

Mixed Foursome Tourney Gala Event at Rogue Valley Golf Links

MANY WIN PRIZES AND ENJOY LUNCH IN DAY'S PROGRAM

Fifty Twosomes Tee Off in Trek About Course As Fine Weather Lures—Entertainment a Feature

By ROGER EARLY.
In number of contestants, number of valuable prizes awarded and the enthusiasm expressed by golfers of the valley, the tournament on the Rogue Valley course yesterday was the most successful ever staged in the valley.

According to A. P. Johnson, chairman of the tournament committee, there were 50 twosomes in the two-ball tournament. Besides the 100 contestants, at least 35 people came to the course as a social event. In all, Mr. Johnson said, at least 300 visited the course yesterday.

Valuable prizes awarded. Eighteen valuable prizes were divided equally between those playing 18 holes and those playing nine holes. These prizes were obtained from the local merchants belonging to the golf club. The prizes, as a whole, were valued at $50.

Much praise was given the local gentlemen who rendered several songs during lunch. Jim Stevens and Sebastian Apollo gave individual entertainment and Bill Vawter also gave several selections of his own arrangement. Jim Jenka, a visitor from Eugene, entertained at lunch with several songs.

Colorful picture. Every green, every fairway, and every tee was crowded with contestants. Each of these dressed in some brightly colored clothes, giving a very beautiful picture against the bright green of the course.

Appreciation was expressed by the tournament committee for the masterful way Herin Burgoyne of the Rex Cafe served lunch. Flay West, in charge of the refreshments, was also praised by those attending the tournament. Approximately 181 were served at lunch.

Prize winners listed. Those winning prizes yesterday were as follows: Miss Constance Baker of Grants Pass and C. Bennett also of Grants Pass won a large silver tray with a net score of 76. Mrs. Aletha Vawter and J. C. Thompson won a small silver tray with a score of 78. Mrs. Ina Alexander and E. C. Solinsky were presented with a flower bowl for a net score of 79. Mrs. Jerry Jerome and Larry Schade with an 81 were presented with a tree ash tray. Mrs. Larry Schade and Jerry Jerome also had an 81. They received a picture. Mrs. Sam Baker of Grants Pass and her husband won a card container with a net score of 82. Mrs. Frank Baum and Dr. Sleeter won a cigarette box with a score of 82. Mrs. Maude Godding and Beese Bralley turned in an 83 to win a phone book cover. The above contestants played 18 holes.

Prizes for 9 holes. Prizes presented to those playing 9 holes were as follows: Mrs. Marion Reigel and Earl Tunny, who turned in a 41 were presented with candle sticks. Mrs. Blanche Roberts and Frank Newhall also turned in a 41 to win two silver candle sticks. Mrs. Lois Day and "Bing Crosby" Owens won a vase with a net score of 42. Mrs. W. Biddle and Gail Robinson, also with 42, were presented with a picture. Mrs. L. Carpenter and Bob Ruhl won a picture with a net score of 44. Mrs. Dorothy Tunny and Ralph Bardwell won a picture with a 45. Mrs. Hamilton Patton and Glen Smith were presented with a cigarette box. Mrs. S. Wilcox and Don Gray, who turned in a 48, won a combination set of playing cards.

Consolation winners. In the consolation tournament the following won prizes: Mrs. Mark Miller and Maj. Morris, who turned in a score of 139 for 18 holes were presented with a trick comb. Mrs. R. Stephenson and Cap Overmeyer won a trick card box for taking 16 shots on number 7. Mrs. Mary Gray and Lyle Wilcox were presented with a trick comb for a score of 57 for 9 holes. Mrs. Gail Robinson and Corbin Beigel also turned in a 56 to win a trick card box.

Perfect weather prevailed and more tournaments are urged by the people of the valley. Many of the contestants stayed at the course until after dark.

The tournament committee expressed their appreciation for the splendid enthusiasm showed during the tournament by the golfers of the valley.

Coast League Opening Tomorrow—Beer an Added Attraction

PRICE OF TICKETS AT ROCK BOTTOM TO ENTICE FANS

All Clubs in League Expect to Add Profits by Sale of Brew in Bandstands—Night Games Losing Out

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Staff Writer.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—(AP)—With high hopes for a more normal season and a new ally—beer—at hand to help increase the revenue, Pacific Coast League clubs will celebrate the 81st annual grand opening of the circuit tomorrow.

That every club in the league will seize upon the sale of beer to help swell the return from the concession end of the business is a foregone conclusion. The Sacramento club already has made plans for this. Officials of the two San Francisco teams, Seals and Missions, and the Oakland Oaks, figure on increased revenues in Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles and Hollywood are expected to fall in line.

Tickets Cheap. From the strictly baseball side, the lure for increased patronage will be lower ticket prices. Coast league attendances in some cases last season were appalling. Every club played to smaller crowds than the year before. Basic prices this year will be 25 cents for bleachers and 40 cents for grandstands.

While night games are losing out in some sections, other localities will go in for after-dark playing as strongly as before.

Ducks Look Weaker. The early season size-up promises a free-for-all scramble for the championship, with Portland's Beavers in the defending role, while the Portland team does not stack up as strongly as that which won the pennant. The 1932 tail-end Missions now give indications of having more formidable representation for the present race.

Hollywood's Stars and the Los Angeles Angels loom as the leading contenders. Portland, however, cannot be written out of the competition. Sacramento, third place club last season, will open minus its leading twirler of last season, Jimmy DeShong, sold to the Yankees.

Oakland has taken on experienced help in George Kelly, former New York Giant and Brooklyn first baseman and a 10-year man in the majors, and Walter "Dutch" Ruether, wily southpaw who rates as one of the smartest pitchers in the circuit.

Portland will feel keenly the loss of Lou Finney, heavy hitting outfielder, and Bob Johnson, another capable fly chaser. Both bounced up to the big leagues.

Brobeck Improved—Ray Brobeck of 200 West Jackson street, who underwent a major operation at the Community hospital Saturday, was reported in a much improved condition today.

MAN MOUNTAIN HAD HIS MOMENTS, LETTERS SHOW

LONDON, April 3.—(P)—Miss Emilia Terani, an English girl, was awarded a judgment of 4,200 pounds (approximately $14,800) today in her breach of promise suit against Primo Carnera, the prize fighter. Carnera did not appear in court. The court permitted the reading of letters to Miss Terani, however. "My dearest Emilia," said one of them, "I cannot sleep at night. My thoughts are always with you." Another, said: "Dear treasure of mine, you can have trust in your Primo because he loves you with all his heart and soul."

MENDENHALL HIGH AT TRAPS SUNDAY

A beautiful day and perfect shooting conditions brought out quite a number of "target busters" Sunday morning. S. G. Mendenhall was high with 48x50, Sam Jennings and Ray Coleman being only one bird behind.

A 74 was turned in for the Oregonian Telegraphic tournament, the qualifying team being Sid Newton 25, Ray Coleman 25 and Ed Pease 24. Two more 25 straight were turned during the shoot, one by Mendenhall and one by Jennings, but could not be counted in the Oregonian tournament.

The above named shooters, who broke 25 straight received the usual prize box of trap loads which is being awarded to members of the club.

Chemawa Defeats Lincoln High 9-8

CHEMAWA, April 3.—(P)—Extra base hits brought the Chemawa Indian school baseball team a 9 to 8 win over Lincoln high of Portland here Saturday.

The second game was halted in a 5 to 5 tie in the sixth inning.

Business Callers—Among business visitors in Medford this morning were A. L. Strauss of Sams Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump of Applegate, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lindsey of Coker Butte road, Edwin Martin of Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Ash of Pristat, where Mr. Ash is employed in the forestry service.

GALLANT SIR WINS CALIENTE CLASSIC IN RECORD GALLOP

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., April 3.—(AP)—To the list of thoroughbreds which have won great victories, add the name of Gallant Sir, and opposite it write "the $25,000 added Agua Caliente handicap of 1933."

While the mile and a quarter race was no longer the "richest in the world" when he won it yesterday and while Gallant Sir was a stand-out in a small field, the big four-year-old colt did his job handsomely in 2:02-3/8. He cracked a record set by Phar Lap, the wonder horse from the Antipodes, in overcoming surprisingly stiff competition.

With 10,000 fans shouting encouragement, Gallant Sir suddenly laid back both ears at a cluck from his jockey, Georgie Woolf, and running at top speed crossed the finish line a moment later a length ahead of the hard driven Waylayer. The record of 2:02-4/5 Phar Lap set in winning the handicap last year in his only start in America had been eclipsed.

The odds on Gallant Sir at race time were 1 to 5. The $24,200 Gallant Sir won yesterday brought his total winnings to $74,200. The rest of the added purse was divided $2500 to Waylayer, $1250 to Lemna Hills and $750 to Lovereall. The handicap paid its 1931 winner, Victorian, $108,000, but depression cut down the prize.

In Extortion Attempt

DOUBLES TOURNEY FOR ELK BOWLERS BRINGS OUT CLASS

Some real class was shown in the Elks' doubles bowling tourney last week. Herb Guenther and Harold Brown won the weekly prize for the highest score in a 3-game match with a total of 1162 while Erickson and York rolled 431 to win the weekly prize for the highest score on a single game. Several of the bowlers brought their averages up above scratch or 180.
