Medford educators and literary minded folk are welcoming announcement received today that Audrey Thorne Thomson, well known author, will be a speaker in this city next Thursday. The title of her lecture will be "Modern School in Relation to Present Social Conditions."

Mrs. Thomson, loved by children for her two well known books, "East of the Sun and West of the Moon" and "The Birch and the Star," is herself a pupil of the celebrated educator, Col. Frances W. Parker, for many years teacher in the Francis Parker school of Chicago, and for the past 10 years principal of the Olat Valley school. Mrs. Thomson is one of the best known and most earnest disciples in America of creative education.

Education as fostered by Colonel Parker, Dewey and Washburne differs in its aims and methods from the customary type of education, stressing learning by doing, greater freedom of choice, cooperation rather than competition. Creative work in art, literature and drama are among the outstanding features.

Mrs. Thomson's lecture here will give Medford people an opportunity to hear the new theories in education, presented in a very clear and interesting style.

The exact time and place of the lecture will be announced later.

Kate At Craterian

Kate Smith's first starring motion picture, "Hello, Everybody," a story written especially for her by Fannie Hurst, opens a run at the Fox Craterian today.

The "songbird of the South," one of radio's first ladies, was signed for the picture after audiences throughout the country, who applauded her work in "The Big Broadcast," in which she made an appearance with 14 other radio stars, set up a clamor for more of her. Attentive theatre managers throughout the country, their ears cocked to patrons' demands, communicated the intelligence to Hollywood, and Hollywood was quick to act.

SEARCH FOR LOST IN AKRON MISHAP SEES SCANT HOPE

The three known survivors of the tragedy—Lieut. Commander H. V. Wiley, Moody E. Erwin, machinist's mate, and R. E. Deal, boatswain's mate—were making fast recovery from shock and submerion today. They are at the Brooklyn navy yard. The Danzig tanker Phoenix, which rescued these three men and a fourth—Robert W. Cope and, radio operator, who subsequently died—was preceding on her journey to Tampico, having surrendered the task of searching the coastal waters to the swift fleet of coast guard ships.

As though still hungry for lives, the elements claimed two more yesterday afternoon when the naval blimp J-3 went down in the surf off the Jersey coast while participating in the search for Akron survivors. Lieutenant Commander David E. Cummings and Chief Mechanist's Mate Hart, were the victims.

A small plane of the New York police department saved the five others who were aboard the blimp. Wreckage of the blimp was carried out to sea, where it sank today while efforts were being made at salvage.

Col. Henry Latrobe Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy who was designated at the request of President Roosevelt to inquire into the circumstances of the crash, spent some time at Lakehurst, N. J., base of the Akron, late yesterday. He announced later that a board of investigation would be named.

Even before the great airship smashed down upon the waves, those in command knew that she had lost her battle with the elements. "This was disclosed by the story told by Lieut. Commander Wiley, second in command of the Akron. He gave an account of what happened shortly after his arrival at the Brooklyn navy yard.

"GRAND HOTEL" HELD OVER FOR TWO DAYS
Manager L. L. Lewis announced today that "Grand Hotel," which has been playing to capacity audiences at the Studio theater, will be held over Thursday and Friday. PLAN WOULD PUT THOUSANDS TENTS ON FAIR GROUNDS

From Washington, D. C., states, and the Chamber of Commerce here feels that establishment of a camp in Medford would mean much to the city and at the same time serve an important forest territory.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—Selection of 25,000 men for the first contingent of the "conservation corps" neared completion late today as the labor department hastened preparations to move the first recruits to military camps for conditioning, beginning tomorrow.

The United States forest service selected the site where it expects to put its first group of men to work, between Redding and Luray, Virginia, in the George Washington national forest.

Several score other camp sites in the east and south also were chosen. There the men who will be mustered in first will assume their duties with pay at the rate of $30 a month and keep with work on a 40-hour week basis.

Quotas were fixed for recruiting from applicants in 17 cities. Actual selection of the first 25,000 men remains to be made, but their names are listed—it was said—among the thousands who have sought admittance to the camps. Local and state authorities are in charge of the enlistment.

Farm Relief Plan Is Sent To Senate

WASHINGTON, April 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's sweeping farm price lifting and mortgage refinancing program, combined into one bill by the state agriculture committee, today was reported formally to the senate, along with a recommendation that currency be inflated.

STUDENTS STRIKE TO AID TEACHERS

CHICAGO, April 5.—(AP)—Protesting against their teachers' unpaid salaries, thousands of Chicago high school students walked out on strike from their classrooms today.

At Englewood high school, the clanging of a fire alarm signal led a general exodus from the building. Forty-five hundred students left their rooms and paraded through the rain, waving banners protesting the pedagogues' financial plight.

In defiance of school authorities' pleas and warnings against the utility of such moves, 4500 pupils of Calumet high school and 6000 from Crane Junior college and high school left their desks.

Police squads summoned by school officials were unable to turn them back.
