Post-Delphians Hear Discussion of State Affairs

The main theme of the talk by Ho. E. B. Day before the Post-Delphian group and guests on Thursday morning at the court house auditorium emphasized the need for every citizen to be informed on the condition in his county and state and especially that of its financial status. The legislators sent from the various districts, he pointed out are citizens who study very carefully the different measures and they welcome opinions from their constituents. Those advisers of the state of the opportunity to hear Mr. Day were well rewarded for the time and have a deeper appreciation and understanding of the tremendous problem facing the law makers of the state. It is the duty of every voter to inform himself on the measures to be voted on in July, indifference on the part of the public may be disastrous to the financial structure of the state. It was brought out at the Thursday meeting.

Mrs. Leland A. Mentzer gave a brief review of Angkor, Ruins of Cambodia in North China, showing pictures of the ruins. This talk being a preliminary to that of Mrs. Jessie Honeyman who will appear here on May 11 at the time the public too will be invited. Activities of Legion Auxiliary

By Mrs. R. A. Holmes

The stage decorations for the Easter Monday Ball were made and arranged for the Auxiliary by Mrs. Thomas Swem. He gave quite a bit of his time and thought to the arrangement, and the work was greatly admired by all who attended.

The Red Cross chapter has urged the Auxiliary to continue with the sewing during the summer and at the meeting Monday evening it was voted to do so. The welfare committee of the Auxiliary works with the Red Cross and aids in every way possible. If anyone knows of any Legion or Auxiliary members in want of distress please call Mrs. Carol Parker or Mrs. O. L. Overmyer.

The Essay contest conducted by the American Legion Auxiliary each year is well under way and soon the winners will be announced. This contest is conducted in the Junior high school. The subject this year is "What Constitutes Good Citizenship?"

The Jacksonville Legion club has invited the Auxiliary and Legion to be their guests on the evening of May 8th. Admission will be by paid or distress please call Mrs. Carol Parker or Mrs. O. L. Overmyer.

The Poppy committee, under the chairman, Mrs. W. Olmschied, has all plans arranged for the annual Poppy sale. This little red poppy is the flower of the American Legion and Auxiliary. It is a sacred emblem of those who died on Flanders Fields and belongs to the World War veteran alone. The sale of these little red poppies was originated by the American Legion in 1921 and in 1922 was given to the American Legion Auxiliary to conduct the sale, as it was more in the line of their work. The American Legion is composed of men who served their country during the World War, overseas or in this country, and the American Legion Auxiliary is composed of wives, mothers, sisters, daughters or widows of World War veterans who, if living, are members of the American Legion. So this poppy is our flower as we are only composed of those who answered the call of our country in 1917-18.

The Auxiliary has received an invitation from Roseburg unit to attend the Poppy auction, dinner and dance given in honor of the national president, Mrs. A. A. Blackburn of Kentucky. Mrs. Blackburn is on a tour of inspection of veterans hospitals. All who are interested may communicate with Mrs. Rose. A large delegation is desired.

The Sewing club is to meet at the Welfare room on Monday evening, May 1st, at 8 p. m. There are children's dresses to be finished and some new articles to be made. We need all the help possible as these summer clothes are needed by the Red Cross.

1008 CHILDREN IN ASHLAND NORMAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

"If music were a little thing, great music given to the world by great masters, so simply that a child could sing it, could not call out the devotion shown by young and old at the Southern Oregon Normal school music festival"—such was the comment of a spectator at the fifth annual music fete, which drew 1008 children from northern California and southern Oregon to Ashland on Thursday and Friday.

Cloudless skies, a warm spring sun and flowers blooming everywhere put all in an appreciative mood for the splendid program, climaxed by music by the concerted bands, conducted by F. Wilson Walt of this city.

The outstanding number, according to the music critics was "Peter Schmitt's" overture by Von Weber, which brought many compliments to Mr. Walt, who brought forth interpretations "decidedly orchestral."

Each day's program was opened with addresses by Mayor Wiley and President Walter Redford and the more than 1000 children in attendance were accompanied by forty-two teachers and 167 school patrons.

In the chorus of unchanged voices Thursday, directed by Miss Louise Woodford of the Southern Oregon Normal school, 550 pupils from 19 schools participated. In folk dancing, directed by Virginia Hales of the normal school, 218 pupils from 12 schools went through the same numbers.

Eight schools were represented in the Junior high school mixed chorus, directed by Lillie Darby of Klamath Falls. Three hundred and two voices were blended in the songs.

Special numbers were presented Thursday by the Junior high school band of Weed, Calif., directed by Don Colvig, who also directed the presentations of the Junior high school massed bands, including 85 instruments.

Other special numbers were offered by the Rogue River Girls' chorus, directed by Mrs. Minnie P. Guy; Griffin creek pupils, directed by Miss Hussong; Ashland Lincoln pupils, directed by Kathryn Teasack; Howard school pupils, directed by Eloise Peyton; Talent, directed by Floy Young, and Klamath Falls, directed by Lillie Darby.

The Friday program included special numbers by the Ashland orchestra, directed by Ward Craft; the Weed band, under Colvig; the Grants Pass quartet directed by Melba Macy. The girls' chorus was also directed by Miss Macy with Miss Marian Moore of this city at the piano.

Four numbers were sung by the boys' chorus under direction of Mrs. Minnie Guy; Miss Helen Kilgore, Ashland, accompanist. The mixed chorus was directed by Miss Harriet
