CHISOX CARRYING DISTINCT THREAT IN EARLY SEASON

Addition of Heavy Hitters Gives Pale Hose Eight Out of Eleven Games to Date—Good Hurling Also Aids

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer).

On the basis of the early returns, the Chicago White Sox threaten to become a source of considerable embarrassment to the rest of the American league.

Thanks principally to the addition of such batmen as Al Simmons and Mule Haas, the pale hose had won eight games out of 11 from the St. Louis Browns, Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers today were in a virtual tie with the New York Yankees and generally were getting much better pitching than anyone had reason to anticipate.

Moundmen Adequate. Lack of pitching, the experts said, would ruin Chicago's hopes of pushing into the first division. It still may be, but so far Lew Fonseca's moundmen have been more than adequate. They've allowed only 34 runs and 73 hits in 11 games while the Sox were scoring 52 runs on 101 hits.

They made it three in a row over the Indians yesterday winning a 5-4 decision as Viv Frazier and Joe Heving outpitched Wes Ferrell. Frazier allowed only seven hits in the first innings but weakened in the ninth and Heving came into stop an Indiana rally one run short of a tie.

Meanwhile the Yankees were suffering their second successive defeat at the hands of the Washington Senators, 11-10.

Fox on Batting Spruce. Jimmie Fox went on a batting spree, clouted his third homerun, three doubles and single and led the Philadelphia Athletics to a 16-10 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Detroit made it three in succession over the Browns, 4-3.

The National league program was restricted to two games, the New York Giants beating Brooklyn, 4-0, and the Phillies noing out Boston's Braves, 6-5, in 12 innings.

Carl Hubbell gave Brooklyn only four hits in winning his second successive shutout while the Giants made good use of the eight hits they made off Joe Shaupe. Hubbell has pitched 30 innings this season and allowed only one run.

EAGLE POINT HIGH TRIMS SAMS VALLEY

SAMS VALLEY, April 25.—(Sp.)—While the Eagle Point high school baseball team walloped Sams Valley boys on the local diamond to the tune of 33 to 7 Friday afternoon, the Table Rock grades battled in vain against the Agrade graces, losing by a score of 2 to 1 at Table Rock.

GERMAN JEWS BARRED FROM BOXING RACKET

BERLIN, April 25.—(AP)—A new climax in the complete ostracism of Jewish athletes from organized German sports life has been reached by the Verband Deutscher Faustekmpfer, the Union of German Professional Boxers.

The organization issued regulations designed to eliminate Jews from the athletic industry, thereby joining the movement that resulted in the dropping of Daniel Prenn from the Davis cup tennis team, forced the resignation of Theodor Lewald, chairman of the German Athletic federation, and to a lesser degree has resulted in bans on all foreign competitors. Lewald, the "William Muldoon" of German sports, is part Jewish, but the family has been Christian for more than 100 years.

With full sympathy of the Nazi press, which commented that the boxers did all the work anyway, while managers, trainers and doctors or lawyers "got all the gray," the message of the boxers' union issued the following decrees: "We don't belong to anything like that," Jacobs said in Portland. "We are ruled out of the lists of members; all honorary members of Jewish blood are asked to hand in their cards; every German boxer is ordered to tear up any contract with a Jewish manager; Jews are barred from the club rooms; Jewish capital is barred from participation in the financing of boxing shows; union members are forbidden to engage Jewish doctors, lawyers or lawyers, all foreigners are hereby suspended until further notice; all club officials, not in harmony with the new Germany should resign; all members out of harmony with the new movement should also quit; men in the confidence of the government are to sit in at all meetings."

Max Schmeling, in Portland, Me., with Joe Jacobs his Jewish manager, refused to comment. On his return here recently from Germany, discussing the Nazi movement against Jews, he insisted that "sports have nothing to do with a national movement of this kind."

"We don't belong to anything like that," Jacobs said in Portland. "We simply ignore it."

Twenty-four rounds of slam-bang boxing are scheduled for tomorrow night at the Armory on Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly card. The main event will be something out of the ordinary for fight lovers, as a pair of wrestlers, Ray Friebe, Medford fireman, and Pete Belcastro, Sacramento, Italian, will don the gloves to settle in 10 rounds or less, a long-held enemy. Friebe has defeated the California in a pair of grappling matches but Belcastro is still unconvinced that the fireman is the better man and insists on trying conclusions with the gloves. Whatever this pair may lack in science will be more than made up in desire to rub each other out as quickly as possible.

In addition to the Friebe-Belcastro tangle, Lillard has lined up a semi-final which should carry any fight card. Spider Bones McElroy, pride of Pelican City, will meet Tony Ortiz Klamath Falls, in six rounds, and as both boys are highly touted for their aggressive style and ability to "take em," the fight will be well worth seeing.

A special event of four rounds will pit Ray Harris, stocky Phoenix, Ind., and Neldo Ginnotti, Pelican City, battler, and a four-round curtain-raiser has been arranged between Emerson Babb Medford, who would "rather fight than eat," and Red Melhorn of Klamath Falls, who has a reputation with his fists in his own home town.

OPPORTUNITY POUNDING AT DOORS BABE AND AL

By PAUL MICKELSON (Associated Press Sports Writer).

CHICAGO.—(AP)—Opportunity isn't just knocking at the doors of Al Simmons and Babe Herman. It's pushing the door down to get in.

Don't be surprised if Al and Babe settle right down in Chicago after their baseball playing days are over and become political bosses. They've got the chance of a lifetime.

Seldom have any baseball players in big time, where you're a great guy one day and a terrible bum the next, been offered the opportunity of Al and Babe to become big town heroes.

Down at Comiskey Park, where Al will wag his bat for the downtrodden White Sox, they're crying for a slugger of his proportions. Up north at Wrigley Field the Cub fans have a full season's supply of straw hats to fling in tribute to someone who can take Hack Wilson's old hero role.

Not since the World Series scandal of 1919 bubbled out such batting immortals as "Sholessie Joe" Jackson, Nap Lajoie and "Buck" Weaver have White Sox fans probably the most rabid in baseball, had much of a chance to go "loco" over a hitter with a real punch. Teddy Lyons, a great pitcher with a tail and club, was and is a great hero, but hardly anything compared to what Simmons can be if he delivers like he did at Philadelphia.

Another big incentive for Simmons is that he's the baseball immortal of Milwaukee, some 90 miles north of Chicago, and that city's fans already are planning to descend on Comiskey Park to swell the cheering sections. Since Al became a star in the major's he's always had his eye on the big opportunity here.

Wrigley field, with its short right field fence, is built to order for Herman, who always got a salvo of cheers in the enemy uniform there. The place hasn't been quite the same either since Wilson left. Old Reliable Riggs Stephenson is the hero of the conservative fans, but the bleachers haven't had a real thrill since the pudge Hack left the premises. In Herman, who can go Hack one better in trick fielding and somersaults and ramming free base balls into the bleachers, they will have their man.

Chicago goes for star athletes in a big way, so the mention of a political future for Al and Babe isn't mere talk. Hardly an athlete of yesterday has failed to make progress here. Two former Notre Dame football players are on the city council, while the political lineup from top to bottom is studded with former greats of the sports world.

KLINGMAN PINS BILLY POWERS

PORTLAND, Ore., April 24.—(AP)—Using a series of reverse chin locks each time, Otis Klingman of Oklahoma City defeated Billy Powers of Denver with two straight falls in the main event of last night's wrestling matches here.

The Oklahoman won the first fall in 12 minutes and the second in ten minutes. He weighed 160 pounds and Powers, 150.

Bulldog Jackson of Klamath Falls won the semi-windup from Cliff
