The British government has contended that its prime concern was the safety of its subjects in Russia.
On the basis of current trade figures the embargo, which becomes effective April 28, will bar imports aggregating 9,600,000 pounds (currently $33,600,000) annually.

The state today began its fight against Winnie Ruth Judd's attempt to escape the gallows through an insanity plea, by presenting testimony of Gordon Wallace, Phoenix auperior court clerk, as to evidence given by the condemned woman at the preliminary hearing of John J. Halloran, wealthy lumberman, in the "trunk murder" case.

Charges of being an accessory in the case against Halloran, were dismissed several weeks ago after a hearing at Phoenix. Mr. Judd, who is to hang April 28, unless after the present hearing, she is found insane accused Halloran of aiding her in disposal of the bodies of Agnes Annel LeRoi and Hedvig Samuelson, which Halloran denied.
