CLEMENSON HOOKS HUGE SALMON TO CONFOUND FRIEND

W. M. Clemenson, prominent member of the local city council, who holds down the mayoralty seat when Mayor E. M. Wilson is out of town, is all smiles today. And it's not because of the legislation of beer. The well known city dad went the honor yesterday of landing the largest salmon of the season at Savage Rapids dam. It tipped the scales at 28 1/2 pounds and (which is more important, says Mr. Clemenson) "Made Dr. R. C. Mulholland's face red."

Dirigible Disaster Remnant

MRS. VOSS OPENS MIMEOGRAPH SHOP

Mrs. Grace Voss, formerly assistant secretary of the Medford chamber of commerce, has gone into business, she announced this morning. Mrs. Voss last week opened a shop in the Medford Book Store, 34 North Central, where she will offer illustrated mimeographing, public stenography, and mailing service.

She has already enjoyed a splendid response from the public, she stated this morning, and expressed her appreciation of the cooperation of her many friends in her new venture. Adequate headquarters for her work are available at the book store and she expects to serve an important need in the community by specializing in illustrated mimeograph work.

LAKE VIEWED BY RENO AIR PARTY

On a pleasure trip, William Key Scott, of Scott Motor, Ltd., and party of five from Reno, Nev., yesterday stopped at the Medford airport for a short time, and spent about a half hour flying over Crater Lake, before returning to the Nevada city.

The party was traveling in a trimotor Fokker, and as all were anxious to see the lake in its winter setting the Nevada group journeyed up for the day.

Scott was formerly a co-pilot for the Transcontinental Western Airlines.

According to a report of County Jailor Fred Kelly, and is now occupying a cell alone.
