

Knockouts Will Be Order of Evening in Tonights Fight Card

BATTLERS KEYED HIGH FOR ARMORY FISTIC PROGRAM

Main Events Promised Go With Young Firpo In Near Future — Semi-Windup Pits Classy Pair Of Boys.

Tonight's Fight Line-up
 Main Event, 6 Rounds
 Roman Street, 182 lbs. vs. Jack McCarthy, 174 lbs.
 Semi-Windup, 6 Rounds
 Jommy Compagne, 119 lbs. vs. Tony Ortis, 120 lbs.
 Special Event, 4 Rounds
 Bob Irwin, 122 lbs. vs. Frankie Roberts, 126 lbs.
 Preliminary, 4 Rounds
 Flash McCann, 141 lbs. vs. Roy Harris, 140 1/2 lbs.

Knockouts are expected to be the order of the evening at the Armory tonight in the menu of fisticuffs spread for valley fans by Promoter Mack Lillard. All the battles from the main event between Jack McCarthy and Roman Street down to the curtain raisers, Flash McCann and Roy Harris, have declared they are going to win from the first bell and that means somebody is ticketed for a trip to dreamland before the resin dust settles.

Street, flashy colored pugilist, comes from Utah with a formidable record of forty fights in the past year without a knockdown. On the other hand fighting Jack McCarthy is known to pack a wallop which can stop any of them, once it lands. The winner of the six-round main event is scheduled for a go with Young Firpo in the near future, according to Lillard, who plans to bring the Idaho terror here for a bout.

Besides the top spot event a classy semi-windup has been carded with Jimmy Compagne, Chiloquin, and Tony Ortis, Klamath Falls, continuing their argument started here some time ago in an Elks club smoker.

A special event will pit Bob Irwin, Shifty Klamath Falls puncher and Frankie Roberts, Keno pride while Flash McCann, Prospect, will swap socks with Roy Harris, Phoenix, in a four-round curtain-raiser.

The opening gong will sound at 8:30 p. m. and with the prevailing bargain prices a huge crowd is expected to pack the Armory for the return of boxing to the Medford ring.

BULLDOG JACKSON PUTS NOVAK DOWN

SALEM, April 12.—(AP)—Bulldog Jackson of Portland won a welterweight wrestling match from Bobby Novak of Flint, Mich., here last night after Novak refused to be awarded the bout on a foul. No furniture wadding was done as had been in the two previous bouts here, but the match was not tame and Jackson vented his spleen in asides to the audience. Novak took one fall with his figure four hold and Jackson won the other two with hammerlocks.

Robin Reed of Beedport and Cyclone Mackey of Seattle, both welterweights, went to a no-fall draw in another bout.

SEATTLE, April 12.—(AP)—Something new in track competition for freshman athletes of the northern division Pacific coast conference schools will be attempted next month when telegraphic meets will be held to give the young athletes a chance to perform.

Trimming of expenses caused the elimination of the regularly scheduled freshman meets this year and the telegraphic plan was adopted.

Go With Firpo His Goal

JACK MCCARTHY, 174 pound puncher who will meet Roman Street in the main event on tonight's Armory fight card has traded hooks and jabs with the best and in his several battles here has proved a sure-fire crowd pleaser. A win for McCarthy tonight will put him in line for a go with Young Firpo, Idaho terror who will be brought here soon by Promoter Lillard due to popular demand by local fans.

BARTENDING NO JOB FOR WOMEN SAY MIXOLOGISTS

By Morris Watson.
NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)—Barmaids? Never!

Until the last mug is scuttled, the Bartenders Union will stand on a principle: The hand that rocks the cradle shall never tap the beer keg.

"Take women into the union," snorted President John Speciale of Local No. 3, his expression one of horror. "They've got no business behind a bar!"

"Just imagine"—he waved his hand—"Just imagine a woman going into the ice box and rolling a keg around. No, she couldn't stand it."

That bartending had gone out of saloons and into a lot of strange places, President Speciale was willing to accept. But whether beer comes from a soda fountain, a corner fruit-juice stand, a restaurant counter, or a fire hose, his union will never consent to a feminine tap on the bung or a feminine draw of the studs.

The union, since the legalization of beer last week, has received and filed 150 new applications.

MILLER DECISIONS ANDY BUNDY WITH EARLY KNOCKDOWN

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.—(AP)—Freddie Miller of Cincinnati, holder of the N. B. A. featherweight title, was awarded a decision over Andy Bundy of Portland in the speedy 10-round main event of last night's fight program here. Miller's title was not at stake. Each weighed 127.

Miller clearly earned the decision, but his margin of victory was largely made in the opening and closing rounds Bundy battled the N. B. A. champion on about even terms in the rounds between.

The Cincinnati fighter floored Bundy for a count of nine in the first round. The Portlander answered with a volley of blows to the face and body that apparently had his opponent worried in the third and fourth rounds. But while Bundy, apparently tired, slowed down in the last two rounds, Miller speeded up, finishing as speedily as he started.

Frankie Warneck, 170, won a decision from Georgia Dixon, 167, both of Portland, in the 6-round semi-windup.

Don Fraser, 141, Spokane, was awarded a 6-round decision from Stanley Kransberg, 141, Cincinnati. Young Harris Willis, 140, Longview, Wash., won a technical knockout over Soldier Van Zwick, 141, Vancouver barracks, in the second of 8 scheduled rounds Sammy Goldman, 116, Cincinnati, and Ernie Peters, 120, Chicago, went four rounds to a draw in the preliminary.

ELECTRIC TEST FOR WINE DANGERS JOBS

PARIS.—(AP)—Technocracy is attacking the close corporation of the French winemasters.

Wines now can be scientifically appraised by electricity, a current being passed through the wine and the amount of resistance registered in a telephone headpiece.

If the resistance is slight, the wine has been watered; if there is a four hum, then the wine is prime quality. But the winemasters aren't worrying. Dealers in the provinces still prefer the old-fashioned test of a drop on the skilled tongue.

GIANT SALMON IS HOOKED IN ROGUE

GRANTS PASS, April 12.—(AP)—Ben Harrison, one of the most ardent fishermen in this locality, brought in a 55-pound salmon Tuesday morning, the largest landed in the Rogue in many years.

The fish, which received a warm welcome at Joe Wharton's was landed after a struggle of an hour and a half by Harrison, who was alone in a boat. The salmon lacks one-quarter of an inch of measuring four feet in length and is a beauty, according to all who took a look at it.

On display in the window of Wharton's Sporting Goods store the mammoth salmon attracted a great deal of attention.

PARIS GOWN WEARERS ARE CALLED SLACKERS

ROME.—(AP)—Italian wearers of natty English tweeds and smart Paris gowns have become "slackers" in the latest fascist press campaign.

The Roman daily "Giornale d'Italia" opened an onslaught against "certain moneyed elements who spend their clothes allowances abroad to Italy's moral and financial loss." Other newspapers picked it up.

Unless the "unpatriotic traffic" is stopped "Giornale d'Italia" threatens to publish lists of offenders.

AUSTRALIAN DOGS IN SHOES ACCOUNT HEAT

BRISBANE, Australia.—(AP)—Most of the dogs in the cattle country of north Australia are wearing canvas leather shoes.

The blistering heat of this summer has been so unbearable that the dogs have been unable to run over the baked earth and herding cattle has been difficult without the aid of these trained canines.

Somebody thought of shoes and now almost all the dogs have their feet encased.
