MEDFORD, PHOENIX CLASH IN CAGE CLIMAX TONIGHT

TOURNAMENT TRIP IS COVETED PRIZE FOR WINNING FIVE

Rural Division Champions Expect to Give Tigers Tough Battle — Burgher Boys in Form for Game

"A fairly close game" is the prediction for tonight at the Senior high school, when Phoenix high's five meets the Tigers of Medford high school for the district championship, and the right to participate in the state basketball tuornament next week at Salem.

Coach Darwin K. Burgher of the locals said today that nothing could be predicted about the way the score might go, as Phoenix of the rural division surprised more than one person by the overwhelming defeat presented Butte Falls high school.

Phoenix Rural Champs.

The secondary schools were divided into two groups and Butte Falls and Phoenix, champions of those divisions, met and the latter was victorious, 39 to 21.

"My boys are anticipating a big battle with the Tigers tonight," G. P. Campbell, Phoenix coach, said today. As the Phoenicians have not been defeated in a conference game this season, they expect to keep the victories pointing in their direction.

A second game between Medford and Phoenix will be played Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, in Phoenix. The preliminary, according to Coach Campbell, has been arranged between the Ashland Junior high school team and the Phoenix second team, to start at 7 o'clock. The latter group has not been defeated this season.

Preliminary at 7 p. m.

Tonight's main game has been scheduled for 8 o'clock, with Ivan Harrington as referee. The preliminary will be a fast-shooting contest between Medford's second string, the Tiger Cubs, and the Central Point high school team. Seven o'clock has been set as the time for the preliminary game.

The starting lineup for the championship game tonight follows:

Medford—		Phoenix—
Lloyd Hammock	F	Ritchie
Tommy White	F	Glover
Wayne Harris	C	C. Higginbotham
Russell Brown	G	Swindle
Maurice Scheel	G	W. Higginbotham

BABE WOULD QUIT BEFORE TAKING CUT

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 7.—(AP)—Babe Ruth says he would prefer retirement to a $50,000 salary for the 1933 season but he believes his financial disagreement with the New York Yankees management can be settled "without a lot of trouble."

"Financial conditions throughout the country have not changed my mind in anyway regarding my 1933 contract," he said here last night. "I believe I am worth more to the Yankees than $50,000 and I will retire from baseball before signing a contract that calls for this amount."

In the same breath, however, the homerun expert added he would report for practice with the balance of the Yankee squad Wednesday.

McNary and Fess Senate Leaders

WASHINGTON, March 7. — (AP) — Senate Republicans in caucus today agreed upon Senator McNary of Oregon as leader and Senator Fess of Ohio as his assistant. Senator Reed (R., Pa.) failed to go through with his motion to discipline Republican independents for supporting Roosevelt in the last election.

WRESTLER TAKES SWING AT REFEREE DEMPSEY

OMAHA, Neb., Mar 7.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey received a little first-hand knowledge of wrestling and its refined points when he climbed into a local ring to referee the bout between Ray Richards, former Nebraska football star, and Jack Vincent of Oklahoma City, last night.

All went well during the first fall—won by Vincent—but the pot began to boil when Richards won the second fall with a right uppercut.

Jack warned Ray that this was wrestling, not boxing, and ordered the men to refrain from such tactics in the third fall. For nine minutes his warning was heeded. Then Richards let loose another uppercut and Vincent promptly lost interest in the proceedings.

Dempsey immediately disqualified Richards, who lunged at Dempsey. With bost fists flying, Ray moved in while Jack slipped into a defensive shift and endeavored to pin Richards' arms to his sides.

After absorbing a thump or two on the chest and arms, Dempsey pushed Richards into a corner, spoke soothingly in his ears and started across the ring. Richards, apparently mollified, stood stil' for a few seconds, then plunged across the ring in a wild charge, striking Dempsey amidships.

Others in the ring restored order before another demonstration could occur.

TROJANS ENROUTE TONIGHT TO MEET O.S.C. BASKETEERS

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 7.—(AP)—University of Southern California's basketball team, southern division champions, will leave tonight for Corvallis, Ore., to meet the Oregon State quintet this week-end in the Pacific Coast conference title series of games.

Coach Justin (Sam) Berry plans to take the 13 players who have made every trip this season. The starting team probably will be Lee Guttero, center; Jerry Nemer and Sax Elliott, forwards; Julius Bescos and Joe Kelly, guards.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Mar. 7. — (AP) — The Orangemen of Oregon State, whose brand of basketball was good enough to earn them the northern division championship, enthusiastically renewed their efforts to polish their play today in the hope that their games here Friday and Saturday with University of Southern California will bring them the Pacific Coast conference title.

Coach Slats Gill is concentrating the practice on a defense and offense that he believes will work best against the Trojan style of play.

The men from the south will have the weight advantage, it appears, but the Orangemen will enjoy some slight advantage in height. Captain Ed Lewis, who this season established a new scoring record for the northern division with 173 points, is 6 feet 5, an advantage of three inches over Lee Guttero, Trojan center.

Corvallis Wins Place In Tourney

INDEPENDENCE, March 7.—(AP)—The Corvallis high basketball team joined the list of state tournament entrants here last night with a 16 to 14 overtime victory from Dallas high in a playoff game. In the regular district 11 tournament Corvallis won from Dallas 27 to 23 in the first game, but lost 23 to 10 in the second encounter. The playoff tilt ended 13 to 13 after a splendid exhibition of guarding by both teams.

HOLDOUTS MAKE OUTFIELD GRIEF FOR OAKS' CHIEF

New Manager in Tough Spot As Uhalt and Mailho Delay Signing — Old Dutch Ruether On Firing Squad

By RUSSELL NEWLAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 7.—(AP)—The new manager of the Oakland baseball club — Ray Brubaker — is in as tough a spot as the dude cowboy who made a bad landing in a cactus bed.

The new Oaks pilot faces grief in the outfield. French Uhalt, center fielder, and Emil Mailho, right fielder, are holdouts. Uhalt may be traded. He prefers to play for some other club. Mailho has little reason to be a holdout. He had an ordinary season in 1932 and is far from being a star.

Scott Temperamental.

Otherwise in the outfield, the Oaks may have Pete Scott, highly temperamental; George Ackerman, form St. Mary's football player, and George Kelly, former big league star. Scott is a good hitter and above average in the field, when in the mood. Ackerman clouted the ball in the Arizona league last season and is considered ready for class AA duty. Kelly also will do utility work at first base, the position where he earned his fame.

Willie Ludolph will head the pitching staff. He was one of the most effective in the league last year. Roy Joiner, young lefthander, did fairly well his first year. "Dutch" Ruether, veteran of many campaigns, has been added and his southpaw flinging is expected to help considerably.

Bill Phebus Wild.

Bill Phebus, stock righthander, has plenty of speed, but his aim is bad. Lou McEvoy, picked up as a free agent, won 22 games for the Oaks three years ago when he was out on option from the Yankees. Beryl Horne, frail righthander, comes from the American association. Al Read, former University of California righthander, is getting his first trial in organized baseball. He is said to rival Walter Mails in the matter of "color." Manager Brubaker prefers pitching results.

Veltman May Prove Find.

The Oaks may have hit the bullseye in signing Art Veltman, free agent catcher formerly with the New York Giants. He is an all-around man, having started as an outfielder.

Leroy Anton has first base position in his pocket. He is a good hitter and fair fielder. Leo Kintana, young second sacker, rates as a fielder but is weak at the plate. Meyer Chosen, shortstop obtained from Portland in exchange for Outfielder George Blackerby, is expected to fill the bill. Heine Gloister is out for the third base job vacated by Ralph Pinelli, who has turned umpire. Gloister needs experience.

HEIBERT PINIONS JENSEN FOR BELT

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 7. — (AP) — Logger Heibert, 159 pounds, St. Helens, Ore., defeated Thor Jensen, Elkton, Ore., farmer, two out of three falls here last night. With the victory went the middleweight belt offered by Promoter Herb Owen. Referee Harry Elliott, Eugene, again went out of the picture momentarily from a blow on the chin by Jensen in a wild mixup in which Heiber was shoved from the ring during the final scramble.

Jensen took the first fall on a leg hammerlock, a new hold, in 10:48; Heibert the second with a body slam, in 6:01. The final fall lasted 3:45.

Joe Reno won the odd fall over Bunnie Martin in the semi-windup, and Herb Berguson took the opener from Jess McCann on a foul after each had scored a fall.
