'Sins Of Love' At Roxy Monday

The secrets of life will be explained in the first-run picture, 'Sins of Love,' which opens a three-day engagement at the Roxy theater Monday. It is reported that this picture broke every house record at the Roxy theater in Oakland, Calif., where it played for two weeks.
Mrs. Jardine McGree, an authority on sex, will speak to the women every afternoon and at the special business women's show Wednesday night from 6:30 to 8:30. Professor Howard Golden, sex philosopher, will talk to the men each evening.
The first 25 women in line for the Monday matinee will be admitted free.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—(AP)—Legislation to repeal the railroad re- capture clause and give the interstate commerce commission authority to regulate railroad holding companies was approved today by the house interstate commerce committee.
