

ADEQUATE DIET WITH LOW COST IS CLASS ITEM

As the girls in the foods classes in the Medford high school acquire a knowledge of cooking, they also learn to balance the meals for the day and to feed a family nourishing food at a minimum cost.

- Vegetables—Tomatoes, No. 2 can, 5 cans. Leafy vegetables, cabbage, greens, 5 pounds. Potatoes, 20 pounds. Other vegetables, carrots, onions, etc., 11 pounds.

In communities where potatoes are easily obtained, the allowance may be increased and the amount of other vegetables (except tomatoes and leafy vegetables) reduced slightly.

- Corn Chowder. (Five generous servings, 16c.) 1 quart of diced raw potatoes 2 cups boiling water 4 tablespoons diced salt pork 3 cups canned corn 1 onion, chopped 2 cups of milk 1/4 teaspoon salt

- Lamb Stew With Dumplings. (Five servings, cost 14c.) 1/4 pound lamb shoulder 1/4 cup flour Salt Pepper 8 potatoes 3 carrots 1 onion

Wipe meat and cut in small pieces; sprinkle with flour, salt and pepper; fry out some of the fat in a frying pan with water so that all may be saved and add to the meat; boil for a few minutes and then cook slowly until meat is tender; add carrots and onions to the stew the last half-hour cooking and the potatoes the last 20 minutes before serving.

and her Cuban maid and a porter were present.

Mrs. Walsh was described as hysterical by Conductor Weathersee, who said he reached the senator's side at 7:02.

"The senator died while I held his hand," Weathersee said. "Mrs. Walsh was hysterical. Dr. Richard J. Costello was located on the train, but he arrived after the senator died."

Mrs. Walsh, who speaks little English, told Weathersee her husband awakened about 6:30 a. m. and that he was "doubled up" in pain. She said she found Senator Walsh holding his stomach with his hands.

Collapsed on Berth. The senator rose from his berth in his drawing-room and crossed over to his wife's berth and there collapsed, face down, Mrs. Walsh said.

A negro porter was called and he raced seven cars away to find Weathersee, whom he told the senator appeared to be dying.
