

JACKSON COUNTY'S ROAD SUPERVISORS DISCUSS PROGRAM

Supervisors of the 12 road districts of Jackson county met with the county court this morning and discussed plans for a road program, in conjunction with relief funds, to the end that the unemployed of the districts would benefit. The supervisors were requested to report back as soon as possible, on the road and unemployment situation in their respective districts.

It was agreed at the session, that the pay for man and team would be $4 per day and for the workers at the rate of $2 per day. It was planned that many who had given notes for supplies at the county commissary would pay them with road labor.

George Andrews, supervisor of the district south of Ashland reported that with the roads freezing and thawing alternately, they were becoming rutted, and in bad shape. Other supervisors reported similar conditions in their districts.

The use of scrip was discussed, with no decision. County Judge Fehi said several such plans had been presented to the court, and had received considerable attention. "But in the last analysis, there is nothing that will take the place of money." The court said the matter presented a number of problems that would have to be worked out.

Arrangements were made for the use of county tools in the various districts. Clearing of the paved roads in the rural districts of snow was underway today.

AMELIA EARHART HERE ON AIR HOP

America's queen of the air, Miss Amelia Earhart who is on a tour, having appeared in Portland last week, was a visitor in Medford yesterday, stopping over for lunch before continuing her journey to San Francisco on the United Air Lines plane.

Phil Sharp, United Air Lines field superintendent at Medford, who had been on a business trip to Portland, returned here on the same ship Sunday, and stated that Miss Earhart was impressed by the Oregon scenery, and spoke highly of the Rogue River valley.

Before leaving here, Miss Earhart made an inspection tour of the municipal building at the airport, and was quite pleased with the structure, as well as the landing field Mr. Sharp said.

SNOW LURES TWO TOTS TO DEATH

HIGHLAND FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 5.—(AP)—The joy that new, white snow brings to children meant tragedy to the family of Lieut. Godwin Ordway, Jr., of West Point.

His son Albert, 7, and daughter Margaret, 4, looked out the window yesterday and saw shining whiteness everywhere.

"Please, can we go out and play in it?" they begged, dancing up and down in their eagerness.

They were permitted to go, and they didn't come back. Following tiny footprints, their father found them drowned in a small pond that holds only six feet of water. They apparently had slipped on the snow-covered bank.

BRITISH PILOTS TRY FOR RECORD

CRANWELL, England, Feb. 6.—(AP)—In an attempt to create a new world record for long distance non-stop flight, a royal air force long-range monoplane piloted by Squadron Leader O. R. Gaylor and Flight Lieutenant G. E. Nichollet, took off at 7:15 a. m. (2:15 a. m., eastern standard time) for South Africa.

Capetown is 6198 miles from this Lincolnshire town. To beat the present non-stop record of 5012 miles, made by the Americans, Russell Boardman and John Polando, on a New York-Istanbul flight, the British pair must reach the vicinity of Zesfontein in British Southwest Africa.

Daughters of Nile
Ceremonial Wednesday
 Holding an important place on this week's social calendar is the installation to be held by Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, in this city Wednesday evening.

Activities will open with a banquet at the Hotel Medford at 7 o'clock, for which elaborate preparations are being made. Guests will then continue to the Masonic hall for the installation of new officers. Mrs. O. C. Boggs of this city will be installed as queen of the temple to succeed Mrs. Sam Baker of Grants Pass, retiring queen.

Following installation the remainder of the evening will be devoted to dancing. Arrangements are in charge of committees headed by Mrs. Chas. T. Sweeney and Mrs. W. H. McGowan. Annual installation of Daughters of the Nile is each year one of the high spots on the social calendar, and the affair for this week is anticipated by many folk, who are busy with preparations for the occasion.

$20,000 RANSOM IS DEMANDED BY L. A. PLOTTERS

While waiting for the automobile to appear, Mrs. Skeele telephoned her son Franklin, and told him to meet her at the hospital. The son is an advertising man for a Los Angeles newspaper.

When the son arrived at the hospital he found no trace of his mother or father and, puzzled, returned to his home. There he found a two-page typewritten ransom note, details of which police have not disclosed.

The son later located his father at a nearby church where he serves as organist.

Had No Enemies
 "I have no enemies," said Dr. Skeele, "and am at a loss to learn why my wife should be chosen for a kidnapping plot. Certainly I am not wealthy, although my friends would probably raise $20,000 if I should ask."

Dr. Skeele has taught music at the University of Southern California for 35 years.

The note was the only clue in the hands of police today. "You are being watched," it read, "and in case you notify police we will do away with her."

Police said detailed arrangements were made in the note for delivery of the ransom, but these they kept secret.

Mrs. Skeele is 5 feet 3 inches in height, with brown hair, greying at the temples. She wears glasses and at the time of her disappearance wore a heavy, dark blue coat trimmed in grey fur collar and cuffs.

operated with an efficiency equal to that of any mortgage loan company, and that it has fulfilled in every particular the original intent of the law. The committee placed responsibility for the present financial plight of the commission upon the shoulders of state officials who failed to back the 1/2-mill tax levy as provided by law.

Members of the committee were Stanley Myers, Ed P. Bailey, G. Lane Goodell, R. M. Walker, Floyd J. Cook, Thomas D. Stoughton and Harold Sexton.

LEGION PROBES VOICE APPROVAL AID COMMISSION

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 6.—(AP)—The special investigating committee of the American Legion reported here today that activities of the World War veterans' state aid commission have been conducted along sound lines and have brought great benefits to the state.

"We deplore the mass of misinformation which has been given out concerning the affairs of the commission," the report stated. "In our examination we find no criticism of its conduct."

The committee said its findings were that the commission has been

Cites Sugar Charges
 Barry today called the committee's attention to the investigation of charges by the senate lobby committee a year or two ago that senators had received money from those interested in the sugar tariff.

He testified a fair reading of the text of the article would have shown his purpose was to "proclaim the integrity of the congress as a whole."

Testifying in a calm voice, he continued he had said far less in his article than Glass and others had publicly said.

"Within the past few days," he asserted, "a senator has said in the senate that a certain measure would be enacted because 'the interests' were behind it and it is a matter of frequent comment that the halls of congress are filled with groups of lobbyists and the lobbyist for special interest has always had a sinister name."

Volunteers to Meet—A meeting of the Volunteer firemen will be conducted this evening at the city fire hall at the corner of Third and Front streets. It was announced today. The meeting has been called for 7:30 o'clock.

PLUNGE ACCIDENT DAMAGES SOUGHT

The damage suit of Lois Hill, a minor, and John Hill, as her guardian, was started in circuit court this morning. The action seeks $2,277, and is against Stella J. Merrick and

"Merrick's Motor Inn" (Nat). The jury was selected this morning, and viewed the scene in a body.

The auto based upon an alleged incident that occurred in the swimming tank on June 29, 1931. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, while upon the high diving board at the amusement place, was shoved off by another child, sustained shock, lacerations and other injuries which incapacitate her for professional.

The plaintiff is represented by O. C. Boggs, J. F. Flegel and O. H. Bengtson; the defendant by Attorney

Charles W. Reames of this city and Shepard & Shepard of Portland.

NO... YES, THAT IS... LATELY HE'S CHANGED, HASN'T BEEN NEAR ME FOR TWO WEEKS

LUCKY ME... THINK OF GETTING SUCH A LOVELY SHOWER, BOB

DOESN'T HE CARE ANY MORE, HELEN? HAVE I OFFENDED HIM?

YOU MAY HAVE MADE THE SAME MISTAKE I DID ONCE. NOW I'M MORE CAREFUL ABOUT "B.O."—BATHE REGULARLY WITH LIFEBOUY

A LIFEBOUY SHOWER

I'M SO GLAD HELEN TOLD ME ABOUT LIFEBOUY. I FEEL SO GLORIOUSLY CLEAN—NO "B.O." NOW

NOW A WEDDING SHOWER... "B.O." ended!

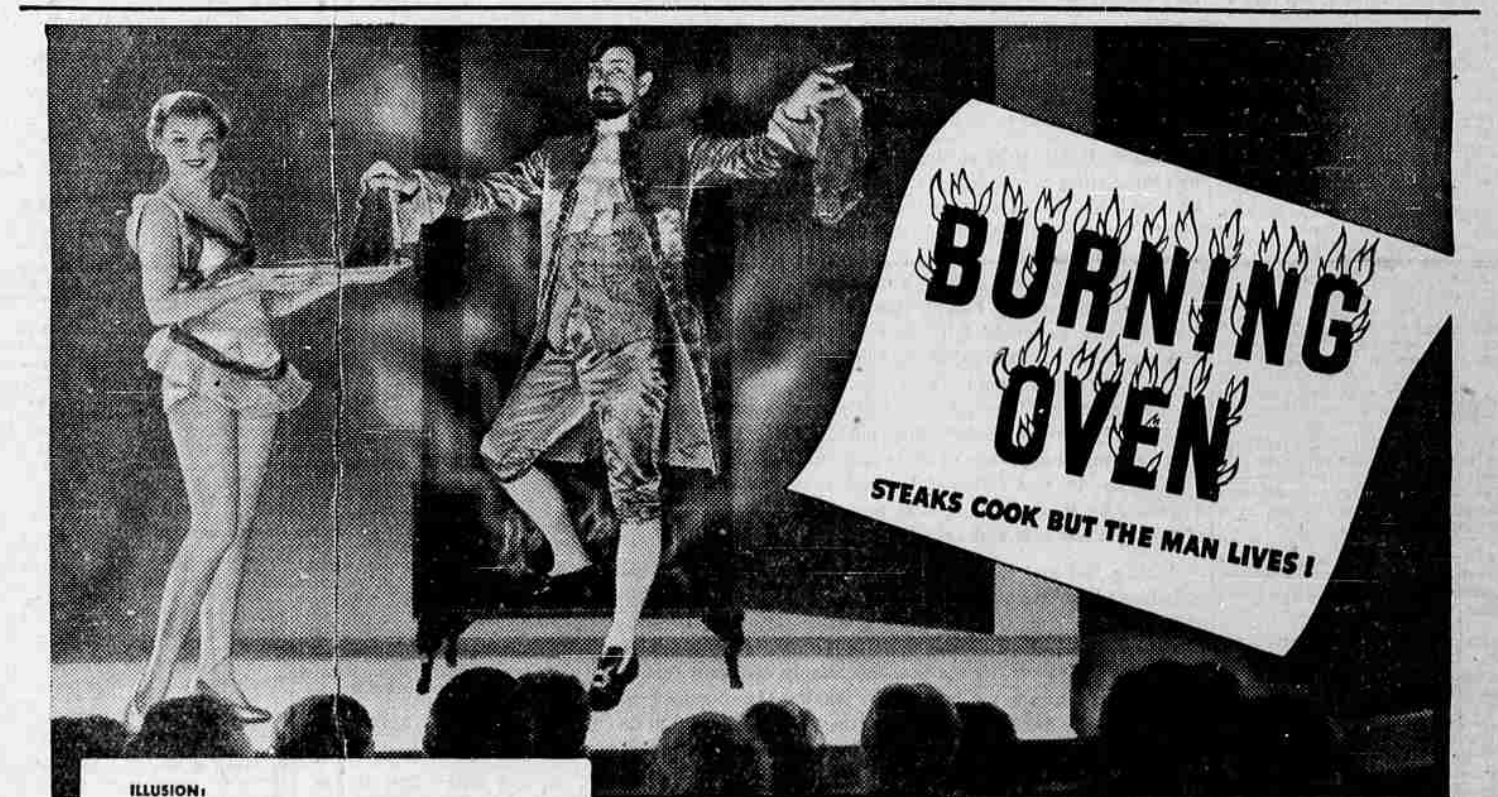

LUCKY ME... THINK OF GETTING YOU!

"B.O."—fatal to romance!

SMILES FADE. Sweethearts become mere acquaintances just as soon as one of them grows careless about "B.O." (body odor). Take no chances—especially now. For heavy clothes and overheated rooms increase the danger of offending. Bathe regularly with Lifebouy. You'll notice its abundant lather. Notice, too, how clean it smells. This pleasant, quickly-vanishing hygienic scent tells you Lifebouy is different from ordinary toilet soaps—gives extra protection. Its creamy, abundant, penetrating lather purifies and deodorizes pores—effectively stops "B.O." Removes germs from hands—helps safeguard health.

For a lovelier complexion
 Every night massage Lifebouy's bland, purifying lather into the pores; then rise. Watch dull, sallow skin gain clear, healthy radiance. You'll be amazed and delighted.

A PRODUCT OF LEVER BROTHERS CO.

ILLUSION:
 One of Napoleon's soldiers rose to fame on the "Burning Oven" trick. A roaring fire was built in an oven... the temperature rose to 600° F. Into the oven walked the "fire king," M. Chabert, carrying several raw steaks. A few minutes later the doors were flung wide and out he stepped... safe and sound... with the steaks thoroughly cooked.

EXPLANATION:
 Heat rises. When Chabert entered the oven he hung the steaks above the fire, in the center of the oven, then dropped to the floor at the side, covering his head with a hood made from his shirt. He breathed through small air holes in the floor. When the steaks were cooked he threw back the hood, grabbed the steaks, and stepped out in triumph.

It's fun to be fooled... it's more fun to KNOW

"The Burning Oven" is an old illusion which has played a leading role in cigarette advertising. Its modern name is "Heat Treatment."

EXPLANATION: All cigarette manufacturers use the heat-treating process. Cheap, harsh, raw tobaccos require intensive processing under high temperatures. The more expensive tobaccos, which are naturally mild, call for only a moderate application of heat. The first Camel cigarette was manufactured under the heat-treating process. Every one of the billions of Camels produced since has received the necessary heat treatment. But remember that heat treatment never makes cheap, inferior tobacco good. It is not in heat treatments, but in more costly tobacco and fine blending, that Camels find their appealing mildness and flavor.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

You sense this quality in the mildness... the distinctive flavor... of Camels. More costly tobaccos and a matchless blend tell the story of Camel leadership in public confidence. Try Camels. Judge them critically. Compare them with others for mildness, for throat-ease, for good taste. Key your taste to quality! Camels come to you fresh and cool... in the air-tight, welded Humidor Pack that keeps dryness outside and freshness inside.
