Loyal Workers Plan Sunday Luncheon

The Loyal Workers' class of the First Christian church is giving a covered dish luncheon next Sunday, April 9, immediately following the morning church service. This luncheon will be held in the recreational hall of the church and those attending will make personal calls during the afternoon.

This class of young people has been earnestly working during the past few months and has obtained an active membership of over 100. A goal of 200 has been set for Easter. The class is divided into six groups and a membership campaign is being conducted between the groups. Next Sunday will be the final day of this contest and the winning group will be entertained some time in the near future by the losing group.

A contest has also been conducted with the men's Bible class and a very close race resulted.

An efficient list of officers and a capable teacher have helped to increase and maintain the large attendance of the class. Mrs. E. R. Cobb, the teacher, is to be highly commended for the very interesting and instructive talks given each Sunday.

All members of the class and all young people interested are urged to be present next Sunday.

B. P. W. Club to Aid Y. W. C. A. Ambitions

The Business and Professional Women's club at luncheon yesterday in the city clubrooms pledged further support to the aims of the Y. W. C. A. in creating clubrooms to be available to girls at Medford at the "Y" building. Mrs. I. E. Schuler, a special guest at the luncheon, representing the Y. W. C. A. explained the plan to make the rooms available to the girls at all times as a place for resting and recreation.

Miss Margaret Arnold entertained the club with two vocal solos and Miss Marjorie Poley with a violin number. Both were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John White and the numbers were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Agnes Hines, who is here from the north in the interests of the League of Western Writers and her own motion picture company, which has obtained many exceptionally fine films of the Oregon country, was also a speaker, giving an interesting description of her pictures of the Oregon wilderness.

Covers at luncheon were arranged for 20. Mrs. Edwina Welhaar, club president, presided.

Mrs. Thomsen to Speak at Guild Hall Thursday

Many circles are anticipating the arrival here next Thursday of Mrs. Gudren Thomsen, well-known author and educator and the nation's foremost "teller of tales."

She will speak at the St. Mark's Guild hall Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock and her versatility is especially to draw illustrations, educational workers, persons interested in writing and the modern trends in education as her audience. There will be no admission charge collected for the lecture and all persons interested in education and literary pursuits are invited.

In addition to being an outstanding story-teller, Mrs. Thomsen is the author of a number of children's books and an educator of wide reputation. Her lecture here will deal with the modern school and its relation to present social conditions.

After-Easter Luncheon Plans Interest Many

Extensive preparations are being completed this week in anticipation of Easter's early arrival and one of the largest events to follow immediately after the holiday will be the Easter Monday luncheon at Parish hall, to be sponsored by the women of the Catholic church.

Committees meeting this week completed plans for the affair and a home cooked luncheon and an afternoon of entertainment and cards are promised.

Fourth Annual Easter Monday Ball Announced

Fourth annual Easter Monday ball, being sponsored by the auxiliary of American Legion post No. 15, has been announced for April 17, at the Oriental Gardens, with music by Dom Provost's orchestra.

Prices have been reduced for this year's ball, and a large attendance is expected. Dancing will commence at 9:30, the announcement states.

Merricks' Motor Inn' Yesterday Filed Objections to the Cost Bill

Filed against it in the damage suit of John Hill and Lois Hill. Objection is made to paying Dr. Edwin Durno $50 as witness fees, on the ground that he is entitled only to the $2 per diem.

On the bill of J. Verne Shangle for $4 for photographs of the Nat swimming pool, the defendant holds that the jury went to the scene and saw it with their own eyes, and that the photographer's work is unnecessary.

Twelve dollars for a trial and reporter's fee is also protested on the ground it was not filed within the time limit.

Lois Hill, a young girl, was awarded a verdict by a jury for injuries allegedly received while swimming in the Nat tank.

BARLEY PLANTING TO REPLACE FALL GRAIN

Approximately 4000 acres of tillable Jackson county will be planted to barley this spring, according to County Agent R. G. Fowler, and take the place of fall grain seedling "frozen out" last winter. County Agent Fowler estimates that 90 per cent of the fall sown grain was thus destroyed. The local barley will be largely used for feeding. The barley used in beer making is a special kind, and must be right as to color and quality. It is expected that the demand for beer barley will increase the demand for feed barley.

Far removed from the usual solemn wedding will be the Tom Thumb ceremony tonight at the First Methodist Episcopal church, to which the general public is invited and promised an hour of clever entertainment.

Under the direction of Mrs. A. F. Hauser the pageant has been developed.

Fifty small children in full dress will compose the wedding party and guests, representing many prominent local figures, and will be ushered into the church aisles by another group of six-year-olds.

The ceremony is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock and a large attendance is anticipated as the pageant is recommended as one of beauty, filled with laugh provoking situations.

Photographs of the Ashland children appearing in the Tom Thumb wedding recently staged there, are to be seen here in the windows of the Palmer Electric store and Weeks & Orr furniture store. They will give Medford people an idea of the dainty pageantry awaiting them at the church tonight.

The following children will participate in the clever entertainment: Ann Conroy, the bride; Carl Burk, groom; George Coddling, Jr., minister; Leon Pellett, best man; Gale Coddling, maid of honor; Jerry Warren, usher; Floyd Whillock, usher; Shirley Pankey, bridesmaid; Frances Pritchett, bridesmaid; Betty Jean McKinsey, mother of the bride; Buddy Vandemark, father of the bride; Shirley Barton, ring-bearer; Betty Jean Drummond, flower girl.

Guests, the bachelor uncle, the spinster aunt, grandparents, colleagues and other relatives and friends will be represented by: Elaine Reed, Gail Miller, Dolores Pritchett, Frances Pritchett, Dorothy Ray, Barbara Olson, Mary Ann Brill, soloist, Mildred McKinsey, Odille Pearson, Phyllis Goodfellow, June Jarmin, Betty Jean Johnson, Joan Tuttle, Janet Shower, Irene Franklin, Carol Bannish, Joan Humphrey, Jean Mary Cox, Dorothy Jaukasie, Billy Odell, Don Libby, Lee Eden, Howard Whillock, Kay Bateman, Robert Wisenberger, James Clevenger, Lynn Jenkins, Frederick Cowgill, Robert Cowgill, Jackie Holmes, Charles Waldron, Ralph Stubbfield, Buddy Nutting, Maurice Pierce, Bobby Burton, Kenneth Lawrence, Larry Wilson, Robert McKay.

WHO'S TO PAY TAX FOR LAST YEAR'S BASEBALL TICKETS

The United States of America, through the collector of the internal revenue, served notice late yesterday upon the Rogue River Baseball League, Lula C. Puhl, secretary, that it desired the payment of $14.81 allegedly due from unpaid admission tax last summer and fall. An internal revenue tax lien was filed with the county clerk.

The Rogue River Baseball League played ball from the first daisy to the first snowflake, and was composed of teams from Talent, Phoenix, Grants Pass, Jacksonville and way points. There were games most every Sunday and slim crowds failed to dim the athletic ardor of the players. The government now wants its admission tax, the same as it collects from the big leagues.

Louis C. (Scoop) Puhl was secretary of the Rogue River Baseball League, and was handy man, bat boy and publicity agent. He held no official title, working for the love of the game. The league itself is now extinct and there is no one upon whom to tack the admission.

The tax was due last July, and $1.39 of the total is for failure to pay on time.

TALENT GRANGE HEARS MEDFORD HI DEBATERS ON TAX RAISING TOPIC

The Medford high school debate team, under direction of Ralph Bailey, local coach, appeared before the Talent Grange last night and representatives of the affirmative went down to the negatives, the subject being "Resolved: That at least 50 per cent of the state and local revenues collected should come from other sources than tangible property."

The affirmative was represented by Elizabeth Perry and Winifred Roseborough and the negative by Frances Ferry and Dolph James.

A large crowd attended the meeting of the Grange and the program was followed by a general social time and refreshments. The question box was brought out and inspired much interesting discussion.

The Ways and Means committee for the month of April was appointed with Mr. Tryor as chairman.

The refreshments committee, composed of Mrs. Chase Gardner, Mrs. Roy Lavender and Mrs. Tom Bell served appetit upside down cake and coffee.
