

Local and Personal

Go to Salem—Mrs. Monnie Hauser, who has been in this district for the past several days, left this morning on the Shafts for Salem.

Journeys North—Miss Aileen Bryant left by train this forenoon for Eugene and Portland. She is from New York city.

Mrs. Cox Better—Mrs. H. D. Cox of Central Point, who is receiving treatment at a local hospital, was reported in an improved condition yesterday afternoon.

Guest of Workman—Mrs. O. E. Harkness of Portland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Workman at their home near Phoenix. Mrs. Harkness is Mrs. Workman's sister.

Lodge at 7:30—Pocahontas lodge will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock, as is customary. It was announced today. The gathering will be held in the Redman hall.

Mrs. French Hit—Mrs. A. L. French of Granite Pass is much improved, following a serious major operation at the Josephine hospital last Thursday. Her daughter, Mrs. Clyde White of Medford, is visiting with her.

Californians Visit Medford—James E. Lovejoy, one of the owners of the Sixtiety Nines of Yreka, Cal., was in Medford today, accompanied by Mrs. Lovejoy and her mother, Mrs. Frank Dumbphy.

Yesterday in Roseburg—Hugh B. Rankin, supervisor of Rogue River national forest, and Norman C. White, assistant supervisor, spent yesterday in Roseburg attending to business matters at the forest service office there.

Finds Butterfly—A golden butterfly was found this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Carey of the Eden precinct, according to Mrs. Carey, who telephoned the Mail Tribune. Mrs. Carey said the little butterfly substantiated the claims that spring is here, as she had pointed out in a poem she had written, which was published in the Mail Tribune a few days ago.

Stop Here—Listed among hotel guests stopping in Medford overnight were Harry M. Shadle of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rice of Oakland, Frank Cooper, A. J. McDanna and F. L. Hardisty of Eugene, Mrs. C. C. Williams of Marshfield, Clarence W. Reynolds of Corvallis, L. L. Low, R. H. Brown, T. B. Gillenwaters and J. H. Turnbull of Klamath Falls and C. B. Stead of San Francisco.

Card Party Friday—It was announced today by the Wenonah club that the regular monthly public card party will be held Friday evening in the Redman hall, for members and their friends. Pinocle, five hundred and bridge will be in play, starting at 8:30 o'clock. Refreshments are to be served by the committee, Bernice Sears and Evelyn Knudsen. A small charge will be made.

On Honor Roll—The name of Miss Elaine Brophy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Brophy, was eliminated from the honor roll released by Junior high school. It should have appeared on the 9A list. It was announced today.

Precipitation Light—Only .10 of an inch of rainfall was recorded at the Medford branch of the U. S. weather bureau between 5 a. m. and 5 p. m. yesterday. From 5 p. m. yesterday to 5 a. m. today, only a trace was recorded.

At the Hotels—Included among hotel guests are J. E. Spallista of Crescent City, Floyd Peterson and J. O. Pinkston of Coquille, P. B. Hawley of Oregon City, E. Anderson and A. B. Goodman of Portland, H. V. Schmalz and Tom Clark of Burns, Wm. J. Walsh of Salem, John P. Callahan of San Francisco and J. B. Carroll of Portland.

Colbert-Marsh Hit On Craterian Bill: Fine Show Sunday

"Tonight Is Ours" Claudette Colbert-Fredric March starring picture, which opened today at the Fox Craterian theater, and which will continue to run there through Saturday, is an adaptation of a play by Noel Coward, brilliant young English actor, author, composer and general jack-of-all-trades, who is best known to the movie public for his "Private Lives."

The film marks the first appearance of March on the screen since his winning of the award of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for the best performance of 1932.

Like other Coward works, "Tonight Is Ours" is an amusing and romantic tale of the lives of clever, intelligent people. Miss Colbert is cast as a young woman who has loosed aside the responsibilities of a kingdom for a fling at Paris, and March as a young Parisian who insists on sharing the fling with her.

Ronald Coleman in "Cyrano" opens at the Craterian Sunday, according to Manager Jim Carey.

YREKA SLAYER IS ALSO BANK BANDIT

VANCOUVER, B. C., Mar. 17.—(AP) A photograph of George Manning, under arrest at Yreka, Cal., on a murder charge, has been tentatively identified, police said today, as that of one of three bandits who staged a $2,700 bank robbery here in January. The bank robbed was a suburban branch of the Bank of Commerce.

23 INDICTED ON BALLOT THEFTS IS REVELATION

It became known today from authentic sources that 23 men were indicted by the grand jury for complicity in the brazen and bunglesome ballot theft.

Positively known as indicted were L. A. Banks, held for murder; County Judge E. H. Fehl, Sheriff Gordon L. Schermerhorn, Walter J. Jones, mayor of Rogue River and a FBI appointee as road supervisor; Charles W. Davis, whom Fehl endeavored to name for a county machine shop berth; T. L. Brecheen, Ashland Democratic ward worker, politically active since his arrival from California 18 months ago; R. C. Cummings of the Wimer district; Jean Connors, one of the "Greenspring Mountain Boys"; John Glenn, former county jailer, and two unnamed "courthouse boarders and roomers."

Some of those indicted are in hiding, endeavoring to arrange bonds before being taken into custody.

The authorities still refuse to make known any of the evidence presented to the grand jury, which returned the indictments in a short time. They reiterated their previous claim "it was airtight, and a cinch case."

The ballots left behind in the courthouse vault by the intruders will be investigated by the grand jury, in an effort to establish a basic motive. Officers contend that while the sheriff's account was desired, it was not the impelling motive. It is known that the account was a subject of conference as early as last December, and that Banks told intimates "the ballots must not see the light of day, or I might as well leave Jackson county for Ralph Jennings will be the sheriff."

The authorities also desire to establish definitely the "master minds" behind the ballot outrage.

Only 12 of the containers were left behind, including two from this city, and the Rogue River and Wimer ballots.

A survey of the official figures, taken from the poll books, shows that the total for county judge and sheriff exceeded the vote for other offices, including President, and that the vote in some of the precincts was "surprising." The results in some of the county precincts has been a source of wonder, since the final count was published.

Fair Driver Ahead Is Autoist's Alibi; Case Is Dismissed

CHICAGO, Mar. 17.—(AP)—The only defense Theodore Babeyon of 6577, Ind., had when arraigned for speeding was this: "I can't stand women drivers."

"And neither can I," added William Brumlick, assistant state's attorney.

Judge Samuel H. Trude expressed no official opinion in women drivers, but dismissed the case.

"There was a woman ahead of me," said Babeyon, "and it took me 16 blocks to pass her."

ST. MARY'S PLANS OBSERVANCE FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY

At St. Mary's Academy this evening the beloved Irish holiday will be observed in a pleasing and impressive manner through a program of music and plays. Each year the school arranges an elaborate celebration of the birthday of the beloved St. Patrick and all students and friends of the school are again today "wearing the green."

The little green tale, where the shamrocks grow, will be the inspiration of all decorations and features of entertainment this evening and the public is invited to come to the academy auditorium and surrender to the appeal of Irish song and laughter and a "bit of the blarney."

The complete program for the evening reads:

The Rainbow Klomna. Scene: Miss Penelope Wright's collegiate school for young ladies. Nellie van Tassel, Genevieve DeVaney, Ruth Ashton, Mary Dalair, Alice Marion, Helen McDougal, Isabel Sutter, LeVonne Corum, Beatrice Courtney, Martha DeSouza, Olive Mercer, Arlene Jensen, Winifred Turner, Edna Burkhardt, Edit Jones, Olivette Glnet, Rose Jackson, Louise Pankey, Piano "Valse Arabesque" Lack Elaine Brophy.

FITCH RECOVERING FROM BEATING UP

L. E. Fitch, prominent member of the Good Government Congress, whose comments on the local situation yesterday were allegedly silenced by several whacks on the head with a gun, was reported resting more easily today at the Sacred Heart hospital, where he will probably be confined for some time. Fitch received several bad cuts on the head but no permanent injuries. The attending physician stated this afternoon.

He was attacked when he obstructed the passage down West Main street of a Good Government Congress opponent, according to the story. The assailant, whose name has not been revealed to officials, when he stopped his passage in the reached for his gun and hammered street and called him names he did Fitch several times across the head, not like.
