NEW STYLE HOLDS SHOWN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., April 18.—(AP)—Introducing several new holds that Portland fans had seldom seen before, Otis Klingman of Oklahoma made his Pacific northwest debut by defeating Flash Kelly of Los Angeles, two falls out of three, in the main event of last night's wrestling match here.

A hold known as the chin lock won the first fall for Klingman in less than ten minutes. Kelly responded with a series of flying reverse headlocks to take the second fall in 16 minutes and even up the match. The newcomer to the northwest, however, put on a leg rocker hold that forced Kelly to the floor in less than four minutes. The match was fast and was little marred by slugging and punching.

Logger Heibert, 161, St. Helens, Ore., took one fall from Hug Adams, 162, Portland, to win the semi-windup. Adams was unable to return after the first fall.

Hal Cox, 156, Denver, defeated Tony Marino, 152, Argentina, in the preliminary, getting two straight falls.

FIFTEEN SALMON TAKEN AT RAPIDS

GRANTS PASS, April 18.—(Spl.)—A report on the fishing at Savage Rapids dam, Sunday, was issued Monday by Rainbow Gibson of Weaska Inn, to the effect that 15 salmon were landed Sunday, and ten others hooked.

The largest salmon, which weighed 37½ pounds, was caught by L. J. Goble of Klamath Falls. Carroll Cornell of this city caught the limit in salmon, the average weight being 25 pounds.

Gibson stated that 7 limits in trout were caught and one fresh run steelhead landed, the latter being caught by Ed Kenstra who resides near Savage Rapids dam.

All the fish reported were landed on bait, as the water was too cloudy for fly fishing.

Ashland Anglers First Into Lake

Bert Freeman and Clarence Woods of Ashland were undaunted by frozen worms for bait, and because of their unconquerable desire for fish, hacked the ice in Fish lake Sunday and returned with the limit of trout. The two men went into the lake Saturday, and are reported as the first there this season.

BOSTON RED SOX NEED ONLY LUCK TO BURN LEAGUE

"Doormat" Club Loses First Three Tilts By Breaks—Best Pitching In Majors Shown By McManus Men.

By Herbert W. Barker
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Nothing so far this major league season has been quite so startling as the magnificent showing of the Boston Red Sox, for years the doormat of the American league.

The standings, coldly mathematical, show the Sox have won only one game in four but with a little luck it might just as well have been four victories and no defeats.

Maybe it won't last long but Manager Marty McManus has been getting just about the best pitching in either league. His moundsmen, called upon to face the clubs picked to finish one-two—the New York Yankees and Washington Senators—have allowed precisely 23 hits in four games, less than six a game.

Breaks Cost Games

The "breaks" cost the Sox their first two games with the Yankees. Paul Andrews, Bob Kline and John Welch held the champions to nine hits while Boston was clouting Vernon Gomez for 12 in the opener but Lou Gehrig's homer with two on enabled the Yankees to win, 4-3. Bob Weiland granted only five safeties in the second battle but Charley Ruffing clouted a homer with the bases filled in the ninth and the champions won again, 6-2. Dusty Rhodes and Kline collaborated on another five-hit masterpiece against Washington Saturday but once more the Sox found lady luck frowning on them and they went down, 2-1.

Such ill fortune couldn't continue indefinitely, and Tom Yawkey's club finally broke into the winning column yesterday, spilling the Senators, 4-2, as Henry Johnson, aided and abetted by Kline and Welch, held Washington to four hits. And in the process, the Red Sox cracked Alvin Crowder's two year winning streak of 16 games in succession.

Tigers Trim Chisox

The weather man permitted playing of only two other games, both in the American league. The Chicago White Sox assaulted Vic Sorrell and Art Herring for five runs in the first inning but Detroit's Tigers came back to tie the count in the eighth and win in the tenth, 8-5, when the young rookie outfielder, Ervin Fox, cracked a home run with two on. Another Rookie, Jo Jo White, climaxed the eighth inning rally that tied the score with a homer with one on.

The St. Louis Browns won their first victory of the season, bunching five hits off Willis Hudlin and Oral Hildebrand for four runs in the sixth and a 4-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. It was Cleveland's first defeat. Irvine Hadley went the route for the Browns and gave up only six hits.

PORTLAND OPENS SEASON AT HOME WITH HOLLYWOOD

(By the Associated Press)

With Oakland and Sacramento making their initial stands away from home and Portland and Seattle appearing in their own parks for the first time this season, the Coast league pennant race enters its third week today.

Two weeks ago the Oaks were remembered as a seventh-place finisher last season and rated a certain second division club this year. Sitting apto the league pile when they take the field against San Francisco's Seals today, Ray Brubaker's hustlers are regarded as the one Coast team most likely to be in the running next October.

The Portland Beavers entertain Hollywood's hard-hitting Stars fresh from a series triumph over Los Angeles that shoved them into a triple tie for second place. The Beavers dropped their series with Oakland and that with San Francisco by single game margins but are due to begin showing some of the form that won them the 1932 pennant.

The last-place Seattle Indians, soundly trounced by Los Angeles and Sacramento in their California appearances, have a busy week in prospect playing hosts to the Missions.

Sacramento and the Angeles, the other two-thirds of the triangular second-place setup, face each other at Los Angeles.

Mat Results

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK.—Jim Browning, 230, Verona, Mo., won by decision over Nick Lutze, 230, California, 54:00 (bout halted by 11 o'clock law).

CAMDEN, N. J.—Carl Davis, 210, Columbus, Ohio, won two out of three falls from Dick Daviscourt, 225, California.

MONTREAL, Que.—Joe Malcewicz, 202, Utica, N. Y., defeated Gus Sonnenberg, 200, Boston, two falls to one.

King Tut Given Technical Kayo

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—(AP)—King Tut, 148 pounds, Minneapolis, won a technical knockout victory over Babe Marino, 151 San Francisco, as the latter's left arm was disabled by a blow in the fifth round of their ten-round match here last night.

Until the right swing crippled his arm, Marino had a wide margin in the battling.

Tolo

TOLO, April 17.—(Spl.)—Ernestine Tracy was honor guest at a birthday dinner Tuesday given by her sister, Mrs. John Bohnert of Central Point.

J. P. Houlihan arrived by stage Wednesday from Los Angeles to be near his wife, who is seriously ill.

An interesting meeting, celebrating Arbor Day, was held by Tolo Community club Thursday. It was salutation to the flag song by all, roll call, "My Favorite Tree, and Why," readings, "What do we plant when we plant a tree," Dorothy Houlihan; "Arbor Day," Mrs. Denver Davis; "He Who Plants an Oak," Mrs. John Green.

A tree contest (nut trees) was enjoyed, in which Mrs. Denver Davis and Dorothy Houlihan tied for honors. Trees, reminiscence of childhood days, brought out much discussion. Refreshments were served. Miss Dorothy Houlihan will be hostess to the club April 27.

Hunting colored eggs was the big event at school Friday, where Mrs. Thurston had an Easter frolic for her pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper and Mrs. Cooper's son, Buddy Reed, of Klamath Falls, will spend Easter with the Denver Davis family.

PLENTY OF BEER FOR THIRSTY ASHLANDERS

ASHLAND, April 18.—(Spl.)—Following the first week of trying to supply Ashland customers with the new 3.2 per cent beer all dealers were well supplied last Saturday as all demands were being met. In practically all places where the beverage is being served increased interest in pretzels and other foods which naturally go with beer, is noticed. No draught beer has yet been received here.

An instant, accurate credit report may be obtained from the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau while your customer waits.

Babe Strolls To First Base Often Statistics Show

NEW YORK, April 18.—(AP)—The demon baseball statisticians are in again:

When Babe Ruth was walked three times in the New York Yankee-Philadelphia Athletic game Sunday, alert figure hounds announced the home-run slugger had been given a total of 1,818 passes in regular season games during his long career. They went even further and figured that those passes represented almost 31 miles of walking for the Babe.

WHITE WILL FACE CLASSY PUNCHER TOMORROW NIGHT

Jack Wills Comes From California To Test Fistic Prowess Medford's Pride —Good Card Lined Up.

Herb White, Medford's pride, will meet a little colored puncher from California here Wednesday in the six round main event at the Armory and Herb will have a new experience in his rapid climb to fistic fame for his dusky opponent not only likes to fight, but can—and how. Jack Wills, the invading battler, although only nineteen, has had 31 fights and has yet to be beaten. Wills, who rates high in California fistic circles, packs a dynamite punch which has floored most of his opponents.

In addition to the classy main event, Promoter Mack Lillard has carded a semi-final which will have the fans on the edge of their seats, with Cort Mitchell, the fast coming local welterweight, swapping socks with Jimmy Hall of Ashland. Hall, in his last appearance in a Medford ring handed Tex Porter a knockout.

McCann Faces Bell

The top preliminary bout will feature Dewey Hill's Prospect pride, Flash McCann against Johnny Bell of Klamath Falls. McCann demonstrated a powerful punch in his battle here last week against Roy Harris, Phoenix lad. Harris will have a chance to redeem himself tomorrow night when he faces Carl Crapo, Klamath Falls fighter.

Lillard Enthused

Lillard was enthusiastic today over the fact that he was able to bring a battler of the class of Wills here to meet Herb White. "I'll stake my reputation as a matchmaker that Jack Wills will make good with Medford fans," said the popular little promoter. "Wills don't know how to stall, and there will be real action every minute he is in there," he continued. "If Herb is able to take Wills he will find an easy path ahead for the bigger money in the fight racket."

Griffin Creek

GRIFFIN CREEK, April 17.—(Spl.)—P. T. A. dance at the packing house Saturday night was attended by a large crowd.

Miss Maxine Boone of Jacksonville was a week-end guest of Miss Mary Fisk.

Committee of the P. T. A. met at Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Durham's April 14 and made plans for the meeting April 28.

There are a number of children out of school with whooping cough. Others on the sick list are Mrs. H. C. Best who has been quite ill for sometime and little Elinor Skeins small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Skeins has bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Cummings, Jr., were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Brown this past week and Monday they left for Klamath county to be gone indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fick and sons were visiting at the J. D. Brown home Sunday.

The Jacksonville P. T. A. has extended an invitation to the Griffin Creek P. T. A. to attend their program April 21. There is no admission charge. The Elks band of Medford is to entertain for an hour.

Mrs. A. E. Simmers was calling on Mrs. H. C. Best Thursday afternoon.

Miss Alice Walton of Jacksonville was a week-end guest of Mrs. Remo Kime.

Mr. and Mrs. George Horner and daughter, Alice, spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Durham and daughter, and all enjoyed a hike on the hill picking flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foreman have their new house nearly completed and expect to be moved in about a week.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, April 17.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Mary Duggan, who recently returned from Eugene, was very ill Monday, necessitating a doctor's attention and is now slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Conley, Mrs. Nate Milkowski and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morgan and baby are visiting this week with relatives at Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Jim Crawford reports the loss of over two dozen jars of home canned meats by a thief who visited her fruit house recently. Several neighbors have reported suspicious actions of night marauders passing through their premises early in the morning.

In a recent county test of dairy herds, Dick Straus held the county record, based on quality and size of herd. Mr. Straus has a milking herd of over forty cows.

O. T. Wilson received a doctor's attention for an injured eye last week, when a piece of emery was removed.

Miss Erma May, Miss Frances Wilson and Albert and Arthur Straus attended the Pomona Grange drill practice at Central Point Monday night.

Members of the Ladies' Industrial club expressed themselves as having had a wonderful time when entertained at Mrs. Joe McKnight's at Gold Hill Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. McKnight and her daughter, Miss Thelma.

In spite of the low price received for turkeys last year, there will apparently be about the same output this year from this district.

Meteorological Report

Eden Precinct

EDEN PRECINCT, April 18.—(Spl)—Frank Swingle, whose land lays east of Phoenix, has opened up a ledge which promises to be a paying proposition. The ledge, he says, has laid exposed many years but there had never before been found any gold on the east side of Bear creek. Valuable coal deposits are located just north of the Swingle ledge and oil in small quantities has shown in wells in the locality.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Pimkston of Thompson creek came out to the White Wing poultry farm Saturday and took home a lot of baby chicks.

Clinton Carey, who has been bedfast since October, is able to walk short distances this past week. He enjoys company now and his many old friends visit him daily.

Miss Bertha Hayman of Talent visited at the Noah Chandler home last Thursday.

Colver Furry went to Phoenix Friday to see about the ditch that was being put across the small tract which he is farming this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Parker of Yreka and Mr. and Mrs. Thurber Cole of Ashland called at the C. Carey home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Donna Graffes, Mrs. Edmonia Anderson and son Carl, F. M. Sheets, Mrs. Otto Caster and Harry Barneburg were visitors in Medford Saturday.

Mr. Holdbrook and family and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Holdbrook Sr., who are renting the former A. S. Furry place on the highway south of Phoenix, went to Klamath county Sunday where they visited another son of Mr. Holdbrook's.

Many of the gardeners are going to Klamath county to purchase their seed potatos because they feel they are paying exhorbitant prices for them after they reach the retail market in Medford. It is reported.

The gathering for Easter services on Rader hill Sunday morning was not as largely attended as it was expected, owing to the disagreeableness of the early morning, but there was a good sized crowd and a beautiful service. At the church in the morning there was a large crowd and a fine program. The cantata in the evening was beautiful and impressive.

The mail on the rural route from Talent will be one hour later now, due to the change in the train schedule. The carrier will not leave the office now until 10:30.

Mrs. C. Carey reports a record of snow falling in the valley in 1921 where it drifted against buildings eight inches, on April 17. It was in the from of hail, Mrs. Carey said. "I have never seen real snow as late as this before."

E. A. Parker and Mr. Holdbrook have cleaned out the ditch and have had the water on their gardens this past week.

Miss Irene Standley celebrated her birthday Sunday with a dinner. Only the family and a few guests were present, but a most enjoyable time was had. The table was beautiful. A large angel food cake graced the center. Several gifts were displayed by the honor guest.

The many old friends of Mrs. Lily Blackwood, are glad to see her again in her old familiar place at church. Mrs. Blackwood spent the winter with her granddaughter, Mrs. George Jackson, at Pomona, Calif.

Thimble club of Oak Circle. Neighbors of Wooderaft of Phoenix, spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Louise Colver.

There will be an important meeting of Oak Circle at the Grange hall in Phoenix Thursday afternoon and all of the older members especially, are asked to be in attendance. Matters pertaining to a special assessment will be explained and plans to meet emergency measures for the next two or three months will be talked over.
