

BANKS' FOLLOWERS MISLED ON RELIEF JOBLESS ARE TOLD

Good Government Congress Has Done Nothing Toward Aid of Destitute, Goss Tells Court House Meeting

Launching a program to satisfy the immediate needs of the unemployed and to aid all persons wishing to withdraw from the so-called good-government congress in recovering their membership cards, the Jackson County Unemployed council met in the courthouse auditorium yesterday afternoon and took a definite stand against politicians standing between the unemployed and their "flour, beans, bacon, and occasional eggs."

He was referring to the promise of L. A. Banks that he would take the field in reversion unless justice is restored in Jackson county. Appeal Basis False. The appeal of the first demonstration, Goss stated, was based upon promises of relief and the claim that a county commissioner had refused to sign the $30,000 appropriation.

"Relief is the most important issue in the country. The man with the key to the commissary has the most powerful weapon in this country. The thing we must insist upon is that this power not be used against the people in need of food and relief. All unemployed measures were sidetracked in the good government congress for political measures of no consequence to the hungry worker and impoverished farmer," Goss declared, urging his followers not to be misled.

"I know that Norton and Coddling have nothing to do with relief in this county. Mr. Dahack is dead. He is not hungry and worrying about the depression. There are people living above ground worthy of consideration. If half the words written about Dahack were used in our behalf we would be greatly aided." Goss added, condemning the time devoted by the good government congress leaders to criticizing officers and rehashing the Dahack case.

"Twenty-five people have come to me today wanting to know how they could get their cards back. They asked the secretary for them and had not got them. We have appointed a committee to handle the situation." An announcement prepared for the press was then read by Mr. Goss.

Refused Platform. Turning again to the failure of the good government congress to let him speak on unemployment at the demonstration, Goss explained that he had asked Judge Fehl for time on the program and that the request had been made clear to Henrietta B. Martin, president, who nodded her head in assent. Interviewing Mrs. Martin after the meeting Goss said she gave as reason for closing the program without his speech, "I am president of the congress, not Judge Fehl."

"I realize that Earl H. Fehl is not president of the congress," Goss added yesterday, "but he is the chief drawing card. Without Fehl to support the thing it would collapse."

Banks' Plea Inopportune. Referring to Banks' call for aid in the recovery of $200,000 worth of property, claimed stolen from him through the courts, Goss stated "No unemployed worker or impoverished farmer has anything in common with anyone who has $200,000 worth of property to lose, be it Banks or anyone else."

He later declared, in closing, that if "all the arms raised upward during the past few months in passing resolutions had been drawn horizontally at the saw, we would have plenty of wood to keep us warm."

claimed, with the new national policy. One of these was the measure to legalize 3.2 per cent beer, and the other was the Hall resolution to repeal the prohibition amendments in the state constitution.

On the beer bill the vote was 15 for the adverse report and 14 against it as follows: For the report and against the bill—Booth, Burke, Chinnock, Dickson, Dunn, Harlett, Jones, Lee, Mann, Staples, Wheeler, Williamson, Woodward, Yates, Zimmerman.

Against the report and for the bill—Brown, Bynon, Corbett, Duncan, Dunne, Fisher, Franciscovich, Goss, Hess, McFadden, Spaulding, Strayer, Upton, Kiddle. Absent—Allen.

On the Hall resolution the vote was 17 for the adverse report and 12 against it. The senate bill providing for a special election on June 6 passed the senate last night. The vote was 17 for and 11 against. The purpose of the bill is to give the people opportunity to vote on various measures referred to them by the legislature. Among the principal measures referred are the sales tax and the measure providing for the election of delegates to a state convention to pass on ratification of repeal of the 18th Amendment.

COURTS TO GRIND AGAIN NEXT WEEK, PRESENT OUTLOOK

Resumption of normal procedure in the courts of Jackson county is expected next week, after a week of non-judicial days, during which only routine business was transacted.

The county court is scheduled to hold a session March 15. There have been no regular sessions this week. Bills were signed yesterday, however, and applications for aid and petitions filed.

The petit jury for the circuit court is expected to be called for next Monday, and the hearing of calendared cases, mostly civil, resumed. The circuit court recessed last Friday, with the completion of a trial started before the bank holiday was declared.

In Justice of the Peace William R. Coleman's court, a number of cases are pending, also arraignments and pleadings. These include the whip assault case against Henrietta B. Martin, president of the "Good Government Congress," her father, C. H. Brown, secretary of the organization, and two co-defendants, L. O. Van Wegen and L. E. Fitch. No definite date has been set for this case, though it is expected to be heard as soon as possible after the close of the bank holiday.

Brown also will be arraigned on a charge of "slandering a bank," as the result of an article published in the last issue of the Pacific Record-Herald, a weekly.

There are also several traffic violation and liquor violation cases pending in the justice court.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men Unless two pints of bile juice fall from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, distension, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, four-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

Hot don't take salts, mineral waters, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. fact that Congressman Black was a candidate for whip and the O'Connor-Cullen misunderstanding hurt his chances. Whenever anyone asked them about it, most members of the delegation whispered behind their hands: "There may be a secret ballot and no one will know how anyone votes." That suggested a little stiletto throwing might be expected.

Federal financial officials began to realize early in the week that these state bank holidays may not have been the best policy. They then believed it might be better to let the few weak banks fail. If runs developed on stronger banks they could be met. Runs could not last more than two or three days when the crisis would be over and confidence restored.

The holiday system obviously had affected the many good banks adversely for the protection of the few.

GEORGE TURNER, LONG A RESIDENT OF GOLD HILL, TAKEN BY DEATH

George Turner, old-time and very well known resident of southern Oregon and of Gold Hill, Ore., for the past 25 years, passed away at his home at that place, Thursday morning at 9:30, after a long illness. Mr. Turner was born at Rushville, Ohio, July 17, 1858. He was in business in Gold Hill for 23 years, grocery and confectionery, retiring two years ago on account of his age and health.

His parents, Robert and Mary Turner, were of the earliest pioneers of southeastern Nebraska, arriving there by ox-team from Ohio in 1854, naming the community at which they stopped Pleasant Valley. George Turner, their son, was 10 months of age at that time.

They had to do all of their trading at St. Joe, Mo., going there by ox-team. His grandfather, Christian Bobst, led the ox-team train from Ohio to Nebraska. Nebraska was at that time very sparsely settled, being mostly Indians.

Mr. Turner was united in marriage to Mary E. Turner in 1878, in Pawnee county, Nebraska. She passed away at Gold Hill in 1915. He was a member of the Methodist church, and of the Knights of Pythias since 1886.

He leaves one daughter, Olive M. Turner; two sons, Fred G. of Gold Hill and Frank B. of Long Beach, Cal. Funeral services under direction of the Peri Funeral Home, will be held at the I. O. O. F. hall at Gold Hill, Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Alexander G. Bennett of the Methodist church officiating. Interment in the Rock Point cemetery, Gold Hill, beside his deceased wife. Knights of Pythias will have charge of services at the graveside.
