WRESTLERS TO DON GLOVES FOR FEATURE ON FIGHT CARD

BELCASTRO AND RAY FRISBIE TO SETTLE GRUDGE

Semi-Windup Also Promises Fans Plenty Of Action—Balance Of Card Willing Mixers—First Bout 8:30.

Tonight's Fight Card. Semi-windup—Spider "Bones" McElroy, Pelican City, vs. Tony Ortiz, Klamath Falls. Special event (four rounds)—Roy Harris, Phoenix, vs. Neldo Ginnotti, Pelican City. Preliminary (four rounds)—Emerson Babbs, Medford, vs. Red Melhorn, Klamath Falls.

Win, lose or draw, in his battle tonight with Ray Frisbie, Medford fireman, Pete Belcastro has lost one perfectly good manager, and also his trainer. The bellcoke Mr. Belcastro, who hails from Sacramento and is a wrestler by profession, explains the situation thusly: "My manager gets me a couple of wrestling matches here with this Frisbie guy, which I lose by some funny work on the part of Frisbie. So I challenge the town boy to a fight with the gloves and my manager says if I go into it he will be strictly according to the rules. Frisbie's ears down than have 40 managers."

Frisbie and Belcastro are scheduled for 10 rounds as the main event on tonight's Armory card, and Promoter Mack Lillard says most anything can happen in the bout—and probably will be strictly according to the rules. The local fans have had the opportunity to see a pair of grunt and grimace experts forsake headlocks and toeholds for uppercuts and haymakers. Despite the fact that the men are in deadly earnest in their desire to flatten each other, the bout will be strictly according to the rules, pushing jaws and Referee Les Wales will have reinforcements in the presence of Jack McCarthy, light heavyweight, to help maintain "law and order" in the ring.

In addition to the main event Lillard takes especial pride in bringing to Medford a pair of Klamath Falls fighters who are sure-fire crowd pleasers. Spider "Bones" McElroy of Pelican City and Tony Ortiz, Klamath Falls will battle in the semi-windup, scheduled for six rounds. The pair met once before in Klamath Falls, McElroy gaining a close decision in a bout which kept the lumber metropolis fans agog for weeks after. Ortiz, who has been seen in action here before is to square the count with the "Spider" tonight.

A special event of four rounds will pit Roy Harris, Phoenix prize, in a four-rounder with Neldo Ginnotti, Pelican City. Harris has been displaying a powerful punch in his recent fights here and tonight will meet a boy who is somewhat better than the opponents he has faced. For a curtain-raiser Lillard has matched Emerson Babbs, rough and ready scrapper of Medford, and Red Melhorn, Klamath Falls, exponent of the haymaker type of battling, in a four-round affair.

Tonight's show will open at 8:30, with prices on depression basis.

Little Bryan Grant, Jr. (left) Atlanta, and big Lester Stoeven California, caused one of the biggest upsets in the North and South tournament when they captured the double title from George Lett, Jr. and John Van Ryn, former Davis cup doubles team.

Most Yankee-Senator games since then have been marked by harsh "riding" and occasional accusations of spiking that grew frequent during the recent series. There was no violence, however, until Ben Chapman of the Yankees and Buddy Myer in 'the fourth inning yesterday when the Washington second-sacker was trying to make a throw to first for a double play. Myer took a kick at Chapman, who came up with his fists flying. Before it was all over the two original combatants and Earl Whitill and Fred Walker, who took important roles in a second outburst, had been banished from the game, police reserves had been called in to restore order, and several of the more active fans who joined the fray had been arrested.

CLOTHING EXCHANGE RECEIVES SUPPLY OF GARMENTS FOR MEN

A fair supply of men's clothing was reported available at the Welfare Exchange, operated by the relief committee in the old city hall yesterday and all persons interested in obtaining clothing are urged to call at the exchange Saturday, which will be the last day in operation. The exchange is also open today. Many workers are on hand for the two closing days and it is hoped that all persons in need may be reached before the doors close Saturday afternoon. Miss Helen Carlton, chairman of the exchange, stated yesterday. The relief shop will be closed for the season at least and no plans for a future reopening have been made. A report on the extensive and splendid service given the county through this medium will be published at an early date. The policy adopted at the exchange has encouraged the desirable tendency on the part of needy people to work for what they receive, making it easier for them to ask and more pleasant for less unfortunate people to give.

THREE PLAYERS SUSPENDED FOR FISTIC FLARE-UP

Myer, Chapman And Whitehill Center Of Riot In Game Between Yankees And Senators—Arrests.

CHICAGO, April 26.—(AP)—President William Harridge of the American league today indefinitely suspended Buddy Myer, Washington infielder; Ben Chapman, New York outfielder; and Earl Whitehill, also of the Senators for their participation in a fight which broke up in a riot during the Washington-New York game yesterday. The makings of another cause celebre in baseball were seen today in the violent fistic flare-up which marked the concluding game of the opening series between the New York Yankees and Washington Senators. The fight, believed in the major leagues in many seasons, came as a late aftermath of the clash between Bill Dickey, Yankee catcher, and Carl Reynolds, then playing for Washington, last July 4. Clashes Often Near.

ALLOW SCHEMELING TO RETAIN JACOBS

BERLIN, April 26.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, former heavyweight boxing champion, will be allowed to retain his Jewish manager, Joe Jacobs, for all bouts outside Germany, Wolfgang Mathes, secretary of the German boxing commission, said today. Mathes banned the ruling on Jacobs to clarify the German ban on Jews in sports, following the action yesterday of the Union of German Professional Boxers in promulgating a set of rules barring Jews from membership and any activities.

GRAPPLER KAYOED BY OWN EFFORTS

SALEM, April 26.—(AP)—Wildcat Pete, Eugene waterweight, let Cyclone Mackey of Salt Lake City defeat himself in a wrestling match here last night. The deciding fall went to Pete when he dodged a Sonnenberg and Mackey crashed into Referee Vern Harrington to be knocked out cold. Bulldog Jackson of Klamath Falls failed to appear against Jimmy Adams in the scheduled preliminary bout in Medford. Chas. Olson, chairman of the Salem boxing and wrestling commission, said Jackson raised numerous objections including Referee Vern Harrington of Portland, and then walked off. Olson said Salem was through with Jackson's wrestling.

JOLLY TIMERS Artisans To Give Dance Thursday

The Artisan Jolly Timers' club will hold its regular monthly dance on Thursday night, April 27th, at the Knights of Pythian hall at Fifth and Grape streets. Regular meetings of the lodge are held on second Thursday nights of each month. Attractive programs are arranged for each meeting, and no effort is spared in making them a source of much pleasure for everyone. Master Artisan Edward Gould, requests that all members be present whenever possible. A covered wagon contest is now in progress and going over big. Unusual interest is being shown. The teams are off with an excellent start with Constance Germany and Willard Benford as captains. Al Fvake, district manager for the Artisan Life association in southern Oregon, is much encouraged at results. Jolly Timers' club consists of a group of lively, up-to-the-minute young people banded together for the purpose of conducting good, clean, social dances.

WILLAMETTE ATHLETES CAPTURE TRACK MEET

MONMOUTH, April 26.—(AP)—Although Hart took five firsts for Oregon north the teachers lost a track meet to Willamette University 59 to 62 here yesterday. The meet was not decided until the relay was run, the Bearcats however, being an easy winner in it. Willamette won all the races from the 440 up and swept the two mile. Skin diseases successfully treated, 205 Liberty Building, Medford, 624.

MOHLER MAKING GREAT SHOWING AS ANGEL ROOK

(By the Associated Press) Orrille Mohler, whose pounding feet carried him to U. S. C. gridiron fame, seems destined for 1933 Coast League rookie honors. Placed in nomination by a 4.80 batting average and fine-fielding performance, the youthful Los Angeles shortstop tracked out two doubles yesterday to help his mate halt Oakland's pennant drive, 8-7.

Woolly unmindful of the 1932 pennant waving above the Portland stadium, the Missions battered the Bearcats into submission, 13-4. Portland batters nicked Loeber for 14 hits, Walters, Dahlgren and Eckhardt of the Reds hit homers. Four Hollywood runs in the seventh inning and two more in the ninth gave the Stars the opening game of their series at Seattle, 5-4, and shored the Indians deeper into the league cellar. San Francisco's Seale knew today the reports of Sacramento's hitting prowess were not exaggerated. Meeting the Senators in the series opener, the Seale took a 10-0 bating. Only one Senator failed to hit safely.
