MEN OF ACTION AT GIANTS' TRAINING CAMP

AL SMITH MEETS AN ADMIRER

The serious business of seeking a loan of several million for New York City took Alfred E. Smith to the Reconstruction Finance corporation's offices in Washington but he gladly obliged when a young lady pressed for an introduction. She is Mary Garney of Columbus, Ohio, secretary to Alice Pomerene (center), chairman. (Associated Press Photo)

NAVY GETS COAST ROOST READY FOR NEWEST DIRIGIBLE

Finishing touches are being put on a huge hangar (right) at Sunnyvale, Cal., to house the Macon, recently christened in Akron, when it comes west in May. At the upper left is an architect's conception of how the dirigible base will look when completed and the map shows the area which can be patrolled by the new craft. (Associated Press Photos)

JAPANESE LEGIONS INVADE JEHOI

Troops of the Mikado surged into the northern China province of Jehoi during recent hostilities in the Orient. Upper: the thirty-first Japanese infantry crossing the Tallang river, southeast of Peking. Lower: the same regiment near Nanling with its commander, Col. Tomaru Hayakawa, the leading figure on horseback. (Associated Press Photos)

HERMAN DONS NEW UNIFORM

Babe Herman, fitted out in a new uniform, is discarding his sporty golf shoes for spikes at the Chicago Cubs' training camp at Catalina Island, California. The Cubs acquired Herman from Cincinnati and they hope his hitting will keep them at the top in the national league race this year. (Associated Press Photo)
