

GIANTS' PITCHERS BEAR DOWN WHEN GOING GETS HARD

Unsuspected Power Called Forth by Manager Bill Terry—Hubbell Allows One Run in 32 Innings

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer.

The boys who follow National League developments are beginning to suspect that Bill Terry, manager of the New York Giants, has something up his sleeve besides a broken wrist. And that something seems to be unsuspected pitching power that he can summon forth almost every day.

When they started the season the Giants looked no stronger than the club which finished tied for sixth place last year, what with Freddy Lindstrom gone, the untied Blonds Ryan at short and the pitching staff apparently no stronger. But now, even with Sam Leslie playing first, the Giants have climbed to the top of the National League standing.

Hubbell Airtight. Terry has found one great weapon in his star outpaw, Carl Hubbell, who has allowed only one run in 32 2-3 innings. In addition, in the last three days, the Giants have demonstrated that Hal Schumacher could pitch a five-hit game; that Leroy Parmelee could come through with a one-hit performance and finally that Ray Starr, the ex-Cardinal, can do some effective hurling.

Except for some wildness Starr pitched six good innings against the Phillies, allowing only four hits before he retired for a pinch hitter and Hubbell came in for three scoreless innings to ring up his third victory as the Giants opened up with a three run outburst in the eighth inning, won, 5 to 2, and climbed into first place.

Cubs Beat Pirates. The Chicago Cubs shoved Pittsburgh out of the lead, beating the Pirates, 3 to 2, on the strength of a big fourth inning as Guy Bush and Bill Swift fought it out on the hill.

Brooklyn beat the Boston Braves, 1-0, in the season's third mound duel between Walter Beck and Ed Brandt. Brandt gave only four hits to seven off Beck, but the Dodgers got one effective cluster. The St. Louis Cardinals took their first decision from Cincinnati, bunting four singles with a walk and a fly for three runs in the ninth, to win, 3-2.

Three four-hit pitching feats and one slugfest, which saw the Chicago White Sox, led by their new "dynamite trio," Al Simmons, Mule Haas and Jimmy Dykes, blast out a 10-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers, marked the American league day.

Yankees Hit Homers. Charley Ruffing pitched four-hit ball for the champion New York Yankees, and beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-2, as Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth and Earl Combs all hit homers off Sugar Cain.

Ed Lulike, Washington's 21-year-old right handed rookie turned in a four-hit game against the Boston Red Sox in his first start, winning 3-2 despite a burst of wildness that forced him out in the ninth. George Blaeholder held the Cleveland Indians to four safeties and the St. Louis Browns won, 3-2, with the aid of some lusty clotting by Jim Levey.

TERROR OF RODEOS TO HORSE HEAVEN

BILLINGS, Mont., April 28.—(AP)—Old Buttery, for 15 years one of the biggest of equine names in the rodeo world, is dead at the ranch of Leo Cremer near Shawmut, Mont.

In his heyday, the famous white horse was considered one of the most sensational buckers ever to come out of a chute.

For seven years, according to Cremer, Buttery was not ridden for a single qualifying ride.

CLUB AND SCHOOL TENNIS STARS TO COMPETE SUNDAY

The Medford Tennis club meets the high school Sunday, in the initial appearance of both teams for the current season.

As a first step it is an ambitious one for the high youngsters who will be meeting the strongest club team yet assembled, while they, in direct comparison, have not a single monogram winner in their ranks, and are starting with a virtually all-sophomore lineup. With this doleful outlook the high school will be fortunate if they succeed in annexing any of the seven singles or three doubles engagements listed on the day's card, but they should absorb some valuable experience for the schedule confronting them.

H. G. Wilson, veteran club star, announced that the clubbers would start in the order named: Boggs, Gillis, Deuel, Patton, Butler, Pruitt and Glascock. The doubles combinations were not indicated, although it is probable that those working in the singles tilt will not be called on for play in the doubles event.

In naming a lineup for the high school, E. M. Kirtley and John Reddy did not attempt a ranking, but confined choice to naming a squad of 12, all of whom will see action. Those named are: V. Campbell, Hicks, Kroschel, Merrick, Qulsenberry, Cope, Rae, Gebhard, Applegate, Hotell and Dudley.

In the special event, H. O. Wilson, club head, will meet John Reddy, high school net tutor. Five of the starting club stars are title holders or former title holders and Sunday will give some indication of the club strength for this year.

COLLEGE WRESTLER HIGH IN MENTALITY
