

Cavemen Will Invade Tiger Lair Tonight

REVENGE IS AIM OF GRANTS PASS BASKETBALLERS

Tilt Will Be Second in Conference Column for Locals—Roseburg Quint Comes for Return Game Saturday

The Cavemen of Grants Pass, with furry pants and war-clubs, invade Medford tonight to avenge the defeat the Tigers handed them on the Grants Pass basketball court earlier in the season. Tonight's game is one of the most important of the season, as it is the second conference game for the Tigers, and will largely determine whether or not the Tigers go to Salem for the state tournament.

Roseburg high plays a return game here Saturday night. "All my men are in good shape," Coach Darwin K. Burgher said this morning, "and barring hard luck or accidents, we should repeat our victory. A few of the boys have colds, but not bad enough to weaken them. Yes, Brown is better, and Schaeff's knees isn't bothering him. I can safely say the men are physically in good condition."

White, Hammock, Harris, Sobel and Brown will start, Burgher said, but Luman, Severson, Ghelardi, Hinman and Kunzman will likely see action during the evening. Hinman, Burgher said, is being brought up from the Cubs, as a general utility man.

The Tigers have only played one conference game so far, but have won several hard non-conference games. Roseburg, the only high school team the Tigers have lost to comes to Medford Saturday night, giving basketball fans a play-off of action for the week-end. Roseburg defeated Medford, at Roseburg, by a 20-18 score, several weeks ago. Medford is determined to have vengeance.

Medford recovered the following week, however, after the Roseburg game, to defeat the strong Klamath Falls team. Klamath Falls has recently defeated Grants Pass, which gives the Tigers further hopes of making it two straight over the Cavemen.

The preliminary game tonight will be between the St. Mary's team and the Tiger Cubs, and for Saturday night's preliminary, Central Point high school will engage the Cubs. Central Point has an up and coming team, and is still making a bid for the secondary school's pennant, having lost only to Phoenix. Good preliminaries should be both, Burgher said.

Tonight's preliminary starts at 7 o'clock, with the main game at 8 o'clock, and Saturday night's preliminary starts at 8 o'clock, with the main game at 9 o'clock.

LEGION SPONSORS WINTER CARNIVAL

All southern Oregon people are invited to attend the big carnival of winter sports sponsored by the American Legion posts of northern California which is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, February 11 and 12. The carnival will be held at Snowman Hill, which is only a few miles north of Mount Shasta City and is easily reached via the Pacific highway and the McCloud road. An attractive program of ski races and jumps, tobogganing and snow sports for old and young has been arranged and some worthwhile prizes will be awarded the winners of the main events.

An indoor carnival and dance will be held Saturday night at the Wood Hippodrome with the Point Barrow Trading Post as one of the feature attractions. Music will be furnished by a popular eight-piece dance band and there will be fun and entertainment for all. Special rates will be offered on the S. P. railroad and the Greyhound stage lines.

The following Legion posts are combining to make this first annual Legion snow frolic a big success: Wood, McCloud, Dunsmuir and Mount Shasta.

MUSIC AND GOLF FEATURE SUNDAY ON LOCAL LINKS

Music while you play, if you can hear it, will be another feature of the opening blind golf handicap tournament to be held at the Rogue River Valley Golf course Sunday, weather permitting, starting about 9:30 or 10 o'clock.

The idea of the music, according to A. P. Johnson, chairman of the tournament committee, is to enable the golfer to time his swing to the slow rhythm of a mellow German waltz, or to the crash of a Sousa march. The march music might not be so hot on the green, Johnson said, but it should help the players to walk fast and speed up the game. What they will do when the waltzes are played will be their own business.

Hans are offered as prizes and there will be about one ham to every four players. Bogey will be 70 for members and 75 for non-members, and handicaps should be set which would bring the net score closest to the bogey.

Johnson urged all golfers to dig out the old clubs and fix up a foursome early. About 40 out-of-town guests are expected.

SECONDARY QUINTS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Secondary high schools of the valley play another round of their schedule tonight, with Central Point playing Jacksonville, Gold Hill playing Phoenix, and Rogue River playing Talent.

Phoenix leads the league so far, with five wins and no defeats. Central Point runs a close second with four wins and one defeat, and that to Phoenix. The big battle of the second half of the tourney will be when Phoenix and Central Point meet again February 24.

FAIR HIGH JUMPER TO STAY ON EARTH

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Jean Shiley, holder of the world high jump record for women, and Olympic and national indoor champion, will not defend her United States title this year, and may never compete as an amateur again.

She announced that she had notified the A. A. U. last night of her intention not to enter the national indoor meet in New York February 25, and added that after her graduation from Temple university she intends following the profession of physical education.

This latter may place her in the professional category.

NORMAL INVADES CHICO FOR TWO WEEK-END TILTS

(By Billy Hulen.)

Variety and frosh basketball squads of the Southern Oregon Normal school and Coach Howard Hobson left Ashland Thursday for Chico, Cal., where they will clash with Chico State Teachers' college in double-headers, Friday and Saturday nights.

Fresh from their two top-sided victories over the Klamath Falls tournament team, Hobson and his variety squad hit the southern trail with high hopes of taking both tilts from the powerful Californians, who at present are putting up a stirring battle for the leadership in the far west conference.

Last year at Ashland, Chico State romped to two victories over the Sons, 33-14 and 38-34, and Hobson's men are especially anxious to even the count.

The Sons will return to Ashland Sunday to begin preparations for Bay Brooks and his Multnomah club's two-game invasion of southern Oregon, February 17 and 18.

Variety men making the trip are: Len Yandle, Willard Jones, Wardlow Howell, Bud Jones, Dick Jockish, Lyle Reeder, Elton Fornercock and Chuck Patterson.

The frosh team includes: Flah, Elliott, Hartman, Broughton, Wagner, White and Stevens.

ASHLAND TO PLAY KLAMATH TWICE

CARNERA FACES SCHAAF TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Primo Carnera will be summoned before a court of fistic justice tonight to show cause why he should be given a chance at Jack Sharkey's heavyweight championship in June.

The ponderous Italian has been promised a "shot" at the title if he can overcome Ernie Schaaf, Sharkey's personal "trial horse," in their 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Schaaf has been promised nothing but his share in the receipts. The big Boston blond is in an extremely unfortunate position so far as any title chance is concerned. His contract is owned jointly by Sharkey and Johnny Buckley and the fight fans, long suffering though they have been, hardly would stand for a match between Sharkey and Schaaf.

ALBANY, Ore., Feb. 10.—(AP)—In a hotly contested basketball game, Albany college defeated Pacific Lutheran college, Tacoma, 35 to 27, here last night.

GRID SACHEMS PONDER NEEDED RULE CHANGES

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The wise men of football gather today to determine what changes, if any, are necessary in the code of the gridiron.

The intercollegiate rules committee, under the chairmanship of its new head, Walter Oakeson, Lehigh university, who succeeded to the chair at the death of E. K. Hall, opens its annual three-day session to consider proposals for alterations in the code.

Some proposals already have been submitted by advisory bodies, and some, originating with the committee, will be discussed, but it is improbable that any drastic changes in the code will be made.

However, alterations to further protect the thousands of players undoubtedly will occupy much of the committee's time.

It is expected that the question of zoning on the dead ball rule will be taken up. Suggestions have been made to amend the law, placed in effect a year ago, which declares the ball dead when any part of the ball-carrier's body except his hands or feet touches the ground.

Those proposing a change suggest that this rule should not apply in certain zones on the field.

CAST NEAR PERFECT IN AMERICAN LEGION COMEDY PRODUCTION

Rehearsals of the American Legion play to be presented here Wednesday and Thursday of next week are nearing completion and a finished product awaits southern Oregon theater-goers. Robert Lorraine, director and actor, announced this morning.

The comedy is rounding out in grand style with members of the local cast as interpreters. Mr. Lorraine stated today, and the southern Oregon public is promised two evenings of relaxation, spiced with much hilarity and a pleasing love note. The local cast has shown unusual ability in the acting game, the old-timer of the stage world stated, and he is mighty proud of the production.

The comedy is scheduled for next week. He offers, with no apologies to the most critical "Jim's Girl," Wednesday and Thursday, February 15 and 16, at the Craterian theater.

Karasick Pins Sepp With Crab

PENDELTON, Ore., Feb. 10.—(A)—Al Karasick, Russian wrestler, defeated August Sepp of Seattle for the main event match here last night. Sepp was unable to return after the fifth round after Karasick disabled him with a crab hold. Sepp took the first fall in the third round. They are heavyweights.

La Grande Normal Evens Idaho Count

LEWISTON, Idaho, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Out for revenge, the teachers from La Grande Normal piled up a 42 to 19 lead in the first half of their second game with Lewiston Normal last night and noosed out a 53 to 51 victory to even the slate, after taking a 62 to 46 beating Wednesday night.

Bachman Hinted Michigan Coach

EAST LANSING, Mich., Feb. 10.—(AP)—The Michigan State News, student publication, predicted today that Charles Bachman, former University of Florida coach, will be recommended for the head coaching position at Michigan State College by the athletic council.

STOP!

CONSIDER the PRICES of things in 1929 - 1930 1931 and 1932

at TODAY'S PRICES, then BUY!!!

THAT "Prices Are Rising" is a fact backed by stock shortages all along the line from retailer to manufacturer. And there is a shortage of "supplies" in most homes as well. Operating on a limited budget people have used the old things until they simply can't be used any more.

If the things you and your family use are giving out, if your reserve supplies are running low, now is the time to stock-up . . . now, before the rising market catches you napping and you are forced to pay far more for things you simply must have. Medford shops have never shown more attractive merchandise—and have never offered greater values!

And here is another tip: you'll find that the best way to obtain full advantage of today's prices is to watch carefully the ads that appear in the Mail Tribune. Buy now before rising prices take from your dollar its present value and use the Tribune as your buying guide.
