

"Profs" to Doff Dignity to Play Benefit Basketball Game Tonight

OLD-TIME STARS TO CAVORT AGAIN ON MAPLE FLOOR

Dr. Eddie Durno Will Toot Whistle As Faculty Frisk in Effort to Swell Junior High Team Travel Funds

By Roger Early.
Basketball is to take a new turn tonight when faculty members of the senior high school meet the faculty of the elementary schools on the senior high school floor at 8 o'clock. Something new in the art of playing basketball will undoubtedly be learned by those who witness this game.

The proceeds will be put in a fund to send the junior high team to Salem. The juniors will play a preliminary game with secondary school of Rogue River, beginning at 7:00 o'clock.

Ex-Stars to Shine Again.
Many outstanding players will be seen in action tonight. Professor Bailey, known in Salem as a fast and flashy forward, will lead offensive drives to victory for the senior high team.

Coach Burgher will see action at center. Having won letters in high school and college he will be a constant threat to the opposition.

Another forward who will be in trim for the game is Mr. Cope, who was active in athletics in his high school days in Pennsylvania.

The position at guard will be capably filled by Ed Kirtley, outstanding wrestler of the Pacific coast. Pandolfino is the alma mater of Mr. Kirtley.

Prof. Hanby to Play.
Last but not least comes Mr. Hanby, who was known in his home state of Kansas, as an athlete to the last point.

Leading the opposition will be Mr. Nitzel, who is expected to show heavy floor work tonight. Having won letters in high school and college he is expected to be the outstanding player on the floor.

Mr. Finch, a triple threat man for the challengers, is expected to turn in good work. A boxing champion in high school and college gives him the needed credentials to play.

Mr. Tucker and Mr. Marshall were also active in basketball while attending school.

Mr. Gustin will be a relief player, but will see action on the floor.

The lineup for the game tonight will be:

Senior High— Junior High
Bailey F. Tucker
Burgher G. Nitzel
Cope F. Finch
Kirtley G. Marshall
Mentzer O. Fitch
Hanby S. Gustin
Dr. Eddie Durno will referee the game.

BLIZZARD DELAYS FROLIC OF EAGLES
The snow frolic which was scheduled for Sunday at Snowman's hill was postponed on account of severe weather conditions. The frolic will be held the last of February according to the telegram received yesterday by H. L. Bromley of this city from the Mount Shasta "Snowmen."

The frolic, sponsored by the Eagles lodge will include a big program of winter sports with numerous ski jumps and races, tobogganing and a 7-mile cross country ski race as a special feature. It is anticipated that the delay of one month's time will insure favorable weather conditions and improved highway travel for the benefit of the hundreds of visitors who attend the popular Mount Shasta sports programs.

Norwegian Lad New Ski Champ
SEATTLE, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Only three years in this country from Norway, the land of the ski jumpers, Tom Moerastren, 23-year-old Vancouver, B. C. youth, today held the Pacific northwest all-around ski championship, won against stiff competition on the Snoqualmie pass course.

Three Way Tie In Cage Conference
SALEM, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Whitman, Willamette and College of Puget Sound are in a three way tie for leadership of the northwest conference basketball race, each undefeated in two starts.

Engen Retains Ski Jump Championship
LAKE ARROWHEAD, Calif., Jan. 30.—(AP)—In a blinding snowstorm which made record breaking too dangerous to be tried, Alf Engen of Salt Lake City successfully defended his Lake Arrowhead ski jumping championship here yesterday. His longest leap was 148 feet.

Cards Bound for Comeback With New Infield — Street

With Jim Bottomley off to Cincinnati and Charley Gelbert's recovery from a hunting wound doubtful, Manager Gabby Street is preparing to spring a brand new infield combination on the Cardinals' National league rivals. The above quartet doesn't look half bad, eh?

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—(AP)—It's quite a while from January to April, especially with player changes being made at the rate recently popular in the National league, but Sergeant Gabby Street has a pretty fair idea how his 1933 Cardinals will take the field. Undismayed by the indifferent 1932 showing of his charges, the doughty ex-batterly mate of Walter Johnson thinks he can get the Redbird machine back into its 1931 stride with the following lineup:
Collins, 1b; Hornsby, 2b; Frisch, ss; Martin, 3b; Medwick, lf; Crasitt, cf; Watkins, rf; Wilson, c.
And as good a guess as any to start the new season on the mound is Dizzy Dean, eccentric twirler who hung up an enviable strikeout record last season, his first in the majors.

SISKIYOU SNOW SPORT ENJOYED

The Siskiyou mountains, where a continuous but not at all vicious storm raged yesterday, adding new depths to the heavy snows, were the gathering place of many Medford people, who motored out of the sunshine into the storm, equipped with skis and toboggans. Numerous slopes a few miles north of Ashland were peopled with winter sports fans and bonfires, built at the top of the hills, were surrounded with many spectators, while flakes continued to pile evergreen boughs with a heavier weight of snow, adding new beauty to the mountain region. The storm failed to dampen the enthusiasm of those who like to ski and many people spent the major portion of the day in the winter playground.

BEAN BALL EYED FOR CRICKET BAN

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The cricket board of control met today behind closed doors to consider the "body line" bowling of Harold Larwood, of the English test match team, its protest to the Marylebone club and the refusal of the M. C. C. to order discontinuance of the practice.

Crawford Retains Lawn Tennis Title

MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Jack Crawford today retained his Australian lawn tennis singles championship as he defeated Keith Gledhill, eighth ranking player of the United States, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2 in the finals.

BEAVER HOOPERS FACE HUSKIES IN CRUCIAL CLASHES

SEATTLE, Jan. 30.—(AP)—A mid-season lull in basketball play in the northern division of the Pacific coast conference sees only two games scheduled this week, but they are games between the powerful University of Washington Huskies, league leaders, and the strong Oregon State Beavers five.

Splitting their first two-game series at Corvallis last week, the two teams clash here on Friday and Saturday nights. A double win for the Beavers will put them at the top of the conference race, while Washington will have an almost unbeatable lead by winning twice.

Meanwhile, at Pullman on Saturday night, the Washington State Cougars won again from Oregon, 27 to 23, handing the Oregon five its eighth consecutive defeat. By sweeping the two-games, Washington state moved into second place in the race:

The Standings:

W.	L.	P.C.
Washington	5	1 .833
Washington State	6	3 .667
Oregon State	5	3 .625
Idaho	4	4 .529
Oregon	0	8 .000

Games this week:
At Seattle—Oregon State vs. Washington (Friday and Saturday nights).

Trojans Hold Lead Southern Division

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—(AP)—Still undefeated, the University of Southern California Trojans held top place in the southern division, Pacific coast conference, basketball race today.

The Trojans, who gained the lead by defeating the University of California Bears, 32 to 26 at Los Angeles Friday, added another game to their margin by beating the Bears again Saturday, 31 to 29, on the same court.

Stanford and the University of California at Los Angeles split a two-game series at Stanford to tie for the cellar position. U. C. L. A. won Friday, 44 to 36. Stanford evened matters by taking the Saturday game 41 to 38.

Water in Place of Meal Helps Stomach

Stomach trouble is often helped by skipping one meal. Drink lots of water, both the young and old getting a "kick" out of the game.

The Bryston and Rankin teams will roll tonight in the bowling tournament, and a hot battle is expected.

ELKS INTERESTED IN TOURNAMENTS

The various tournaments at the Elks club are arousing interest among the members, and even the "lookers" are getting almost as much fun out of the games as the players.

Monday Green plays Fraser; Tuesday, Coo and Thayer; Wednesday, Fifer and Fish; Thursday, at 9:15, Getchell and Winkle; Friday, Baker and Brown at 6:15 and Coo and Lageron at 7:45; Saturday Coo and Lageron.

Announcement will be made of the standings in the bridge tournament after Tuesday night's game.

Volley ball and ping-pong are among other games being enjoyed by the Elks. Ping-pong is rapidly becoming one of the popular indoor sports, both the young and old getting a "kick" out of the game.

The Bryston and Rankin teams will roll tonight in the bowling tournament, and a hot battle is expected.

SAFEGWAY STORES HOMEMAKERS' BUREAU

COURSE in "KITCHENEERING"

Three Glorious Days of the Most Unique COOKING SCHOOL

Monotony prevention! Breakfast, lunches, dinners and parties that are different, new, exciting! That's what all of us want and that's what the Safeway Stores Homemakers' Bureau, under the direction of Julia Lee Wright, is striving for every day in the year.

Mrs. Julia Lee Wright, Director of the Safeway Stores Homemakers' Bureau, brings you new discoveries in Kitcheneering over the air each week. Now Mrs. Marion Spencer and Miss Helen Brown come to this very city as her personal representatives to demonstrate at least 15 recipes a day for three days... ideas fresh from the Bureau's own busy kitchen.
