May Day Inspires Much Entertaining Elks Plan Dance

Tomorrow is May Day, when many blossoms, with leaves freshened by the last April showers, will desert the garden patch to fill quaint baskets for revival of an old-time, romantic custom. And as May baskets take their places at doorways, on luncheon tables and in school windows, the spirit of the May dance, too, will capture Medford, and society folk will gather at the Elks' temple for the May Day ball.

Special decorations appropriate to the time of early blossoms and festivity are promised by the Elks committee along with numerous novelty features. Elks and their invited guests will enjoy the party.

The committee for the evening is composed of Messrs. Bob Strang, Grover Corum, Charles Gilbert, James Dally and Harry Barneburg.

With May Day as incentive, several parties have been held during the past week, bringing renewed interest in bridge luncheons and teas. Several benefit parties were enjoyed and others are planned for the near future.

Carpenters, Hosts At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter were hosts at dinner Wednesday evening to a number of friends at their country home, "Top Sides."

Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Miss Margaret Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell, Charles Voorhies and the hosts.

Pi Phi Observe 66th Anniversary

Members of Pi Phi society in the southern Oregon district met at the home of Mrs. John Moffatt last Wednesday evening for cards and a general discussion of sorority events. There were two tables of bridge in play during the evening, which marked the 66th anniversary of the founding of the sorority.

Present were Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Emerson Merrick, Mrs. Don Newbury, Mrs. K. D. Rose, Mrs. Robt. Hart, Mrs. Wilson Wait, Mrs. Edward C. Kelly, Mrs. Moffatt and her sister.

Charades Return to Popularity Here. Local folk, along with smart Californians, are looking back into the long ago for their amusements these days and one of the most popular "find-me-downs" in the social whirl is the charade. Discarded for many years when nothing less than theater, dancing and lavish dining would satisfy the social appetite, the charade has profited by the depression and finds itself again the center of interest at many parties.

It was utilized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly Thursday evening, where a number of friends gathered, and Dr. R. C. Mulholland won first prize in naming the charades presented. Having tied with Miss Marjorie Kelly for honors at bridge, he outdid her at charades and took the prize for the evening.

Guests present were Misses Marjorie Kelly, Louise Kelly and Dorothy Reynolds and Messrs. Wilton White and Ernest Rosel and Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Mulholland.

Royal Neighbors to Meet Thursday. The Royal Neighbors of America will meet Thursday evening, May 4, for their regular meeting at 7:30, and will practice for the Pep Rally.

Smiths Entertain With Party at Highlands. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith entertained last week at their home on Highlands with a birthday party in honor of Miss Florence Scribner and Henry Joyce, celebrating their birthday anniversaries. Present were: Misses Josephine Carter, Florence Severin, Violeta Smith and Messrs. Bill Hohen, Johnny Carter, Lester Beal, LeRoy West, B. Cunningham, Bill Hamens and Martin Mow and Mr. and Mrs. Roy West, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Scriven, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hinkley, Mr. Beal and daughter, Lueta, Frank Smith, Henry Joyce and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith.

Various games were enjoyed and supper served at midnight.

Bible Class Installs New Officers. At the meeting of the Bible class of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, officers for the new year were installed by Mrs. Belle Little. They are: Mrs. E. N. Chaney, president; Mrs. T. P. Tollefson, vice-president; Mrs. I. N. McCollum, Sunday secretary; Mrs. O. B. Morrow, class secretary and Miss Anne Detweiler, treasurer.

"The Promises of God" were used in the devotion led by Mrs. Sawyer, who stressed the help to be obtained at this time from remembering and relying upon these promises, found in the Bible.

The program included two piano numbers by Miss Dorothy Reynolds and a vocal duet by Mrs. Sanderson and Mrs. Hodgkins. "Take Up Thy Cross."

Bible questions were presented by Mrs. Remington and the social hour followed with Mrs. Albert, the chairman, assisted by Mesdames Iversen, Baker, McCollum and Loomis.

May Queen Contest Demands Interests of Academy Pupils

Rivalry among students of St. Mary's academy is reaching high tide as date for the crowning of a May queen draws near and each day finds many school folk gathered about the polls casting votes for their favorite princess. Candidates for the queenship are Misses Madeleine Schade, Marcella Moran, Kathryn Oliver and Patricia Hayes. The polls will close at noon Wednesday, May 3, and election of the queen will be followed by the May Day frolic.

Chicken dinner will be served from 5 to 7:30 o'clock. A play by the high school boys will be staged at 8:00 o'clock and many concessions will add the carnival spirit to the occasion, which will be climaxed by the crowning of the queen and the coronation march.

Mistletoe Club Has Luncheon. The Mistletoe club met at the home of Mrs. Fruit on Crater Lake highway Wednesday for a covered dish luncheon. Many members and friends were present. After luncheon a short business meeting was held, followed by several readings by Mrs. May Hankin and a vocal and piano piece by Margertha Garrett. The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing cards.

Past Noble Grands to Present Play. The Past Noble Grands club will give a play entitled "Just Like a Woman" Thursday evening, May 4th. Also songs of the "Gay Nineties" will be enacted. Public invited. A small admittance will be charged.

All Past Noble Grands are asked to be present at Rebekah lodge Monday, as this is the last meeting before grand lodge.

Veterans Auxiliary to Meet Monday. The regular meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Cards and refreshments will follow the business meeting.

Local Misses Home From Convention. Misses Beulah Thompson, Lucille Cave, Georgiana Hussong, Edna Hill, Erbrand, Ethel Humphrey, and Susan Haines returned last week from Salem where they attended the state convention of the F. L. clubs.

They were entertained in Roseburg by Mrs. Cave's sister, and also visited with friends in Myrtle Creek and Junction City.

The state convention will be held in Medford in October.

Alpha Delta Class Holds Fine Program. The Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Eunice Hills Friday afternoon for regular monthly business meeting and social. Following the brief business session which was presided over by the president, Mrs. C. M. Hon, an hour of music, pleasant conversation and sewing was enjoyed by the 31 members and friends present.

Mrs. Theodore Stinms gave three delightful piano numbers, Alleen Guy and Mrs. Hills did a vocal duet, "Oh That We Two Were Maying," and very lovely were the three preludes played by Mrs. Hawley Moore.

Mrs. Mable Marsh and her committee served light refreshments which closed a very pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Newbury Is Hostess at Three Charming Parties

Mrs. Donald Newbury is among local hostesses who prefer the spring-time for entertaining. She gave three charming parties last week, inviting friends to buffet luncheon and dessert bridge.

Spring flowers were arranged in attractive bouquets about the house and May baskets, filled with tiny pastel blossoms, were used as individual centerpieces.

There were three tables of contract in play at the Newbury home Friday, five tables on Tuesday and three on Wednesday. Winners of the individual high scores for the different tables were: Mrs. Gus Newbury, Mrs. W. W. Aldrich, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. F. G. Thayer, Mrs. Hamilton Patton, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. Wm. Bolger, Mrs. Justin Smith, Mrs. Arnel P. Butler and Mrs. Burdette Dodge.

Large Party Aids Health Association

Among the most pleasant affairs of the past week was the party in the city hall club rooms Friday afternoon sponsored by the Greater Medford club as a benefit for the Jackson county Public Health association.

Miss Helen Bullis was chairman of the party and prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. Corbin Edgell in contract and Mrs. Hal Platt in auction. Mrs. M. J. Norris and Mrs. O. Q. D'Albini poured.

The meeting of the Greater Medford club will be held May 1 at 2 o'clock at which time officers for the new year will be elected.

Weekly Bible Class Meets Again Tuesday

The Weekly Bible class is beginning the study of the historical books of the Bible. The more one reads this divine word, the more one is convinced that all history is His Story. The lesson last week covered the two books of Samuel in which the power of God in government and in grace are so marvelously and forcefully shown.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, May 2, at the Y. W. C. A. and the lesson will cover the books of the Kings of Israel.

County Employes Enjoy Luncheon

Employees of the county clerk's office entertained yesterday with a luncheon as a get-together for several members of the court house staff. Present were: Mary Smith, Gertrude Butler, Helen Dugan, Edna Blueglove, Elsie Brown, George Carter, Judge W. R. Coleman, W. P. Tucker and L. H. Haines.

C. A. R. Makes Donation to Prescott Fund

General Joseph Lane Society, Children of the American Revolution, held their April meeting with Miss Florence Clifford as hostess.

As the fundamental principle of the organization is to give loyal support to the nation and to work to uphold the laws of the land by precept and example, in support of these ideals the society voted to contribute to the trust fund being raised as a tribute to the late George Prescott, who gave his life in the performance of his sworn duty.

An invitation from Misses Francis and Elizabeth Perry to hold the annual picnic at their country home was accepted and June 7 was the day set for the event. The organization voted to take up the study of the childhood of the president for the coming year and each member will choose one as the subject of an essay to be read before the group.

Officers elected for the coming year are: Barbara Holt, junior president; Elizabeth Vilm, secretary; Florence Clifford, treasurer; Jean Platt, registrar; Jean Gillings, historian; Corinne D'Albini, color bearer.

The delegates who attended the state convention gave reports. Ruth D'Albini read her essay on the Youth of Washington, which was one of three being for second place in the Judge Tucker S. A. R. contest.

In a clever contest Elizabeth Perry won first award. Betty Vilm consolation.

Betty Purdin, a prospective member was a guest, also Mrs. J. Gillings and Mrs. Hal Platt.

Mrs. T. J. Gifford, assisted her daughter Florence in serving refreshments.

Evan Reames On Trip to Capital

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Reames are this week en route to Washington, D. C. with Chief Justice and Mrs. Brand, having left Medford Wednesday for Los Angeles to join the Randa on the eastern trip. They will journey via New Orleans and other points south continuing to New York and the capital, where they plan to spend several weeks.

Several affairs were given in their honor just before their departure by friends wishing them a happy trip.

Sunny Sisters Give Men's Club Dinner

The Sunny Sisters circle of the Presbyterian church entertained Thursday evening at dinner for the men's club of the church and invited guests. Covers were arranged for more than 50 and wild flowers, apple blossoms, iris and other spring flowers formed beautiful decorations for the affair.

The dinner was in charge of Mrs. A. R. Clement, who was assisted by Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, Mrs. Laura M. West, Mrs. Emily Dyanan, Mrs. Roberts and Miss Elizabeth Burr, who arranged the decorations.

Following dinner the club was entertained with an illustrated lecture by E. Raymond Driver of the Old Stage Road, who showed a number of his films of wild flowers and birds of the Oregon coast. Included were scenes of Rogue River and Grater Lake in Oregon and views of Yosemite Valley, Cal.

Many of the pictures were in natural colors and all were received with enthusiasm by the church folk.

Lady Elks Play Bridge Tuesday

Lady Elks will meet at the temple Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for cards. Mrs. G. R. Satchwell will be hostess for the occasion and a good attendance is anticipated.

silver Tea Enjoyed by Many Friday Afternoon. A lovely event of Friday afternoon was the tea, given by Merritt circle of the Presbyterian church. Apple blossoms, iris and spires decorated the parlors for the affair and a pleasing program was presented.

Three readings were given by Anne Dean, one a musical number: Mrs. Garrett sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Strang and Miss Elsie Mae Wilson entertained with two numbers.

Entertaining readings were given by Mrs. Lila Sealbury and Mrs. Watson played two piano numbers, one a left hand rendition of the sextet.

The program was followed by tea with Mrs. Luke and Mrs. E. N. Warner pouring.

Mrs. Barneburg Gives Lovely Bridge Party

Mrs. Harry Barneburg entertained last Tuesday with one of the prettiest parties of the spring season, using a profusion of blossoms to form the setting for cards. There were six tables of bridge in play during the evening and the scheme of decorations was further expressed in refreshments.

Prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. John Price, Mrs. D. R. Conner and Dr. Johnson and Thomas Judge.
