

LONG PROBATION PERIOD FOR PAIR AFTER BURGLARY

Five years' probation to the Oregon state police, was the sentence passed this morning upon Luther (Toots) Crosby and Virgil (Dodo) Burnett.

The court said that the leniency was the first ever extended in this district, under the probation law passed by the 1931 legislature.

"The court is going beyond the limit," Judge Norton said, "that the court should go, and the public thinks the court should go, in extending leniency. If either fails to live up to the probation terms, the court assumes the sentence and the responsibility. It is a man to man proposition."

The court hinted that he was impelled to grant probation, "because one also implicated in the crime had evaded justice, on a technicality."

Both Crosby and Burnett promised to "keep away" from Leslie (Buck) Wilson, and "other bad influences, keep clean associations, and lead clean lives, and be diligent in securing employment, as far as possible."

The court declared the fact that the two youths had "no doubt been led into the crime, and had served more than six months in jail already," mitigated in their favor.

Crosby asked permission of the court to go to The Dalles, Ore., where he said he has a job. Burnett promised to work upon his father's place, and the court, Judge Norton, said Crosby was too much affected to speak.

As long as either remain in southern Oregon during the next five years they will be under state police supervision.

Granting probation to the two youths was the final chapter in the J. C. Penney Co. robbery case. Leslie (Buck) Wilson and Emalee (Bobbie) Mansfield, and Burnett and Crosby were arrested for the burglary. Wilson was the oldest of the quartet, and was taken from the jury on a technicality.

Burnett and Crosby were ordered released from the county jail immediately following the action of the court.

Patriotic Program Pleases Club Audience

A splendid program of patriotic character, appropriate to the month of February, was presented yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Greater Medford club, at the city clubrooms. Addresses were made by representatives of the various patriotic societies in this city.

The Auxiliary to the Spanish-American War Veterans was represented by Mrs. Carrie Averill, president, who also emphasized national defense and local relief work.

The Auxiliary to the United States Veterans was represented by Mrs. K. D. Ross, president of the organization and is expressed here through the poppy sale, preceding each Memorial day.

The Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to the president, Mrs. Ira Canfield, also engages in aiding the veterans, especially those in this city, and contributes to the welfare of the national children's home, to which all auxiliaries in the nation send funds.

The patriotic addresses yesterday were interspersed with a delightful musical program arranged by Mrs. E. E. Gore, music chairman. Numbers from the opera, "Pinafore," to be presented by a high school cast here, February 23, were presented.

Miss Dorothy Burgess gave a short description of the opera, calling it a sparkling musical comedy, which all will find particularly enjoyable at this time.

Miss Aileen Guy sang "Little Buttercup," and LaMerle Beck "Sorry, Her Lot." Jack Littrell played two numbers, "The Harp" and "The Clown," which were also greatly enjoyed.

There were many guests in attendance at yesterday's meeting and tea was served by Mesdames E. C. Mutcholland, A. J. Hanby and A. E. Reames, with Mrs. Eber Weed pouring.

The March meeting of the club will be in charge of Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, and the April meeting, an anniversary celebration, will be arranged by Mrs. J. H. Cochran. Charter members of the club will be guests.

Professor's Wife Home Unharmed After Kidnaping

Mrs. Skeele said she was alone at her home Sunday night when she was informed by telephone her husband had been injured in a traffic accident and that an automobile was being sent for her.

A car drove up to her home and a man rang the bell. Hurdledly donning wraps she went with him to the car, at the wheel of which was a woman.

Instead of going to the hospital, the car drove away in the opposite direction, Mrs. Skeele said. She was taken to a house where there were three other men, and she was held captive until about 8 o'clock last night when she was driven to within a few blocks of her home and released.

EMPIRE HOLDING STOCK SALE SUIT LAST COMING UP

The suit of E. M. Wilson, mayor of Medford, and wife, against the Empire Holding Co., of Portland, for cancellation of mortgage and notes in the sum of $3000, given in purchase of Empire Holding company stock, is listed as the last case on the present docket of the circuit court.

Mayor Wilson was among a number of Jackson county investors who purchased stock in the Empire Holding company. Later the organizers of the company were the center of an investigation, and some of the officers were brought to trial.

Other cases scheduled for the present term of the circuit court are Manilla Burdell against Della O. Wilkinson, for damages growing out of a neighborhood quarrel and alleged assault; B. E. Currie against the Gold Mound Co., a mining action; Jack Hartley against L. O. Herrold, an action in a partnership settlement; The First National Bank against L. O. Herrold and C. A. Hartley, for money; and Dr. R. W. Sietter against George Froehrich, an auto damage suit.

The dream of an exciting sea voyage and delightful days in the tropics is near realization for some Medford mias as the Medford Merchants-Mail Tribune popularity contest progresses.

Contestants are eagerly looking forward to the next tabulation of votes which will be published in this paper tomorrow. All votes turned in at the Chamber of Commerce and Mail Tribune ballot boxes up to noon Wednesday will be included.

Results of the last count which appeared in Sunday's Mail Tribune indicated that a participant may be lagging behind in the popularity race one week and be near the top of the list in the next check up of votes.

Some young lady in this contest will win a sightseeing trip to San Francisco by boat from Seattle, all expenses being paid from Medford and return, as second prize.

A number of details will have been worked out, but it is anticipated that the federal funds, when and if granted, would be available for spring work financing, and would also cover packing charges.

The agricultural committee has been assured that there would be no difficulty in procuring the funds, once the merit and need has been satisfactorily established.

RECOUNT HEARING EARLY NEXT WEEK SAYS SKIPWORTH

According to word received from Circuit Judge George B. Skipworth of Eugene, he will be here early next week, to hear arguments and motions in the election proceedings instituted by former Sheriff Ralph G. Jenner against Sheriff Gordon L. Schermerhorn. No definite assurance has been given, but it is expected that Judge Skipworth will expedite the matter as much as possible.

Monday next, February 13, the day after Lincoln's birthday, is a judicial holiday in this state, and there will be no session of the court. Judge Skipworth is expected to be here Tuesday for the proceedings.

Attorneys Kelly and DeSouza have asked for an extension in which to file an amended answer.

One point expected to be raised is the constitutionality of Jenner's candidacy, inasmuch as he was a defeated candidate at the spring primary. This is offset by the legality of the voters writing in the name of anyone they wish, and they must be counted. This also includes the "intention of the voter," and misspelling, wrong initials or failure to make an "X" does not invalidate the ballot.

It is argued that if a voter took the time and trouble to write in a name, the law holds that failure to make an "X" does not invalidate the vote. Sheriff Schermerhorn, in the official count, was given a majority of 123 votes, and was issued a certificate of election thereon. Attorneys for Jenner contend that he won the election by "not less than 97 votes," and that 381 write-in votes were cast out by election boards of the county on technical errors.

Mr. Durigan Finds Relief in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Here is his enthusiastic letter: "Am 70 years of age, and for 40 of those years there never was a week but what I had to take a pill or some kind of cathartic."

"I took everything, but gained only temporary relief. Until last spring my daughter, who is a nurse in a hospital, brought me some Kellogg's ALL-BRAN."

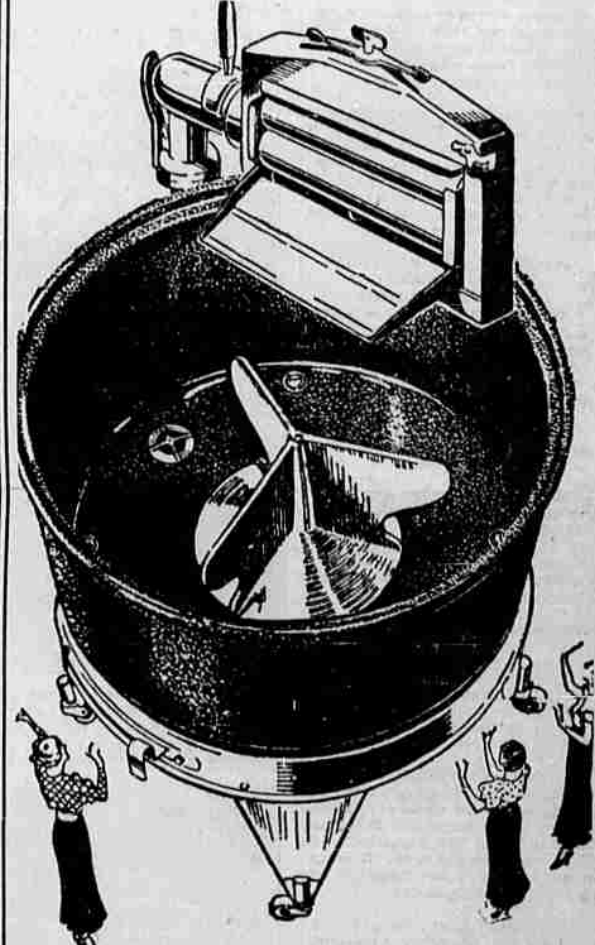

"At the end of the week, I knew I had something that was it, and I kept on taking it. I haven't taken a cathartic since. I can eat meat any time, as often as I like, or any other kind of food, and no constipation." Mr. L. M. Durigan, 6811 Buffalo Ave., Jacksonville, Florida.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to help muscle tone. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the intestinal wastes.

How much safer than patent medicines. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
