Society Recalls Resurrection In Songs of Praise

Today is Easter and as the sun rises to warm flowering trees and gardens which, with the sacred lilies have opened their buds to greet the risen Lord, groups of Rogue River valley folk will be singing prayers in praise of Him, many of them from hilltops fragrant with petals, blown by the April breeze.

Joyousness will capture the world, as proof of His promise is seen again in the leafing trees and people, too, will don fresh attire. They will travel churchward and the happy round of entertaining, subdued by Lent, will be revived.

Tomorrow evening the Easter Monday ball of the American Legion Auxiliary will be attended by guests from all sections of the valley. The same afternoon a luncheon at parish hall and a tea at the T. W. C. A. will celebrate Easter.

Several persons have returned to the city to be with relatives and friends for the glad day. Mrs. Charles Saunders arrived from California a few days ago to be guest of Dr. and Mrs. B. W. Stearns.

Misses Dorothy Roberts and Mary Hayes arrived Friday from the University of Oregon to visit their parents. Mrs. Roberts having returned the same day from a short stay in San Francisco, and a brief visit with her other daughter, Miss Mary Lee, student at Mills college.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schuler are guests today of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Day at their country home in the Same Valley district. Their daughter, Jean, is spending the week-end at the Day ranch. Mrs. W. E. Tully will also be an Easter dinner guest at the Day home today.

Silver Tea, One of Many Events for Day After Easter

All women of Medford are urged to support the Easter Monday silver tea that is being given by the T. W. C. A. at the "Y" house on North Bartlett street. For the pleasure of business women who are unable to attend the musical program later in the afternoon, open house will be held and tea served during the noon hour.

The program to be given during the hours from 2:00 till 5:00 o'clock will include: vocal solos, Mrs. E. C. Mulholland and Mrs. Gerald Barr; piano solos, Mrs. B. D. Mason and Lewis Parker; whirling solo, Elsie M. Wilson, accompanied by Gladys La Marr; and a violin solo by Geraldine Thompson, accompanied by Margaret Childers.

The Young Women's Christian association provides free recreational rooms and study classes for the young women of the valley and any one interested in the work is invited to inspect the headquarters Monday afternoon.

Iverson, who recently returned from the district conference of the Presbyteria at Marshfield will give a report.

The study topic will be "Chosen" and current events will also be included in the program.

Colonel Kelly Speaks To Post-Delphians

The Post-Delphian Study club held an interesting meeting on Thursday when Col. E. E. Kelly addressed the members on Legal and Property Rights of Women and Children. In his talk he brought out many facts of law not generally known and stated that if club women made a united effort some additional desirable legislation for their protection would be passed in this state.

As all voters will be called upon to vote on the sales tax in July the Post-Delphian group is preparing to study this subject and has asked Hon. E. B. Day to speak on this subject April 27, and a special invitation is extended to all women to attend the meeting.

Mrs. H. Brumberger, a Delphian member of Portland, was a guest.

Mrs. Fabric, the president, stated that new desirable books are, "Marie Antoinette," Stefan Ziveli; "South Moon Under," Marjorie K. Rowling; "The Last Adam," John J. Matthews; "The Bupington of Bup," H. G. Wells; "Bula Malarie," Stanley; "Conqueror of a Continent," Jacob Vereton; "British Agent," P. H. Bruce Lockhart; "Adventures of a Black Girl in Her Search for God," Bernard Shaw; "A Primer of Money," Donald Woodward and Marc Rose.

IT'S PLAYTIME AT WHITE HOUSE

Many serious problems are under consideration inside the White House these days, but out on the lawn it's a different story. Here Mrs. Roosevelt is shown with "Stietle" and "Buzzie" Dall, her grandchildren, who are having a big time or swings and slide provided for them. (Associated Press Photo)

Luncheon To Draw Groups To Parish Hall After Easter

Many social groups will be dining and playing cards tomorrow afternoon in the forecast drawn from numerous sets-a-tees for the subject of most of them has been "after Easter festivities", and one of the most popular will be the luncheon and card party at Catholic parish hall.

Noted Educator Entertained at Luncheon Here

For the pleasure of Mrs. Gudrun Thorne-Thomsen of Ojai, Valley school, whose lectures here Thursday evening on modern education was received with great interest by many folk. Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter entertained at luncheon, following the assembly at Valley school.

Guests greeting the noted author and educator at the Carpenter home were: Misses Marie Foss, Naomi Bohman and Jane Dixon and Mesdames L. A. Salade Jr., Paul Scherer, I. E. Schuler, F. Corning Kenly, Donald Clark and Wheldon Biddle Jr.

Mrs. Leonard Carpenter also entertained for Mrs. Thorne-Thomsen Friday, following the story telling hour at the library, during which the well known author of books for children, charmed an audience of over 75 with two little tales, one of Norse mythology, the other a folk story.

Voicing the demands of modern education, which should fit the child to live and to enjoy living by expressing the best characteristics which which nature has endowed him, Mrs. Thorne-Thomsen stated that the Valley school in Medford is meeting those demands in its method of instruction. The need to educate the child to think and to cope with present social conditions and the changes which may evolve from the present structure was stressed by Mrs. Thorne-Thomsen in her lecture Thursday evening. That need is being satisfied at Valley school, she later stated, commending residents of the Rogue River valley for being among the pioneers in an important step forward in the educational field, which has for so many years failed to fit its people to meet the problems, which have again and again thrown the world into depression.

Poochontas Dance Festive Affair

The dancing party, sponsored Friday evening by the Poochontas lodge at Redmen hall was a gay affair of the week. The hall was elaborately decorated for the party, music was furnished by Dickey's orchestra, and a large crowd attended, including several couples from Ashland.

The general committee for the affair was composed of Bernice Wilson, Fidelis Platt and Jack Dooms. The supper committee was headed by Vera Thomas.

WHEN OUR MOTHERS WERE BRIDES

"Man's work was from sun to sun, but woman's work was never done." Electricity has changed all that. Today in the "ALL ELECTRIC" home, electricity cooks, heats the water, operates a refrigerator, washer, iron, vacuum cleaner, radio, sun lamp, percolator, toaster, waffle iron, food mixer and lights the house at an average cost per day equal to the hourly wage of a good servant.

Electricity is as clean as sunshine and by far the cheapest service you can buy. The wise woman of today conserves her health, beauty and time with the clean, cool convenience of electricity.
