

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon

Visitors, School Folk Keep Social Interests Alive

Much entertaining of the past week of an informal nature has been inspired by the presence here of Mrs. Margaret Biddle of Klamath county, sister of Mrs. Gordon Voorhies. Society has also been busy greeting Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Black, who have returned from a winter in San Francisco to their lodge on Rogue River, which will be the scene of much entertaining as spring advances.

School folk have also added interest to events and several from southern climes are now returning to the city to pick up the thread of events dropped this week-end by students of Oregon colleges.

Edward Reames arrived yesterday from Stanford university to spend the spring holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reames. Miss Gloria Getchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell, student at Castilleja, has cancelled her plans to holiday here and will be one of six girls continuing from school to a house party at the Randall home at Mount Herman.

Miss Dorothy Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberts is here for a short visit today en route to the University of Oregon from a trip south.

A meeting of the Colony club was among interesting events of the past week in that circle. Friday afternoon members gathered to hear a well prepared paper on "Foreign Relations," read by Mrs. J. F. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Tyler were hosts to a number of friends at dinner last evening at Lotus Grove. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Sprague Riegel and Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell and the hosts.

News has been received from the south that Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan have left their winter home at Pebble Beach and are now sojourning in San Francisco, en route to Medford.

Daughters of Nile Plan Benefit for Tuesday Afternoon

Another large benefit party takes its place on the social horizon. The Daughters of the Nile will entertain Tuesday at the Masonic hall with bridge playing to begin at 2 o'clock. Pivot auction and contract will be played and cards will be followed by tea.

All who enjoy an afternoon at cards are invited. The committee for the occasion is composed of Mrs. A. E. Beasley, Mrs. Reese Chapman, Mrs. W. E. Hiltson and Mrs. Jack Porter.

Miss Smythe, Bride Saturday Wedding

At a lovely ceremony yesterday morning at 130 Vancouver street, Miss Lois Smythe became the bride of William Byrum. The service was read by Judge W. R. Coleman. The bride was attired in an afternoon gown of peach chiffon with corsage of sweetpeas and white accessories. Her attendant, Miss Barbara McQuinn, wore lavender chiffon and corsage of spring blossoms. Charles Orr of Portland was best man for the groom. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Smythe.

Following a short stay in Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Byrum will return to this city to reside at 130 Vancouver.

Both are well known members of the local younger set, having attended school in this city, where they have since been employed. Mr. Byrum is with the Standard Oil company of California.

Mrs. Kenly Hostess To Health Board

Mrs. P. Corning Kenly was hostess Wednesday at luncheon to members of the executive board of the Jackson County Public Health association. Following luncheon a business meeting was held. Present were Mrs. J. C. E. Wells, Miss Mildred Carlton, Mrs. I. E. Schuler, Mrs. Alex Sparrow, Mrs. Charita Taylor of Central Point, Mrs. Wagner of Ashland, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mrs. R. E. Green and the hostess, Mrs. Kenly.

Mrs. Williams At Crescent City

Mrs. T. V. Williams is spending a short holiday at Crescent city with her father.

Students Add Interest To Local Entertaining

A gay addition to local events of the past week were students home from the University of Oregon and Oregon State College, who are returning northward today. Among them were Misses Beulah Gore, Mary Ender, Betty Evanson, Carvel Reames and Messrs. James Edmlston, Tom and Bob Emmens, Bob Sleeter and Bob Hammond.

Miss Dorothy Roberts, who spent the holiday with her sister, Miss Mary Lee Roberts at Mills college, is here for today visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts. Miss Mary Lee will spend the Easter vacation at Carnal.

Presbyterian Women Have Fine Meeting

A very instructive and entertaining meeting of the Women's association of the Presbyterian church was held last Tuesday with Mrs. N. C. Chaney as program leader, using as her subject, "Japan."

The devotionals were led by Mrs. Carl Brommer and Mrs. Hodgkins, entertained with a vocal solo, which was much enjoyed. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Simkins. The book review of "Mother" by a Japanese author, was given by Mrs. A. J. Hanby.

Tea was served following the program with Mrs. Haggerty, Mrs. E. Gould, Mrs. Dymon and Mrs. C. W. McDonald, acting as hostesses. There were 30 guests present.

Mrs. Archie Pierce

—Courtesy Oregonian.

The former Miss Helen Charlotte Carlton Pierce of this city was an important social event in Salem this spring. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are now en route to Hawaii on the S. S. Monterey and will spend their honeymoon in the islands, returning to Medford to make their home.

Greater Medford Club to Observe 30th Anniversary

The Greater Medford club will celebrate its anniversary at the next meeting to be held on April 3, 30th birthday of the organization. The program will consist of reminiscences of the past with chapter members as guests of honor.

Guests From Out Of Town Inspire Charming Party

Mrs. Harry Prentice and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel were hostesses Wednesday at a charming party honoring their respective house guests, Mrs. Wm. P. Harris and Mrs. C. H. Pheasant of Eugene.

There were four tables of bridge in play during the afternoon and prizes at cards awarded Mrs. R. W. Sleeter and Mrs. Pheasant.

Miss Powell Hostess Saturday Afternoon

Miss Beverly Powell was hostess yesterday afternoon to a group of her friends at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Alexander on South Newton. A matinee was enjoyed at the theater and refreshments at the Alexander home. Guests were Betty Hardy, Allison Arns, Nona Halen, Dorothy Terrett, and Mavis Nicholas.

Rebekah Lodge Hears Fine Program

Olive Rebekah Lodge No. 28, I. O. O. F. held its regular meeting Monday evening, March 20th.

There was a large attendance and the following program was very much enjoyed:

Two vocal numbers, Luella Corn, Joyce Banteh, Florence Neumann. Accompanied by Marian Moore.

Aerobic stunts, Joan Mole. Violin solo, Richard Mole. Accompanied by Mrs. Hawley. Duet, Margaret Pennington, George Andrews.

Accompanied by Mrs. Andrew. Piano solo, Marian Moore. Reading, Mary Roseberry. Violin solo, Marjorie Paley.

Accompanied by Mrs. J. F. White. Vocal selections by trio.

The committee for the evening, of which Mrs. Ina Huson was chairman, had the banquet room and stairway very cleverly arranged and decorated to represent the Blarney Stone, Rocky road to Dublin, and different cities in Ireland. St. Patrick's favors and decorations were used on the tables.

MEN!

13 years success treating prostate gland troubles by the latest and best methods. Dr. H. P. Coleman, Phone 965

Formal Dancing Club Announces Party for March

Greeted with enthusiasm by members of the Formal Dancing club comes announcement of a spring dance for Friday evening of this week at the Knights of Pythias hall.

New low prices will be in order for the first March party and dancing will begin at 10 o'clock with music by Whipple's orchestra.

The committee for the affair is headed by Miss Fern Hutchinson, who will be assisted by Mrs. G. Reese Bradley, Mrs. H. S. Deuel, Mrs. Jack Porter and Mrs. Edwin Durso.

Mistletes Club Enjoys Luncheon

The Mistletes club met at the home of Blanche Arnold Wednesday afternoon for a covered dish luncheon and quilting party with many members present. A lovely time was had by all, and plans were made for a card party in the near future.

Guests From Eugene Much Feted Here

Among pleasing parties of the past week attended by Mrs. Carl Pheasant and Mrs. William Harris, guests here from Eugene, was that given by Mrs. Lee M. Bown Tuesday evening, when she entertained members of her contract bridge club.

There were three tables of cards in play, special guests being Mrs. Pheasant, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Harry Prentice, Miss Charlotte DeFord, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson and Mrs. Mary Gallier.

Crater Lake Chapter Honors Mrs. Van Scoyoc

Honoring Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc, who is leaving on April first to make her home in Beverly Hills, Calif., members of Crater Lake Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met for a one o'clock luncheon at the Medford Hotel on Saturday. Mrs. Van Scoyoc is an ex-regent of the chapter and has, for years, been an active worker and her helpful counsel will be greatly missed. The loving good wishes of her many friends will follow her to her new home.

Mesdames Jones and Rodgers Hostesses

Mrs. W. L. Jones and her mother, Mrs. Rodgers, were hostesses to the Gleamer class of the First Baptist church Tuesday, March 21.

Mrs. R. L. Hogue Presided

Singing, "Bringing in the Sheaves," Loleta Jones at piano. Devotional, Mrs. J. L. Ely. Scripture Ephesians—"Be ye one another's burdens, 'Be not deceived, God is not mocked." Prayer.

A letter from the president, Mrs. P. H. Daily, who is now in Seattle, was read by the secretary.

The class voted to sponsor the annual dinner of the church in May. Miss Violet Judy gave two readings: "I was 17; she was 49." "When Mother Writes Checks."

Steel guitar solo, (Miss Loleta Jones) "Hawaiian Dance." "Grandfather's Clock." Game "Tangled Characters."

Refreshments, and social time.

Brewers Leave For Coast City

Local friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pittsburgh Brewer, popular members of the young married set, regret their departure from Medford Friday for Tillamook, where they will make their home. Much entertaining in their honor preceded their leaving.

Nevena Chapter Honors Mrs. Hauser

CENTRAL POINT—Last Tuesday Mrs. Monnie Hauser of Salem, associate grand matron, Order of the Eastern Star, made an official visit to Nevena chapter, Central Point. Mrs. Sadie Kohler, worthy matron and Mrs. Hauser at luncheon at the Hotel Medford, after which a school of instruction was held at the Masonic Hall in Central Point.

Preceding the evening meeting Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson entertained at dinner, complimenting Mrs. Hauser. Mrs. Sadie Kohler, worthy matron and H. P. Jewett, worthy patron of Nevena chapter. Covers were placed at an attractively appointed table for Mrs. Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kohler, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett, Mrs. Nellie McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mrs. Jennie Merritt, Jack Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson.

The Masonic hall was decorated with spring flowers and potted ferns, which made a lovely setting for the interesting evening enjoyed by members from all southern Oregon chapters.

Mrs. Sadie Kohler, worthy matron, and Howard Jewett, worthy patron, presided in an efficient manner, the officers being highly complimented by Mrs. Hauser.

An interesting and instructive talk was given by Mrs. Hauser, and during the evening solo numbers by Elsie Carlton Strang, whistling numbers by Dorothy Reynolds and readings by Gladys Jewett were greatly enjoyed.

At the conclusion of the chapter, Mrs. Esther Sanderson sang "A Perfect Day," after which refreshments were served.

The distinguished guests were Mrs. Monnie Hauser, associate grand matron, Mrs. Nellie McGowan, past grand matron, J. H. Hardy, past grand patron, Mrs. Florine Severance and Esther Sanderson, grand representatives. Mrs. Addie Wilson, worthy matron of Reames chapter, C. E. Gates, worthy patron of Reames chapter and Vivian Wilson, worthy patron of Adair chapter.

Dixie Club To Meet Saturday

The Dixie club will hold regular monthly meeting Saturday, April 1, at the home of Misses Anna and Kate Kelleher, 1019 South Oakdale.

Mrs. Rose Schieffelin will assist the hostess.

Mrs. Payton Gives St. Patrick's Party

Mrs. Claude Payton of 540 Edwards street entertained Saturday with a St. Patrick's card party. Several tables of bridge were enjoyed and a colorful St. Patrick's luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Tethrow and children, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Stag, Mr. John Detweiler, Miss Anna Detweiler, Ruth Mary Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Payton.

Mrs. Van Scoyoc Feted by Club Before Leaving

Thursday afternoon the Wednesday Study club entertained at the home of Mrs. J. O. Grey in honor of Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc, who is soon leaving for her new home in southern California.

A musical and good times program was enjoyed during the afternoon. A gift of love and appreciation from the club was presented by the president, Mrs. J. H. Cochran. Mrs. Van Scoyoc has been one of the most helpful and faithful members for many years and will be greatly missed by all.

At the close the members stood, joining hands and singing "Auld Lang Syne," expressing joy and happiness for Mrs. Van Scoyoc and her family in their new home.

Ever-Ready Circle To Hold Rummage Sale

The Presbyterian Ever-Ready Circle will hold a rummage sale at 182 West Main next door to West Side Pharmacy Friday March 31, and Saturday, April 1. Phone 988-L and donations will be called for.

Royal Neighbors Plan Card Party

The Royal Neighbors of America announce a public card party for Thursday evening, March 31, and Saturday, April 1. Phone 988-L and donations will be called for.

The decorations committee was: Alice Prock, chairman, Jeanne Quisenberry, Mary Mattox, Lucille Knips, Ruth D'Albini, Lucille Croucher, Betty Terry, Leabel Miller, Margie Dalton, Marjorie Gregory, Alta Bingham, Vivienne Meader, Margaret Warner, Cecil Humphreys.

The music committee was: Dorothy Gore, chairman, Gertrude Boyle, Eva Walden, Ruby Stone, Constance Moore, Roberta Flaherty.

Steve Whipple's orchestra was hired for the occasion.

Mrs. Gentry Hostess To Mission Society

The Missionary society of the M. E. Church, South, met at the home of Mrs. Gentry on Liberty street, Tuesday afternoon, for the social meeting. Mrs. Champion was leader of the program which was on the work of the deaconess. The office of deaconess was created in 1902 by the Women's Board of Home Missions. The work of the social service worker and the deaconess are the same, but with the addition to the duties of the deaconess, that of imparting the religious life to individuals. The deaconess no longer wears the distinctive uniform consisting of black dress, black bonnet, and white tie. There are 184 enrolled in deaconess work in 36 community centers located in 13 states. There are 7 Christian homes for business women in 6 states where these workers serve.

Miss Thelma Gentry, home from O. S. C. for the spring vacation, sang "The Voice of God Is Calling." After the program a social hour was enjoyed. The business session will be held April 2 at the home of Mrs. I. W. Thomas. At that time names will again be chosen for the Pollyanna game.

Dinner to Honor Mrs. Anna Ellis

A six o'clock dinner will be served at the Letha hotel, Ashland, on Wednesday, March 29th, honoring Mrs. Anna Ellis, worthy grand matron of the state of Oregon. Those planning to attend from Medford will kindly notify Mrs. E. M. Wilson, phone 661-R, not later than Tuesday noon. Following the dinner, a district meeting of the nearby Eastern Star chapters will be held at the Masonic Temple, Ashland.

Pythian Sisters Meet With Mrs. Swartz

The last meeting of the Pythian Sisters' club was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. Swartz and was very much enjoyed after her long absence from Medford. After roll call, 4 tables of bridge were in play and prizes awarded Mrs. Belle Yarbrough and Mrs. Mary Webber. Refreshments were served by the hostess, with Anna Jaqua and Cora Judge assisting. The next meeting place will be announced later.

Girls' League Dance Colorful Affair

The gymnasium of the high school was attractively decorated with a St. Patrick's day motif as a setting for the annual Girls' League leap year dance Friday. This was one of the most enjoyed social events of the year and because of its informal nature there was a large attendance.

The decorations committee was: Alice Prock, chairman, Jeanne Quisenberry, Mary Mattox, Lucille Knips, Ruth D'Albini, Lucille Croucher, Betty Terry, Leabel Miller, Margie Dalton, Marjorie Gregory, Alta Bingham, Vivienne Meader, Margaret Warner, Cecil Humphreys.

The music committee was: Dorothy Gore, chairman, Gertrude Boyle, Eva Walden, Ruby Stone, Constance Moore, Roberta Flaherty.

Steve Whipple's orchestra was hired for the occasion.

Crater Lake Chapter to Confer Royal Arch Degrees

Tuesday night, March 28th, Crater Lake Chapter No. 32 will confer the Royal Arch degree on three candidates.

All Royal Arch Masons are cordially invited to attend. There will be light refreshments served following the degrees.

The Most Complete Beauty Shop IN MEDFORD

Beauty Operators Irene Seid—Edith Benjamin

Tonsorial Artist Ray LeFevre

Manager Wm. Murray

Phone 363

MURRAY'S

41 S. Central

YOUR Photograph
THE
Intimate Gift
FOR MOTHER'S DAY
—A—
Kennell-Ellis
75c
SPECIAL
8x10
Choice of proofs. Limited time only. Additional prints 75c each. No appointment necessary.
Beautifully Hand Colored 75c Extra
Kennell-Ellis
Artist Photographers
32 N. Central

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING IS AN ART

ELECTRICITY is the perfect servant that really makes light housekeeping possible. Adequate wiring and plenty of convenience outlets provide readily accessible power and heat for toasters, percolators, sweepers, dishwashers, irons and heaters...all those electrical appliances that save time and trouble.

Supply sufficient outlets so that electricity may be used conveniently. Ask your electrical contractor for an estimate today.

ELECTRICITY IS THE PERFECT SERVANT

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

Ringlette
Permanent Wave
If you get it here it just be good. 1933 prices
TUCKER'S BEAUTY SOLONE
Hotel Holland Bldg. Tel. 900

Dine At The Hotel Medford
Try our Quality Food and Quick Service with Hospitality

MERCHANTS LUNCHEON
40c
formerly 50c
11:30 to 2:00 p. m. Week Days
Special table d'Hote dinner 75c