Daughters, Nile Bring Festivity To Social Realm

The outstanding social event of the past week was brought to Medford by Daughters of the Nile, who held ceremonial and installation of Zulema temple here Wednesday.

Following the ceremonial Wednesday a banquet was held at the Hotel Medford, attended by one hundred seventy-five guests.

In the evening, at each officer entered the Masonic hall, she was presented a colonial bouquet, a gift from the incoming queen, who also carried a colonial bouquet during the impressive ceremony, adding a quaint and lovely touch to the affair.

The supreme queen was presented by Mrs. Nellie McGowan as installing grand marshal, Mrs. Mary Sweeney as installing grand chaplain, Miss Dorothy Reynolds as installing organist.

Officers installed in addition to the queen, Mrs. Boggs, were: Princess, Lulu Franco, Ashland; Treasurer, Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Grants Pass; and Bodour, Mrs. Katherine Woods of Medford.

Members of Hillah temple of the Shrine were in attendance and Potentate Albert Cass of Grants Pass invited to participate in the ceremonies and entertained with a song.

The business meeting was followed by a very interesting program prepared by Mrs. C. C. Murray, program chairman.

Each member gave a current topic. Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames I. W. Thomas, R. E. Swan, Joe Thomas and Miss Mollie Myers of Los Angeles.

The tea table was beautiful, Mrs. G. O. Dahl and Mrs. Laura M. West poured.

Thursday a luncheon honoring the supreme queen was held at the hotel, followed by cards at the home of Mrs. Boggs, where there were four tables in play.

Friday a luncheon was held at the hotel, followed by cards at the home of Mrs. Boggs, where there were four tables in play.

Splendid Program Presented Before College Women

The Rogue River Valley College Women's club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gore and enjoyed a delightful musical program.

The following numbers were presented: Piano numbers—Dance American by Dint Mowrey; Brahms Waltz No. 18, played by Ray Lewis.

Trios—piano, flute and violin: "I Would that My Love" Mendelssohn "Song of India"

Serenade by Gaudinore. Played by Mrs. H. T. Mitchellmore, Mrs. Bertha Denton, Miss Floy Young.

Volume eleven of the Collegian, contributions by club members, edited by Mrs. Charles Wing and Mrs. Susan Campbell, was presented.

The reading articles were on technocracy, the twelve leading women of the past one hundred years. Poems by Lucille Ames, illustrated by Miss Jane Snedeker, were also a splendid feature in the issue.

Following the program, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, assisted by Mrs. W. F. Campbell, Mrs. Fred Cummings, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Robert Frame and Miss Dorothy Carless, served refreshments.

Mesdames Fry and Satchwell Invite Dixie Club to Tea

On February 4th, Mrs. G. R. Satchwell and Mrs. Chas. Fry were hostesses to the Dixie club at the beautiful home of Mrs. Satchwell on Ashland avenue.

The business meeting was followed by a very interesting program prepared by Mrs. C. C. Murray, program chairman.

Mrs. Rose Schiefelbin reviewed the book "The Master Kiss," by Bachelor. She brought out many facts concerning the life and character of Washington, and events of Revolutionary days.

Each member gave a current topic. Guests for the afternoon were Mesdames I. W. Thomas, R. E. Swan, Joe Thomas and Miss Mollie Myers of Los Angeles.

The tea table was beautiful, Mrs. G. O. Dahl and Mrs. Laura M. West poured.

Medical Auxiliary Meets, Sleeter Home

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Jackson County Medical society met at the home of Mrs. R. W. Sleeter Friday, where they enjoyed a covered dish luncheon.

Election of officers for the coming year was held, Mrs. Ernest A. Woods of Ashland being re-elected president. Mrs. R. W. Stearna, vice-president and Mrs. C. J. Drummond as secretary.

Following a general discussion of plans for the coming year, Mrs. Drummond entertained the ladies with two beautiful violin solos and a statistical report of much interest to the medical world was read by Mrs. MacCracken of Ashland.

Mrs. Sleeter and Mrs. L. D. Inskeep composed the program committee.

Elks' Valentine Dance Looms on Social Horizon

Many society folk will dance with their "valentines" next Tuesday evening at the Elks' Temple, where the coming holiday, when all are expected to show their hearts and declare their love, will be celebrated with a party for Elks, their families and friends. Elks and Lady Elks are making extensive preparations for a very joyous party, and quaint decorations appropriate to the day of romance will be much in evidence.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Reginald Piter's orchestra and a large crowd is anticipated for this first large affair of the near spring season. There will be prizes for the best dancers and numerous other interesting features.

Mrs. Larry Schade is chairman of the affair and is being assisted by Mrs. Chas. Gilbert, Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mrs. Bob Strang and Mrs. Cole Holmes. On the men's committee are Bob Strang, Chas. Gilbert and Grover Corum.
