ROOSEVELT BOOK PLEADS CAUSE OF PRIVATE PROPERTY

Volume to Be Published March 16 Says Individual Should Have Full Liberty of Action and Protection

NEW YORK, March 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, in his book "Looking Forward," says "I do not believe that in the name of the sacred word, individualism, a few powerful interests should be permitted to make industrial cannon fodder of the lives of half the population of the United States.'

"I believe that the individual should have full liberty of action to make the most of himself," he adds in the volume that will be published March 16.

Private Property Sacred.

"I believe in the sacredness of private property, which means that I do not believe that it should be subjected to the ruthless manipulation of professional gamblers in the stock market and in the corporate system.

"I share the general complaint against regimentation; I dislike it not only when it is carried out by an informal group amounting to an economic government of the United States, but also when it is done by the government of the United States itself.

Government Can Protect.

"I believe that the government, without becoming a prying bureaucracy, can act as a check or counterbalance of this oligarchy so as to secure initiative, life, a chance to work, and the safety of savings to men and women, rather than safety of exploitation to the exploiter, safety to manipulation to the financial manipulator, safety of unlicensed powers to those who would speculate to the bitter end with the welfare and the property of other people.

"A mere builder of more industrial plants, a creator of more railroad systems, an organizer of more corporations, is as likely to be a danger as a help. The day of the great promoter or financial titan, to whom we granted evehything if only he would build to develop, is over."

GOLD HOARDERS WILL BE LISTED
