

LEADER OF LEGION PLEDGES SUPPORT TO NEW PRESIDENT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 30.—(Sp.)—Louis Johnson, national commander of the American Legion, has issued a message to the 10,709 posts of the Legion, calling upon them to support the president of the United States. The message says in part: "On the day following the new president's inaugural oath I pledged the million men of the American Legion to give their utmost loyalty and help in the complex and difficult problems now facing the chief executive. I stated, then, in a nation-wide broadcast in which the president participated, that the American Legion wants nothing more than to be of service to America in this situation, as our members were in 1917-'18. "The time to render that service has arrived. Congress has given to the president the authority to put into effect the economies the president believes necessary to restore the financial stability of our country. This new legislation is fraught with gravest consequences to the disabled veteran. The president, under the authority given him, has powers of life and death over thousands of men who once gladly offered their lives in a period of national emergency. "The Legion has every faith in the discretion, fairness and the justice with which the president will deal with this problem—involving as it does in many instances the need for compassion and mercy. "The president needs the support of every loyal American and today I am calling upon the 10,709 Legion posts and our one million members throughout our great organization to uphold the pledge that I have made as the national commander of the American Legion. I am asking that special meetings be held by every Legion Post which will officially express, by a resolution, such loyalty and utmost help. Many of our posts already have taken the initiative and set dates for such meetings."

POEM TELLS STORY OF CHURCH WOMEN Sewing For Needy

Ladies of the Four Square Light House Meet each Wednesday from 2 to 4 p.m. To rip up old clothing and sew for the poor. After working a while all join in singing a song. To let people know our Lord is along a prayer is offered and the message read. Telling God's great love is all that's said. Then a song and prayer as the clock strikes four. But less of all lunch is called at the door. Now if you have old clothing or food to spare, Phone 918 and they'll call for it there. You're welcome to come join the Sewing Circle too. And sew for the poor just like we do. —By R. L. Hawkwood.

ASHLAND NORMAL ENROLLMENT FOR SPRING NEAR 300

By Charles P. Champlin, Jr. ASHLAND, March 30.—(Special).—Enrollment of students for the spring quarter at the Southern Oregon Normal school is now practically finished with a total near the 300 mark, which makes this spring quarter one of the most successful in the history of the institution. Katherine Vincent, registrar, states that enrollment in the spring usually decreases due to the fact that so many of the students are forced to leave school for one reason or another. When the school was started in 1926 the ratio of girls to boys was about 10 to one, but in the past two years the number of boys has increased so rapidly that at the present time there are nearly as many boys as girls.

INSURANCE HOLIDAY NOT FOR OREGONIANS

SALEM, Mar. 30.—(AP)—State Insurance Commissioner A. H. Averill said life insurance policy holders are not affected by reported moratoriums on dividend payments and cash surrender values and loan privileges, reported recently by the New York state insurance commissioner on companies operating under a charter from that state. Oregon has granted no moratorium on contract fulfillments by life insurance companies, stated Averill, who denied the right of eastern commissioners to grant moratoriums effective outside their own states.
