

INSULL RE-ARRESTED IN TORONTO

Martin J. Insull, former utilities operator wanted on embezzlement and larceny charges in Chicago, was technically re-arrested in Toronto and extradition proceedings against him were placed under jurisdiction of the Ontario supreme court. Insull, shown (center) leaving court with attorneys, was freed on $55,000 bail after a new charge, theft by bailee, had been placed against him. (Associated Press Photo)

Basket-Minded

A disposition to blaze away at the basket whenever opportunity offers, coupled with a good eye, has put Frank Froeschauer of Lincoln, Ill., Illinois sophomore, in the front rank of Big Ten scorers. (Associated Press Photo)

OHIO FARMERS BLOCK SALE OF CHATTELS

Sheriff Bruce Pratt (hand upraised) of Wood county, Ohio, is shown as he calmed a crowd of farmers near Bowling Green after they had blocked the sale of chattels on the farm of Wallace Kramp. A loan company manager who attempted to have an auction sale was forced to leave. (Associated Press Photo)

GEORGIAN IS SENATE'S NEW 'BABY'

Robert La Follette of Wisconsin hands over the distinction of being the baby member of the senate to Richard B. Russell, Jr. (right), Georgia's new senator. Russell enters national politics at the age of 35 after completing a term as governor of Georgia. La Follette, who entered the senate at 31, will be 38 in February. (Associated Press Photo)

HE HANDS SUBPOENA TO FORD

Wilfrid C. Leland Jr. (left) slipped into an old-fashioned dance to serve Henry Ford with a subpoena in an attempt to bring Ford to court as witness in a law suit. With young Leland are his father, Wilfrid C. Leland sr. and Harriet Owen, a stenographer. (Associated Press Photo)

BASEBALLERS WORK OUT WINTER KINKS

With spring training time rapidly approaching, baseball stars are indulging in preliminary muscle loosening on their own. George Earnshaw (left), Philadelphia Athletics hurler, goes in for golf at Agua Caliente, Mexico. Freddy Lindstrom (center) of the Pittsburgh Pirates gets the squeak out of his joints in a Chicago gymnasium. In San Francisco Manager Lew Fonseca of the Chicago White Sox and Manager Joe Cronin of the Washington Senators find fun and exercise in indoor baseball. Cronin is holding the club and Fonseca is back stop. (Associated Press Photos)

BABE RUTH 'SHARES A MEAL'

In Beauty Contest

Jane Berry of Celina, O., was chosen to represent Ohio State university in a Big Ten beauty contest to be held at Northwestern university in February. (Associated Press Photo)

Babe Ruth, Yankees' slugger and idol of American youth, is shown lending a thrill to one of his young admirers at a "share-a-meal" club dinner in New York. The movement, backed by boy and girl clubs, seeks to raise money with which to buy food for hungry New York children. (Associated Press Photo)

SHE SEEKS SKATING CHAMPIONSHIP

Rose Marie Brady of Detroit, holder of the Michigan state 440-yard indoor skating record, was considered one of the outstanding entrants for the national skating speed championship to be held at Oconomowoc, Wis. (Associated Press Photo)

WRECKING NEW BUILDING COSTS GOVERNMENT $50,000

Scarcely had the new agriculture department building been completed in Washington before parts of it were torn down. This was done, it developed, because congress had appropriated money to make the new building larger. The partial wrecking cost $50,000. (Associated Press Photo)

THE REFEREES LOST THIS FIGHT!

When the democratic and republican pages of the house of representatives and senate took advantage of Washington's heavy snow to stage a battle, they asked Representatives McClintock of Oklahoma and Chase of Minnesota to serve as referees. Result: the referees were hit by most of the snowballs. (Associated Press Photo)

Answers Critics

W. R. Ronald, editor of Mitchell, S. D., advocate of the voluntary domestic allotment plan for farm relief, in an answer to criticisms of the measure said he favored placing responsibility for obtaining prescribed acreage reductions with the states. (Associated Press Photo)

ELECTRICAL GROWN STRAWBERRIES

Lillianne Ihara petite Japanese miss of Anaheim, Cal., displays strawberries which defied the recent freak snow storm. Berry growers of Orange county have learned they can harvest crops late into winter months by heating the soil by means of insulated wires buried between the plants. (Associated Press Photo)

Held For Forgery

Lucien Benedict was arrested in Minneapolis on charges of forgery. Police alleged he had left a trail of bad checks from Seattle to Troy, N. Y. (Associated Press Photo)

NEW COACH OPENS TRACK PRACTICE

Brutus Hamilton, Golden Bear track and field mentor, formerly of Kansas university, starts three University of California runners on their way at the opening of training in Berkeley. The men are (left to right) Dave Muir, sprints; Jim Van Loben Sells, 440, and Bob Raftery, mile. (Associated Press Photo)

WHEN 22 WERE SAVED IN MID-OCEAN RESCUE

This unusual picture, taken in mid-ocean from the ship "American Merchant," shows a lifeboat leaving the British ship "Exeter City" with some of the 22 members of the crew who were saved after the "Exeter City" was water-logged from effects of a hard storm in the north Atlantic. (Associated Press Photo)