

300 MEN WANTED FOR BIBLE CLASS EASTER MORNING

The aim of Everyman's Bible class is to have 300 men and young men at the meeting to be held Easter Sunday morning at 9:30 in the Hiatio theater, in place of at the courthouse for the Easter service only.

An unusual program has been prepared for this event, consisting of special music by a quartette, singing of old time hymns by the class and an appropriate and inspiring talk by W. R. Baird.

Prepare now to attend this service and help make the 300. You will greatly enjoy the hour.

All men who are regular attendants at Sunday school are especially invited and urged to attend this service on Easter morning. The music alone will well be worth your attending and the entire service will remind you of the old home church where you attended Easter services as a boy.

Program: Praise Prelude — Miss Genevieve Bryan. Song Service—Class. Prayer. Men's Quartet—Earl Foy, M. E. Olsen, Victor Tengwald, J. W. Kirkpatrick. Soprano Solo—Miss Eleanor Curry. Men's Quartet. Easter Message—W. R. Baird. Song. Benediction.

METHODISTS PLAN UNIQUE SERVICES

Good Friday will be observed in a unique way, by the two Methodist congregations of Medford at 8 o'clock, in the evening, the Revs. Alexander Bennett and N. D. Wood conducting a union Lord's Supper sacrament by candle light.

The service will be held in the First Methodist chapel. The table will be set in the form of a cross. No set address is to be delivered, but the beautiful and impressive ritual that is commonly used by both denominations will be read by the two pastors.

The Methodist Church, South, participates for the first time in this observance, though the other church has held such a memorial on Good Friday for several years. All Christians are cordially invited.

EASTER PAGEANT AT ZION SUNDAY NIGHT

The final rehearsal will be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. for all the members of Zion, English Lutheran Sunday school who are to take part in the program and pageant, "The Easter Garden," to be given Easter Day evening at 8 o'clock.

Special Holy Week services are also being held at Zion Church this week, including this evening. The subject of the pastor, Dr. George P. Kabela, at the Good Friday service, B. p. m., will be "The Victory of the Suffering Saviour."

Closing out silk & cloth dresses great bargains from $2.00 to $10.00. ETHELWYN B. HOFFMANN'S.

Many To Attend After-Easter Luncheon

There will be a large attendance Monday afternoon at the after-Easter luncheon to be sponsored by the women of the Sacred Heart church, Catholic, judging from talk about the city today. Activities, which have been at low ebb since opening of the Lenten season, will be received with increased glee the day after Easter and the luncheon at Parish hall will be the first event to mark the renewal of entertaining.

Home cooked luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and will be followed by cards. Contract and auction bridge, progressive, will be played and games will be brightened with other bits of entertainment. All women of the city and neighboring communities are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Stone Feted at Bridge and Shower Miss Thelma Stone, sister of Mrs. Paul Diney of this city, whose marriage to Emmett Knickerbocker of Bend has been announced for Easter Sunday at St. Mark's church, Episcopal, was the inspiration of a lovely bridge party and linen shower given by Mrs. Chas. W. Ellis Tuesday evening. Spring flowers added fragrance and beauty to the rooms, where bridge was played. First prize went to Mrs. William Wood and a guest prize was presented Miss Stone, who was showered with linens. Present were: Miss Stone, Mrs. Diney, Mrs. Wood, the Misses Kathleen and Dorothy Ness, Mildred Dugan, Ruth Kooger, Margaret Wood, Helen Bush and the hostess, Mrs. Ellis.

Mrs. Mason Honored at Birthday Party TALENT—Mrs. Victor Mason was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when a group of friends came in to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Homes, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Householder, Mrs. Clara Mason, Misses Bertha Hayman, Beattie Conner, Verlee and June Conner, Ila and Alie Hill, Phyllis Householder, Lawrence Burnette, L. C. and Wiley Hill. The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Homes.

Barre-Hill on Radio Program This Evening This evening at 6:30 o'clock Western time Medford folk will hear the voice of Barre-Hill broadcast by NBC. The talented young artist recently sang here under auspices of the Civic Music association and was greeted with very enthusiastic applause throughout the valley. Those who heard him will be eager to tune in on tonight's program which thru an error was originally announced for a previous day.

Teachers' Chorus Not Meet Tomorrow There will be no meeting tomorrow of the Jackson County Music Teachers' chorus due to the absence from the city of the director, Miss Harriet Baldwin, who is leaving for Seattle to attend the two-day conference of music supervisors.

Miss Swabauer, Guest in Medford Miss Mollie Swabauer of Salem is a house guest for a short time of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ellis at their home on Queen Anne.

Mrs. Warner Announces Easter Church Lesson Mrs. E. N. Warner, teacher of the Women's Bible class, will give an Easter lesson in the Presbyterian church parlors at 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning and promises that it will be

Lesson of Comfort and Cheer to All

"Shall all die? Are all raised, and what is the state and place of the dead?" are questions which she will answer from the Bible. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Lady Lions Have Pleasant Afternoon, Harding Home The home of Mrs. George Harding was the scene Wednesday of the luncheon and afternoon of cards enjoyed by members of the Lady Lions club.

Covered dish luncheon was served at an attractive table with centerpiece of jonquills and was followed by three tables of bridge. Prizes for high score was awarded Mrs. R. C. Mulholland. Assisting the hostess in entertaining were Mrs. Al Littrell and Mrs. J. Verne Shangle.

Homer Platt Spends Holiday in South Homer Platt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platt, who is a junior at Stanford university, spent the spring vacation this year with relatives and friends in Sacramento and Susanville, Cal., and will not return to Medford until the close of the spring term in June.

Nelsons Arrive For Easter Sunday Wedding Mr. and Mrs. O'Gene Nelson of Rupert, Idaho, have arrived in Medford to be guests at the wedding here Easter Sunday of their sister, Miss Thelma Stone, and Emmett Knickerbocker of Bend.

Mrs. Miller Hostess at Bridge Luncheon Mrs. Mark Miller was hostess yesterday at luncheon and bridge, inviting 12 guests to her home. Prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. Harry Prentice and Mrs. M. M. Morris.

St. Mark's Guild Food Sale Tomorrow Members of St. Mark's Guild will sponsor a food sale tomorrow at the Piggly Wiggly store and promise many dainty foods for the coming Easter day. The charge is in the charge of Mrs. M. W. Wagner and Mrs. H. W. Hamlin.

The W. C. T. U.

By Mrs. Wm. R. Hill.

The Speakeasy Will Remain Facts brought out in the United States senate before the beer bill was passed:

"The New York Tribune in 1911 reported that there were 8000 speakeasies in the city of New York; the Minneapolis Journal in 1908 said there were 4000 speakeasies in Scranton; the Cleveland Free Press in 1915 reported more than 1500 such places in Cleveland."

There is absolutely no ground for thinking that repeal of prohibition will abolish the speakeasy. Wherever profit can be gained by evasion of a license during the coming beer regime the practiced liquor dealer will find a way; wherever the dealer can find a buyer for "illicit hard liquor" we shall find him at his job.

Speakeasy, blind pig, bootlegger are old, old names. They were produced by licensing or by prohibiting of intoxicants; the same causes will keep them alive and alert. Canada and Finland and the United States before prohibition leave no doubt on this point.

The local W. C. T. U. was attended by an exceptionally good crowd of women, there being a few visitors and four new members were reported and paid dues and signed the pledge. They recognize that the call to "Hold Fast" is a hard proposition and one that requires great faith. Miss Evelyn Jennings rendered a piano solo and the rest of the program was devoted to a forum which brought out some fine current editorials and pertinent comments from the best magazines.

The young people who will be represented are as follows: Medford Christian Int., Medford Christian Y. P., Medford Christian Adult, Medford Presbyterian Sr. Int., Medford Presbyterian Jr., Jacksonville Presbyterian Sr. Int., Central Point Federated Sr. Int., Phoenix Presbyterian Sr. Int., Adult and Jr., Ashland Presbyterian Y. P., Ashland Christian Y. P., Ashland Christian Int., Ashland Congregational Y. P., Medford North Methodist, Medford South Methodist, Baptist Adult Y. P., Talent Methodist, Ashland Methodist, Ashland Baptist.

EVANGELIST LEAVITT DRAWING BIG CROWDS AT FIRST CHRISTIAN

Great interest is being shown in the evangelistic services now in progress at the First Christian church. Evangelist Teddy Leavitt is a dynamic speaker. A large crowd heard him speak last night on the subject, "The Power of God's Word." The evangelist proved that God's word was powerful in creation—"God Spoke and it was so." All things were created by him. God's word is powerful as revealed in the Bible. There can be no salvation apart from God's Word. Faith comes by hearing the word of God. God's Word is powerful in cleansing man of sin. God's Word is the sword of the Holy Spirit. God's Word is powerful in prayer. It is by means of God's Word that we shall enter our heavenly home.

Tonight the evangelist will speak on the subject, "Is There a God? Can we Know Him?"

A special musical program has been arranged for Saturday night. Miss Lola Thompson, who is leading the music in an evangelistic meeting in Ashland will be present. She is an accomplished player on the piano-accompanied. She has been with Evangelist Teddy Leavitt in a number of meetings.

The April meeting of Crater Lake Chapter D. A. R. will be held on Saturday the 15th at two o'clock, at Mrs. R. G. Beach's home, 113 Geneva avenue. Following the regular business, candidates will be nominated for chapter officers for next year and delegates to the recent state conference will give their reports.

Mesdames Warren, Sneldeor and Newman and Miss Clara Wood will assist Mrs. Beach.
