J. M. Johnson, pastor, Central Point, Oregon.
"Jesus Ministering to Jews and Gentiles," is the title of our lesson in the Bible schools this week. The scripture is in Mark. 7:1-37. Our school opens at 9:45 a. m. Mr. A. J. Milton, superintendent. Classes for all grades.
"Important Messages From the Letter to the Hebrews," will be the theme of the morning message; and "The Message of Jesus Christ, God's Atonement for Sin," will be the subject of the sermon in the evening service. We will tell the story of salvation, both in sermon and in song, and you are invited to all these services.
A good radio installed in the church will bring in the morning broadcast of the radio church service which will be presented by the pastor and choir of the Baptist church of Grants Pass.
Sixty-eight people were present in the prayer meeting on Wednesday evening, but there should be twice that number in these days of spiritual dearth and material need.

Senior B. Y. P. U. Topic Announced

"Can and Should We Love All Men—Even Our Enemies?" is the topic that will be discussed at the senior B. Y. P. U. meeting tonight at the First Baptist church. Owen Phelan will lead the meeting which will start at 7:00 o'clock. All young people are invited to come. Just try our welcome.

Bible Class Easter Services Planned

(Contributed)

Two weeks from today is Easter and on that day Everyman's Bible class will hold their services in the Rialto theatre and will have an extraordinary program to be announced later.

This class, which meets in the court house auditorium at 9:40 sharp, is becoming very popular with men and young men. The live-wire talks by W. R. Baird, the teacher, singing popular hymns by all the men, special musical numbers and associations with other men are among the attractions.

All men are urged to attend and spend at least an hour in an inspiring, interesting, beneficial way.

If you attend once, you will go again.

DOLLAR LINER CAPSIZES AT SEATTLE REPAIR DOCK

The huge passenger steamer President Madison, employed in service between the West Coast and the Orient overturned at a wharf in Seattle as a result of a sudden list to starboard believed to be due to a shift in ballast. A crew of 150 men were thrown into a panic. All but two were saved. (Associated Press Photo)

The list of contributors to the Prescott Trust Fund is becoming a long one, many people having shown interest and sympathy by their gifts.

This fund is to be devoted solely to the benefit of the family of the officer whose memory this community delights to honor, the man whose quiet bravery should long be an inspiration to other men who will be faced by duty.
