Endeavorers Open Anniversary Week

52ND YEAR OF CHURCH ORDER IS CELEBRATED - Crater Lake Union Joins in Nation-Wide Movement With Programs and Decorations; Committees Busy

To climax the beginning of the new year, Christian Endeavorers throughout the world will celebrate their fifty-second anniversary by setting aside the coming week for programs and decorations in memory of the event.

Crater Lake Union has planned several interesting evenings and Endeavorers of the local First Christian Church are finishing out the week.

One of the outstanding items of the seven days is a window, next to the Spawey store on West Main street, calling attention to the Crater Lake Endeavor. It is being decorated by Jerry Latham of the Crater Lake Union. Friday night the union is also having a program over KMED.

The broadcast will begin with a story by Norman Fraley of Endeavor, from its founder, Dr. Francis E. Clark, to the present world-wide organization led by Dr. Dan E. Poling. Several songs and instrumental numbers will be given.

Founded in Maine - Since the first nucleus was founded in Portland, Maine, February 2, 1881 with only a few members, this body has grown until today it is nation-wide, with over 5 million young people signed as members. Dr. and Mrs. Clark guided the growing societies up to 1925, when Dr. Clark passed away. Shortly after his death, Dr. Poling became its leader. At present the body is divided into national, state, and district unions, so it can be handled with greater ease and efficiency.

In the past the local union and societies have not stressed this week, honoring only the 60th days.

Program for the entire week is as follows: (all in the evening) - Sunday, all of the local Christian Endeavorers will meet in the Presbyterian church for the regular endeavor meeting at 6:30 p. m. At this society night with the young people of the First Christian church having a social in the dining hall at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, a district gathering is to be held in the Christian church at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, the endeavorers will be in charge of the regular mid-week prayer service at the Christian church at 7:45 p. m. Thursday, a union rally and pot-luck dinner in the form of a banquet will be held in the Phoenix Presbyterian church at 6:30 p. m. Friday a radio program over KMED with the Crater Lake Union in charge, Sunday evening the city young people will be in charge of the usual meeting and also of the church services.

The committee for the week is: Gerald Latham, Margery Paley, Adrian Fraley, Norman Fraley, Alta Pahl, Alice Pahl, Ray Clark, and Louise Ladd.

Presbyterian Church - Women's Bible Class, Tuesday, Jan. 24, at church.

Mrs. Phipps, vice president in the chair and Mrs. Remington directing the devotions, with prayers and singing. The scripture reading the meeting was devoutly opened.

The secretary's and the committee reports proved that the class had not forgotten the Master's "In as much." Many sick had been called on and Thanksgiving and Christmas cheer had been spread abroad with many baskets.

For an educational feature Mrs. Chaney gave an excellent paper on "Russia and Religion," and Mrs. Fiegl made Technocracy so clear that those present feel that they know what it is all about.

Mrs. Esther Sanderson, in her usual delightful way, sang "This My Task" and "The Night Mind."

After this feast of soul it was fitting indeed that another feast should be enjoyed heartily.

The following committees is thanked for the delightful repast: Mrs. F. R. Hagarty, chairman, Mrs. D. W. Luke, Jacques, Gline, Ralph De Witt, and Mrs. Wright.

Mrs. E. A. Oldenburg, secretary.
