

WHITE SOX SHOW REAL THREAT ON BATTING TALENT

Club Which Experts Failed to Figure in Big League Picture Outfitting All Other Major Aggregations

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox, a club which did not figure to go anywhere at all in the American league this year, has responded to owner Lou Comiskey's lavish outlay of cash for new playing talent by assuming a distinctly threatening attitude toward the leaders.

It still is too early to say how far the Sox will go, but the fact remains that so far they have outitied every other major league club by a wide margin and have climbed to the dizzy heights of second place. It was more or less expected that their attack would improve with the acquisition of Al Simmons, Mule Haas and Jimmy Wykes from the Athletics, but no one counted on the Sox getting enough pitching to make the clouting useful.

Pitchers Also Good

In six games, the Pale Hoos have confounded the critics who held that attitude not only by pounding out 63 hits for 35 runs but by producing several hurlers who could hold their own and win game, even when the opposition wasn't overpowered.

Yesterday, Ted Lyons turned in a three-hit masterpiece. Only one game so far has been lost through failure of the mound department.

Lyons, making his second start in a comeback campaign after two bad seasons, pitched almost perfect ball and the Sox turned back the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 0.

In the only other game played yesterday, the Brooklyn Dodgers displayed some more of the smart baseball with which they have been amazing the National league to take a 10-inning decision from the Boston Braves, 2 to 1.

SMITH-ELWOOD HIGH BOWLERS

The Smith-Elwood bowling duo made a strong bid Tuesday night for the weekly prizes in the Elks doubles tourney rolling 1159 for high match total and 402 for high single game.

George Eads, one of the lodge alley news topped 300 pins in his three games for individual honors.

FRISBIE GETS ULTIMATUM FOR GO WITH BELCASTRO

Promoter Mack Lillard today issued an ultimatum to Ray Frisbie, Medford's grappling fireman, that the local boy must either accept the challenge of Pete Belcastro for a bout with the gloves or forget his grudge against the Sacramento Italian as no more wrestling matches between the two will be carded here.

The pair have met twice on the grunt and grimoise mats and have used everything on each other except the ring posts. The bellicose Belcastro wants to settle the matter with the gloves. Lillard is nothing loath to stage the affair but insists it be conducted strictly according to boxing commission rules. Frisbie seemingly has a healthy respect for the Italian's knock experience in the leather pushing racket and would rather wrestle.

WHITE WINS NOD FROM NEGRO LAD TO UPSET 'DOPE'

Jack Willis, highly touted colored lad from California took a neat pasting at the hands of Herb White, local lad, in their six round main event at the Armory last night, and had the fight gone much farther would undoubtedly have been on the receiving end of a knockout punch White upset the "dope" with one of the cleverest exhibitions of his meteoric career, carrying the fight to the negro from the opening bell and landing a straight left frequently which had his dusky opponent baffled.

Willis had a shade in a couple of early rounds but White shot home a short right to the solar plexus which took much of the snap out of his adversary along about the middle of the "fascas" and from then on the little home town boy was master of the attention.

Eddie Jonas, Ashland Normal school student gave a fancy exhibition of flatstick in his semi-windup affair with Cort Mitchell, stalwart Medford man. Referee Les Weiss declaring the bout a draw, Jonas spotted Mitchell a bit in weight and danced about his stocky opponent like a ballet master but ran into several solid punches which allowed him down and Mitchell looked good in the closing rounds.

Johnny Bell, elongated Klamath battler, had Flash McCann, Prospect pride in a bad way from the starting going in their four rounder. McCann was out-science and out-reached but not out-gamed. Despite the fact that he was practically out on his feet after the first frame, when he was knocked down, the Prospect lad kept boring in and gave one of the greatest exhibitions seen here in many a moon. Bell was given the decision.

In a four-round curtain raiser Roy Harris, chunky Phoenix boy won the nod over Carl Crapo, Klamath Falls. The pair threw leather at each other until both were in a state of exhaustion. Few of the haymakers landed and it was probably just as well as the powerful swings which were launched by both boys would have laid an elephant low had they landed.

DUCKS WIN, 11-2, OVER HOLLYWOOD ON GOOD HURLING

(By The Associated Press)

Hotly pursued by the second-place Sacramento Senators, Oakland today was running away from the other entries in the coast league pennant race. With the season less than three weeks old, the Oaks led the Senators by two games and the quartet of clubs tied for third place by four games.

Marking up its second series victory over Hollywood, 11-2, Portland climbed into the four-way third place tie. Cohen went the full distance for the winners, keeping the 9 star hits well scattered.

Oakland gave the San Francisco Seals another four-run lead yesterday and then drubbed them 17-7. Curt Davis, most dependable of Seals hurlers last season and one of four to face the Oaks yesterday, was charged with the defeat.

Los Angeles pitching continued to appeal to Sacramento batters, and they made it two straight over the Angels, 9-4.

The Missions outlasted Seattle in a 10-inning game to win 4-3 and recorded their seventh victory in their last nine starts. Bill Wallera, Red third baseman, homered to score the final run.
