GINN WILL COACH FOOTBALL AT G. P. FOR COMING YEAR

GRANTS PASS, April 10. (Sp.) - Re-election, with practically no change of the entire teaching force of the Grants Pass school system, and a decision that not more than ten per cent reductions in the salary scale paid are to be considered at budget-making time, were the outcome of a special meeting of the Grants Pass school board which went over the qualifications of the various teachers as shown by their 1932-33 records and considered various items of school costs.

The most-debated change made in the teaching staff was the elevation of Dale P. Ginn of the high school faculty to the position of football coach for the 1933-34 school year. Frank Beer, present coach, was declared by the board and by Superintendent Cramer to be an excellent teacher, and was re-elected to the teaching staff with the arrangement of his schedule to remain for consideration at a later date. One controversy at the board meeting was over economies through the restriction of music in the high and grade schools and trade work in the junior high. These points came to a vote and it was decided to drop the music supervisor work carried on by Miss Melba Macy, continuing her at the same time in the school system in a straight teaching program probably taking the place of the Lincoln school of Miss Alice M. Pool, resigned.

FEAR WHITE OVER-MATCHED IN TONIGHTS ARMORY BOUT

LOCAL LAD FACES CRUCIAL TEST ON ARMORY PROGRAM

Bout Tonight With Wills Will Be Supreme Effort for Fast Coming Fighter - Other Bouts Have Class

Main Event 6 Rounds 135 Lbs. K. O. Herb White vs. Jack Wills. Butte Falls, Oakland. Semi-Final, 6 Rounds, 150 Lbs. Carl Mitchell vs. Jimmy Hall. Medford. Special Event, 4 Rounds, 145 Lbs. Johnny Bell vs. Flash McCann. Klamath Falls. Prospect. Preliminary, 4 Rounds, 110 Lbs. Carl Crapo vs. Roy Harris. K. Falls. Phoenix.

Followers of Herb White's rise to stardom are worried for fear the local lad is over-matched in his bout tonight at the armory with Jack Wills, colored Californian. The match, which is billed for six rounds, will be a crucial test for the little Medford fighter, and should he stow the negro lad away, White will be slated for the larger purses to be garnered in city rings.

In addition to the White-Wills brawl, Promoter Mack Lillard has lined up a sterling supporting card with Carl Mitchell, Medford, and Jimmy Hall, Ashland, in a six-round semi-windup at 150 pounds; a special event of four rounds between Johnny Bell, Klamath Falls, and Flash McCann, Prospect, at 145 pounds and Carl Crapo, Klamath Falls, and Roy Harris, Phoenix, at 140 pounds, also fighting four rounds.

Lillard today disclosed plans for a lightweight elimination tournament to attract some of the best talent pushing talent on the coast. The promoter has in mind such boys as Ah Wing Lee, Mickey Dolan, Ad Cadena, Frankie Monroe and others of like class to show here with the eventual winner of the series to meet some outstanding boy, or the winner of the second fight bouts. Lillard is especially anxious for White to surmount the Jack Wills hurdle tonight so that he may be a participant in the proposed elimination tournament.

Bargain prices will prevail again tonight and a crowd greater than that which saw last week's fine card is anticipated.

FRISBIE AND BELCASTRO MAY SETTLE WITH FISTS

Pete Belcastro, belligerent Italian grappler and Ray Frisbie, Medford's wrestling ironman may settle their differences with the padded gloves, according to Promoter Mack Lillard who has agreed to match the hostile pair for a boxing bout next Wednesday. In their recent match Frisbie took the Italian for the odd fall and the loser has since cried long and loudly that Ray laid him low with a blow from his fist.

Frisbie has been ready and willing to take on Belcastro for another match, winner-take-all. Belcastro, however, according to Lillard, will have none of the grip and grime game with the Italian but wants to settle the matter with gloves. Belcastro, who is one of the roughest wrestlers that ever pulled on a pair of fists, found Frisbie able to weather the rough going and dish up a bit of dirt on his own account. This may be the reason the Italian would like to try new tactics in the roped arena.

The promoter is nothing loath for the two to try conclusions with their fists but insists that the match must be conducted under strict Marquis of Queensberry rules which forbid boxing in Oregon. Lillard is thinking of placing two referees in the ring if the bout is signed for next Wednesday and it has been suggested that at least one of the arbiters be armed with an axe.

Manley quickly in hurling duel.

FIRPO FINISHES GOMEZ, EARNSHAW

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10. (AP) - Unleashing a fast barrage of steaming lefts to the jaw, Young Firpo of Burke, Idaho, won a technical knockout over George Manley of Denver in the first round of the scheduled 10-round main event of last night's fight card here. Firpo weighed 175, and Manley 172.

The fight was hardly under way when Firpo lashed out a long left square to Manley's jaw. Manley dropped to the floor. At the count of six he rose shakily to his feet, away and weaving. Firpo rushed in and floored his opponent again with another punch to the jaw. Manley again struggled to his feet, but he appeared glassy-eyed, and his hands were down. Referee Tom Louttit quickly stepped in to stop the fight and save Manley from needless punishment.

Dave Humes, 169, Port Townsend, Wash., took a decision from Tiger Roy Williams, 168, Chicago, in the 6-round semi-windup.

George Anderson, 162, Cordova, Alaska, was awarded a four-round decision over Ray Morgan, 168, Portland.

Paul Karoh, 152, Portland, knocked out Tiger McGloin, 154, Hainier, Ore., in the second of four scheduled rounds. Eddie Sims, 125, Portland, knocked out Jimmy La Verne, 125, Longview, Wash., in the first round of the scheduled four-round opener.

BEAVERS DEFEAT STARS, 4 TO 3, IN FIRST HOME TILT

By the Associated Press. Oakland was still two up on the rest of the Coast league today and Sacramento was alone in second place after a day in which batemen up and down the coast pounded league pitchers for a total of 99 hits.

Portland's home town debut was a happy one, with more than 10,000 fans passing through the turnstiles to watch the Beavers turn back Hollywood 4-3. The 1932 champions put over the two winning runs in the sixth when Jim Keesey hit for the circuit and Blackberry and Palmisano singled. Batteries: Hollywood, Page, Westel and Basler; Portland, Gibson and Palmisano.

The Missions proved unruly guests at Seattle's welcome home party, handing the Indians a 16 to 2 walloping.

San Francisco's toilers had about as bad a day as any, trying to stop the energetic Oaks, Zini, and Douglas ran into a barrage of 18 base hits that netted nine runs, and the final score read 9 to 5 for Oakland.

Sacramento ended the triple tie for second place by shoving Los Angeles down a step with a 17-7 beating while Portland was trimming Hollywood, the third sharer of runner-up honors.
