TROJANS' MENTOR BLASTS CHANGES FOOTBALL RULES

Jones Breaks Silence On Passes, Use of Hands and Other Phases—Should Enforce Rules or Junk 'Em

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN, Associated Press Sports Writer.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Howard Harding Jones, who ordinarily keeps his tongue when the matter of football rules changes are discussed, broke his silence today with some pertinent remarks about passes, use of the hands and things.

To Sum It All Up, the University of Southern California's highly successful mentor thinks the illegal use of hands rule should be enforced or abolished. Perilous passing should have a greater penalty and the sideline play should be eliminated.

"If the officials aren't going to enforce the penalty for illegal use of the hands," said Troy's head man, "and I didn't see it enforced all last year, then I say the rule out and let everybody use 'em."

"Fifteen yards penalty might be too much for the second incomplete pass in the same series of downs. But instead of the present five yards be about right. Then add 15 more for the third pass that fails. If a team starts throwing the ball to the winds let it pay for it."

Coach Jones is emphatically in favor of moving the ball in 15 yards from the sidelines, should it be carried five yards or less from the boundary.

"The sidelines play is just a waste of time, since few ever are worked for gains and almost never for touchdowns."

Pass Limit Unimportant. The Trojan coach, who with Lou Little of Columbia and Nobe Kiser of Purdue will sit in with the rules committee as advisors when it meets in New York, doesn't particularly care whether the rule is lifted requiring that all forward passes must be made from five yards back of the line of scrimmage.

"If a team is willing to take its chances of throwing a pass closer than that to the line, my teams would be willing to take the chance of having them completed."

Coach Jones said he had no intentions of suggesting any rules changes at the meeting in regard to passes, but if Coach Little makes his ideas known there, he would be inclined to offer an opinion or two.

"This business of the use of the hands is another thing. I think my team could learn to use its hands too. You know there was no penalty about anything like that when I played at Yale."

Filegela's team took two out of three games, but Orr's bunch counted one pin more in the match. Jerome rolled high for the evening with 515.

SECONDARY QUINTS TO MEET IN FINAL FIRST HALF TILTS

Secondary schools of the valley will play the last game of the first half of their conference schedules Friday night, with the strong Phoenix team well in the lead at the turn. Phoenix may get knocked off the throne Friday, however, because that team plays Rogue River at Phoenix Friday, and Rogue River defeated Jacksonville by a larger score than did Phoenix. Central Point trails Phoenix and lost one, but other teams are farther down the line, at present.

Central Point meets Talent at Central Point Friday, and if the Pointers win they will still have a chance to de-throne Phoenix when the two meet again later in the season. A win by Talent, however, will just about put a kibosh on the Pointers, as far as the pennant is concerned.

Gold Hill will play Talent tonight, in a game held over from the regular schedule last Friday. The referee failed to show up at Talent last Friday, causing the game to be postponed, so Gold Hill plays two games this week. The second is on the regular schedule, between Gold Hill and Jacksonville, and will also be played at Gold Hill.

Both Talent and Gold Hill feel confident of winning tonight, as the loser will fall into the lower brackets of the percentage list.

TALENT, GOLD HILL TO CLASH TONIGHT

The Talent and Gold Hill basketball teams met tonight to settle the game that was postponed last Friday when the referee failed to show up at Talent. Both teams are fighting hard to keep from falling into the lower half of the percentage column, and the game, which will be played at Gold Hill, promises to be a hard fought battle.

Talent's lineup could not be secured, but the Gold Hill starting lineup will be: D. Walker and K. Hamerly, forwards; T. Rister, center; and H. Lingren and C. Bell, guards. L. Walker, J. Cornutt and B. Johnson will also see action during the evening.

La Grande Normal Wins Second Tilt

LA GRANDE, Ore., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Eastern Oregon Normal school's basketball team won its second straight game from Columbia university here last night, 49 to 40.

TEXACOS PROMISE S. O. N. S. WILL FIND THEM NO SET-UP

Medford's Texaco basketball quintet completed its final polishing last night in preparation for the clash tonight with the Southern Oregon Normal school on the Senior high school floor here. Manager Sam Colton of the Texacos said this morning that his men were primed for the game, and that if Howard Hobson, coach of the Sons, though he had a setup he was due for a shock.

Included among the Texaco stars who will oppose the Sons are some of the best basketball players Medford high school ever produced. Archie Laing, Herman Newland, Virgil Swanson, Bob Dietrich and Del Anderson will likely start the game, Colton said, with Harrington, Williams and Roan Green bound to see action before the game ends.

Patterson and Yandall of the Sons are expected to furnish much of the fireworks of the evening. Patterson, colored, is a former flash from Benson Tech of Portland, and Yandall starred for the Multnomah Athletic club. Both have recently joined the Sons' aggregation and were largely responsible for the victory of the Sons over Monmouth last week.

If the Texacos are able to defeat the Sons tonight, according to Manager Colton, it is altogether probable that the Medford boys will go looking for greater fields to conquer, as the Sons are considered among the few best teams in the state. The University of Oregon fell prey to the Sons, three games out of four, which is quite a record.

Butte Falls and Jacksonville town teams will play the preliminary game that starts at 7 o'clock, Colton said.

Noria's Boy Wins Bird Dog Event

SHUQUALAK, Miss., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Noria's Boy, the liver and white pointed dog owned by W. G. Teague of New York, has added the two-hour subscription championship of the continental bird dog trials to his winning. He led a field of 24 dogs in the event yesterday and won by virtue of speed and brilliant performance.

MEDFORD BUILDING DATA REQUESTED

Requests for information regarding the financial progress of Medford through building channels are being received from various cities and financial institutions, Frank Rogers, city building inspector, announced today. Among the most recent inquiries are two from the Bank of America, San Francisco, and the United States Department of Labor. The letter from the Bank of America was sent out by the research department and does not state reasons for desiring this information regarding Medford's financial condition.
