parker, 32, are held in the county jail on a federal charge of violation of the liquor laws, following an auto chase Saturday afternoon, from Apple street to Main street, near Central avenue, when they were forced to the curb by Federal Prohibition Agent C. J. Herz.

The pair are alleged to have been engaged in the delivery of a gallon of moonshine, and to have thrown the same out of the auto onto the street when arrest neared. Enough was saved from the broken jug, it was said, to constitute evidence.

Bystanders reported that handkerchiefs were used to sop up some of the evidence.

Parker, according to the city police, has a record in this city for prohibition law violations and York has a record in Josephine county for the same offense.

The pair are scheduled for hearing before United States Commissioner Victor Terzaghi next Monday. Attorney Frank De Bousa has been retained by Parker as counsel.

WILKINSON FOUND GUILTY BY JURY BURGLARY CHARGE

Martin Wilkinson of Jacksonville, until recently a resident of Polk county, was found guilty Saturday afternoon, by a circuit court jury of the burglary of the C. C. Whitwood Pharmacy in Jacksonville on the night of December 17 last.

The jury retired for its deliberations at 4:55 o'clock, took one ballot, and returned their verdict of guilty at five o'clock.

Wilkinson did not take the stand in his own behalf, but offered an alibi that he was asleep and in bed at the time of the burglary. The principal witness in his behalf was his brother.

The principal witness for the state was Robert Langenbacher, of Jacksonville, indicted for receiving stolen goods, in connection with the same case. Langenbacher last week, upon the plea of Mrs. Amy Dow and Forman, Judge P. L. Tou Velle was granted the sentence, when it was shown to the court that he was a victim of circumstances. The goods Wilkinson stole from the Whitwood Pharmacy were allegedly hidden at the Langenbacher cabin against his will and better judgment.

Attorney O. H. Bengston, representing Wilkinson, Deputy District Attorney George Neilson the state.
