WHY BANKS HATES CODDING BARED IN RECORD OF COURT

MERELY OUT OF COURTESY, called me regarding the release of Bates. Naturally I had no objection, my only thought being that a serious situation on Footh creek should be avoided if possible, and I did not want to keep an old man in jail at county expense, if anything else could be done. Bates was released, and at about the same time, leased or sold the property on Footh creek to A. A. Banks and Dr. Swenderson of Ashland. These purchasers required that Bates leave Footh creek and remain away, as is shown by the records in the county clerk's office.

At a later date the grand jury of Jackson county indicted Bates on the charge filed in Judge Reed's court. The statements of Banks that the district attorney banished Bates from this county are malicious falsehoods, as can be easily shown by the records of the court.

Why Banks Hated. Many times I have been asked this question, "Why does Banks hate you, Coddling?" The answer will be found in volume 130 of the Oregon State Case Court Report, page 612. A case entitled Frank Zuccola vs. Suncrest Orchards, Inc. I forced Banks to pay an honest debt to a poor farmer.

It was that case the supreme court said Banks' testimony was "far from convincing."

By RITA FERRIS Associated Press Fashion Editor PARIS—(AP)—"A little touch of white" is the fashion world's latest offering to give a springtime note to dark winter wardrobes. Dark wool morning frocks and ensembles, afternoon clothes and evening gowns alike are lightened by a bit of white which varies all the way from washable plaques to costly ermine. Old-fashioned Irish crochet collars and cuffs, white silk vests and white angora scarfs are other offerings.

Black and dark blue are the favorite backgrounds for these white touches, since they offer greater possibilities of contrast, although white and gray often are accented in the same manner.

Mrs. Delroy Getchell was winner yesterday in the Washington's investment tournament, played by women golfers at the Rogue River valley course, being two inches from the cup on number 9 at the close.

Schools Dismissed To Observe Holiday. Medford schools were dismissed at noon today for observance of the birthday of George Washington. As a special feature of the afternoon the high school is putting on a matinee presentation of the opera "Pinafore," which will be presented for the pleasure of the public Friday night.

Sylvia Sidney Star Craterian Wednesday. "Madame Butterfly," one of the most measured romances of all time now done into a motion picture, comes to the Craterian theater Wednesday, with a cast headed by Sylvia Sidney, Grant, Charlie Ruggles, Irving Pichel and Helen Jerome Eddy. Miss Sidney, playing the title role—a high-born Japanese girl—makes her appearance in an entirely new type of characterization. Eyebrows and eyes alighted, hair lacquered, her steps mincing, draped from head to foot in colorful oriental robes, she is anything but the American girl of "City Streets." "An American Tragedy," "The Miracle Man," "Merrily We Go to Hell," or other of her recent screen successes.

LIONS' RESOLUTION PLEDGES SUPPORT COUNTY OFFICIALS

Resolutions were passed by the Lions club at regular luncheon yesterday at the Hotel Holland, pledging support to Circuit Judge Harry D. Norton, District Attorney Coddling, County Clerk Carter and County Commissioners Nealon and Billings and promising to aid and support the grand jury to the best of its ability. The first resolution dealing with support of the officers states that the men named have been "unjustly and wrongfully accused and condemned, when they have conscientiously conducted their work and offices to which they have been elected. We further condemn all persons who, in any manner, attempt to hinder any officer in the discharge of his duty, and all persons who, in any manner, resist or hinder the proper enforcement of our laws, and pledge our support and aid to the officers to the end that all laws are properly enforced." The first resolution further states: "The second asks that 'the grand jury fee be called upon said Lions club for any aid it may legally and properly give to the grand jury.' The resolutions were passed by unanimous vote of the club. Guests at yesterday's meeting were Mr. Gritsch of the Oregon-California Fast Truck lines, and Clay Witham.

Berlin Dance Critics Severe; So Brooklyn Girl Goes There

BERLIN (AP)—Chama Kubert of Brooklyn, N. Y., has come to Berlin to dance before critics known throughout the artistic world as among the severest to be found. "I was perfectly aware what I was up against when, under the auspices of the American Women's club of Berlin, I made my European debut in the German capital," Miss Kubert says. "But that's just what tempted me to come from America. In no other city of the world are the critics and the public as outspoken as here. I'm naturally happy that I was well received the first time. "Berlin critics and Berlin audiences are very positive," Miss Kubert says. "Either they approve of you or they denounce you. There's no middle-of-the-road attitude. Even a world-famed artist such as Mary Wigman is irreverently pounced upon by a critic if he doesn't like her interpretation. "I find the Berlin atmosphere most exhilarating to an artist. Everybody is tremendously in earnest about his art, and everybody who goes in for art professionally aims only at the very highest pinnacles. "I intend to stay a few months more, giving programs in various German cities, and then return to America to show what the stay abroad has done for me."

Severe criticism of her dancing holds no terrors for Chama Kubert of Brooklyn, N. Y. She is in Berlin giving exhibitions before some of the world's most outspoken critics.

FARM LEASE BILL WOULD CURB CROP

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22—(AP)—The Hoover administration bill for leasing of agricultural lands to get them out of production as a farm relief step was introduced today by Senator Carey (R., Wyo.). It provides for leasing up to a maximum of 50,000,000 acres, and would authorize $150,000,000 to carry it into effect. The secretary of agriculture would be in charge. The government would be repaid through a tax on the commodities made from crops formerly produced on the land.

(Continued from Page One) public the name of the men held for questioning. Suspicious Actions. A number of local residents, who stood outside the Good Government Congress meeting in the auditorium Monday night, reported suspicious circumstances they noted at the rear of the courthouse that night. There was a smaller crowd outside on the lawn than usual. Several residents reported that it was chilly and they walked back and forth to the southwest corner of the courthouse, where three men stood, as if on guard. One was identified, but was struggling to report the other two were strangers. This might have been a coincidence, and have no significance. One citizen reported, that while standing at one of the windows, he noticed "a man going on back of the courthouse, I thought they had a bottle hidden." He did not investigate. He also reported that "he had a feeling I was under guard."

News that the ballots had been stolen and destroyed, was getting close surveillance. They refused to divulge the name of the missing man, sought for questioning, but believe he is in northern California. The officials working on the case were exceedingly close-mouthed on developments to date.

Complete Sheriff Schermerhorn said today, "that the robbery was a friends surprise to him, and placed him in a bad light." The same source hinted that the theft and destruction of the ballots had a deeper significance than the mere halting of the recount in the sheriff contest. The sheriff's office is also working on the case.
